CHURCH SOCIETY ENTERTAINED IN EUGENE

Thirty members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church journeyed to Eugene Wednesday for a covered dish dinner and monthly meeting with Mrs. E. E. Cone, in her new home. Mrs. Bayard Reed of Roseburg joined the group. At the afternoon meeting Mrs. Frank Brown led the devotional service, and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. J. W. Englund sang two duets, accompanied by Mrs. Ransome Cone. Mrs. N. E. Compton presented the lesson. Plans were made for the annual experience social to be held next month and they also planned a merchants' lunch for April 24 at the church.

SKATING PARTY FOR JUNIOR SAFETY PATROL

Approximately 50 Junior Safety Patrol members enjoyed a skating party Tuesday night at the local rink from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Mr. Schweigart, operator of the rink, donated the skates and time. Jack Kelly was responsible for the release of the floor for the party. The Junior Safety Patrol is sponsored by the local Lions club, and the party was planned by the safety patrol committee of the club under the direction of Edgar Rickard, chairman of the committee. The Lions club furnished pop for the group and Wally Robertson of Clark's Studio was on hand to take their pictures.

Double Wedding Sun. Little Church on The Hill, At Walker

The Little Church on the Hill at Walker was beautifully decorated with baskets of Easter lilies and white flickering tapers in candelabra Sunday afternoon, April 11th, for a double wedding, the one service uniting the two couples. The Rev. Frank E. Brown, pastor of the local Methodist church, read the double ring service for both couples before a large group of relatives and friends at 2:00 o'clock.

Soloist for the weddings was Miss Charleye Wood, who sang "Always" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Reginald Fauquier, who also played the wedding marches. Candlelighters were Reta Keene and Maxine Freeman and ushers were Frank Rasmusen and Fred Freeman.

Miss Barbara Lee Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hayes, became the bride of William Don Ewing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewing, all of Cottage Grove. Mr. Hayes gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a dove grey suit, pink and white accessories and a white orchid corsage, and for something old, borrowed and blue she wore a gold necklace with blue stone belonging to her grandmother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Faye Ewing, sister-in-law of the groom, who wore a light green suit with black accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds. Best man was Faye Ewing, brother of the groom.

Miss Hazel Irene Lasley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lasley, of Jasper exchanged wedding vows with Dick M. Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hayes of Cottage Grove. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her suit was of beige tan and accessories were pink and white. She wore a corsage of white orchids, and for something old she wore a single strand of pearls belonging to her grandmother.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. Ruth Thomas, who was attired in a navy blue suit with red accessories and a rosebud corsage. Harry Hayes was best man for his brother.

Immediately following the ceremony the couples left for short wedding trips to the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are now at home on H street and Mr. and Mrs. Ewing on South Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing are both graduates of the local high school. He is a veteran of the late war and now employed at the Woodard Lumber Co. Mrs. Ewing has been employed at Irish-Swartz store since graduation.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hayes graduated from the Pleasant Hill high school and he served in the Navy, just recently receiving his discharge. He is employed by Hayes and Godard and she has been with the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in Eugene, but is transferring to the local office.

Out of town guests for the weddings were: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hayes, Delores and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis, Susanne, Penny Jo and Butch, all of Eugene; Gerry Jo Lebow, Jasper; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Vick and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Donovan of Creswell; Mrs. A. M. Fuller of Denver, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Lasley, Buddy, Don and Phyllis of Jasper; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mathers of Goshen; Grace Metz of Eugene; Dora Heinicke of Cheyenne, Wyoming.

HOME EC. ALL DAY MEETING

The regular meeting of the Home Ec. club of the Hebron Grange was April 9 at the home of Rosie Lewis. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. At the business meeting Elsie White and Mabel Powell were appointed on the committee to work with the chaplain to make plans for church Sunday. It was reported that the Goshen Home Ec. club will visit the Hebron club and Hebron club will visit the Dorena Home Ec. club.

Dorothy Hayes, Gladys Means and Nora Yearous were appointed to buy cards for the club to sell, with Lillian Marcey chairman of the buying committee. The meeting day of the club has been changed from the second Friday to the fourth Friday, making the next meeting April 23rd, to be held at the home of Katherine Patton. This will be an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon at noon.

The time was spent in working on aprons for the bazaar, and a bridal shower was given in the afternoon for Barbara Hayes. She received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Social night was announced for Saturday, April 17th, and will be a leap year dance with the men in charge of refreshments. Each family is asked to bring a cake or jelly.

Refreshments were served in the late afternoon.

TOWNSEND MEETING

A 6:30 covered dish dinner preceded the usual business meeting Monday night when plans were made for circulating the petitions of the Oregon Pension Act, the bill that is being sponsored by the clubs. Volunteers are wanted in outlying districts.

A program of singing, music and readings closed a very pleasant evening.

THIRD DEGREE GIVEN CLASS OF CANDIDATES

At the Odd Fellows meeting last week the third degree was conferred on a class of candidates, this being followed by refreshments. A feature of this week's meeting will be a new class of candidates among which will be three brothers all under 30 years of age. The father presented the names of his sons for membership.

COUPLE UNITED APRIL 13

Miss Helen M. George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. George of Lorane route, formerly of Inglewood, California, and James R. Isaacs of Cottage Grove were united in marriage Tuesday, April 13, at seven o'clock at the First Baptist church, by the Rev. Peter J. Bakker, pastor of the church.

The groom was formerly of Mississippi, coming here two years ago following his discharge from the army.

CLUB REPORTS ON AFRICA AND RUSSIA

At the regular meeting of the Tuesday Evening club Mrs. Joe T. Smith gave a report on South Africa and Mrs. Bert Trask reviewed the book "Just Tell the Truth" by John L. Strohm, which is a story of agricultural life in Russia.

At an evening service, Wednesday, March 31, at the First Methodist church in Eugene, Ruth Winifred Godbey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watts, and LeRoy Joe Ewing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewing, all of Cottage Grove, exchanged wedding vows with the Rev. L. O. Griffith officiating, before the immediate members of the families.

The bride was attractive in a turquoise blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon trip to the coast. They are now at home at 1308 East Main street.

The groom spent two years in the Navy, following his graduation from the local high school.

MYF HOLDS FIRST MEETING IN NEW CHURCH

Sunday night 21 members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church gathered at the home of the pastor, the Rev. Frank Brown, for a social hour with the Rev. Brown and Mrs. Brown as hosts and were completely surprised when they were taken into the new church building and into the League room for the first service to be conducted in the new building. The fireplace furnished the only light for the service and here they had a wienner and marshmallow roast, and as the first flames flickered up the chimney, the group joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne."

The worship service around the fireplace was led by the Rev. and Mrs. Brown on the topic "The House That Friendship Built." Miss Pauline Dyksterhuis, president of the Fellowship challenged the members to raise all possible funds for the new church.

Flash bulb pictures in color were taken of the group and songs they had learned at camp were sung. The meeting closed with the League benediction.

DAUGHTERS OF NILE MEET AT BAGLEY HOME

On Wednesday night of last week the Daughters of the Nile gathered at the home of Mrs. Orlo Bagley for a dessert course, business meeting and evening of bridge. Assisting Mrs. Bagley were Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. Lloyd Aldrich, Mrs. E. R. Husted and Mrs. Pat Rickard. Twenty-six guests were present with high score at bridge going to Mrs. Ralph Saltsman.

The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Saltsman, who will be assisted by Mrs. L. Lasater, Mrs. H. W. Lombard, Mrs. Schofield Stewart and Mrs. Palmer Johnson.
