

U. OF O. REGISTRATION NEARS 5222 MARK
Registration for spring term at the University of Oregon reached 5170 Saturday noon, or one per cent less than registration figures of 5222 at this same time a year ago.

The registrar's office said Saturday there is a good chance that registration this term will equal that of last spring.

JEW MAN DEFENSE AGAINST ARABS

A MEMBER OF THE HAGANAH (right) gives the signal for firing of a mortar against Arab attackers near a Jewish settlement in Palestine, close to the Syrian border. Large-scale Arab attacks on Jewish convoys cost seventy Jewish lives in two days. (International)

RAINFALL AT BLACKBUTTE

Mrs. Lillian Stimmel, weather observer at Blackbutte supplies some interesting information on the March rainfall in that area. March 1948 rainfall measured 7.25 inches with the heaviest fall on the 22nd amounting to 1.49 inches. Snow fell on the 19th, 20th, 21st and 22nd.

By comparison rainfall in other years was March 1945, 12.26 inches; March 1946, 7.98 inches; March 1947, 8.89 inches.

LET'S SING AMERICA

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene—Registration for the final big broadcast of the University of Oregon's "Let's Sing, America!" radio program is now open, Miss Maude Garnett, director, announces. This means that grade schools of Oregon have almost four weeks in which to write in and register for the annual event, planned this year for April 29.

"Let's Sing, America!", a music participation program planned primarily for children in the one and two room rural schools of Oregon, will celebrate its fifth year at the April 29th broadcast. The final event, culmination of the year's broadcasts, will be the fourth annual one. It is a part of state-owned station KOAC's School of the Air and is put on under the direction of Miss Garnett, associate professor of public school music in the University of Oregon.
