LADIES GOLF CLUB PLANNING TOURNAMENTS

Despite the uncertain weather the ladies golf club turned out to play golf on the second Wednesday, April 14th, the regular meeting date. We will meet again on May 12th. Later we plan to have tournaments with Eugene and Roseburg clubs. After the usual delicious luncheon, two threesomes played and ladder competition was resumed. Belle Burkholder challenged Lochie Thompson, whom she beat, but was in turn defeated by Frances Hunter who challenged Miss Burkholder. However, since the prize went to the lady who landed on No. 4 green in first tee shot, Miss Burkholder won this due to the fact that she others reached the green in first shots. Jean Londahl, who had the best score and who also still heads the ladder, again won the lady golfer trophy which she gets to keep until May 13th, or until she wins it again. We missed our treasurer Barbara Hill who was unable to be present. The weather behaved wonderfully having a sunny spell and turning unusually warm so that we almost got sunburned. However the rain resumed after we were thru with nine holes. Newcomers are welcome any time, we would like to see more of them out May 12th.

SHOWER FOR RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. E. L. Clark entertained 32 guests Saturday afternoon at a bridal shower honoring Mrs. Vaughn Carey, formerly Miss Leona Hamill, of Portland, who was married March 17 in Portland by the Rev. George Hardy. Spring flowers decorated the rooms, and table decorations including a wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, were symbolic of the occasion. The bride and groom cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Clark was assisted in serving by Shelia Markham, sister of the bride, Mary Ann Doolittle and Bobbie June Clark.

Appropriate bridal games furnished the afternoon's entertainment, and each guest registered with her favorite recipe. The many lovely and useful gifts were presented in a clever way, with the bride and groom being presented a silver bell with white ribbons attached which led to a crepe paper covered clothes basket laden with the gifts.

RESEARCH CLUB REVIEWS TWO BOOKS

At the regular meeting of the Research club Tuesday night at the library two books were reviewed, one by Gladys Rose of Springfield, "Consultation Room" by Frederick Loomis, and the other "Thus Far and No Further," written by Godden, and reviewed by Ida Williams.

Recently the club held election of officers for the coming year. At this time Grace Parrett was elected president; Nora Small, vice-president; Ida Williams, secretary and treasurer, and Helen Hagen, reporter.

GOLDEN WEDDING OBSERVED IN EUGENE

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Barton H. Douglass was observed in Eugene Sunday afternoon, April 18, when open house was held at their home, at 494 Eleventh Avenue West, from two to five o'clock.

Mr. Douglass and Addie M. Snoddy were married April 19, 1898, in St. Lawrence, South Dakota. In 1913 the couple moved west to Washington, and since 1935 Mr. and Mrs. Douglass have made their home in Eugene.

They are the parents of three children, who, with their families, were present for the anniversary. They are Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Benton, and Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Johnson, and Bruce of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Douglass, and Paula Jo of Lebanon. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Johnson of Portland. He is a medical student there and a grandson to Mr. and Mrs. Douglass.

Mrs. Arthur Stivers poured and Mrs. O. D. Gray cut the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron M. Douglass of Spokane also were present for the event. He is a brother of Mr. Douglass and the women are sisters. Mrs. Byron Douglass played the music for her sister's wedding fifty years ago.

INITIATION HELD BY REBEKAHS

At the regular meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night initiation was held for Lola Crane, Mary Blair and Myrtle Kiese. Announcement was made of the social night for Odd Fellows and Rebekahs with a 6:45 potluck supper for tonight.

On the next meeting night the Eugene grand lodge team will be here and furnish entertainment which will be open for the public. The refreshment committee for that night will be Mildred Anderson, Ina Stewart, Dora Stinson, May Thies, Florence Walker, Tressa Tuller, Esther Trunnell, Anna Adams, Margaret Arnold and Vera Ziebeck.

Those reported on the sick list were Gladys Means and Zula Hansen. Rosie Currin was reported as well as could be expected after her accident. Cards of thanks were read from Margaret Arnold and Emma Erwin for kindnesses during their illnesses. Minnie Willis reported receiving a letter from Aunt Fannie Goude, now living at the IOOF home in Portland, saying she is to take part in a program this week. The Past Noble Grand meeting was announced for April 29. Nomination of officers will be held at the next regular meeting.

4-H SAWDUST WOODWORKING CLUB

The 4-H Sawdust Woodworking club met Saturday, April 10, at the Vinal Randall home. The business meeting was conducted by the president, William Saltsman. The Achievement day program was planned for April 24 at which time all completed projects are to be displayed along with the completed record books. Summer camp plans were also talked over. Bill Randall served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

SPANISH WAR VETS & AUX.

The United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary will hold their regular meetings next Monday night, April 26, at the home of Mrs. Lillian Doolittle. A 6:30 potluck supper will be served.

THETA RHO'S INITIATE

The Theta Rho Girls held initiation Monday night at their regular meeting for Mary Beth Myers and Baba Lee Mosby. Each girl was presented a corsage by the lodge. Plans were made for the district convention which will be held in Eugene May 8th. May 2nd was announced as church Sunday for the girls, who will meet in a body at 10:45 in front of the Baptist church and attend that church service. And plans were completed for the rummage sale to be May 15, and they discussed their mother-daughter tea to be held in observance of Mother's day. Girls collecting money for corsages for the mothers are Sydney Sheets for the grade school girls and Patty Coats for the high school girls.

4-H Clothing Club Achievement Day

Achievement Day for the 4-H Clothing club at London school was the highlight of the Wednesday meeting of London 4-H Mothers club. A brief business meeting was conducted following luncheon by the president, Marie Stein. It was announced that the clubhouse would be used for the May 31st election. Chaperones appointed for the next 4-H youth party were Gladys Kelley and Lawana Sugg. During the afternoon members worked on the quilt and a display of articles made by 4-H girls were on display.

Later in the afternoon the 4-H Clothing club girls were dismissed from school and held their Achievement program at the club house. A business meeting was conducted by their president, Marjorie Newton, who thanked club members for their co-operation during the year. An annual report of work done by members was given by the secretary, Betty Clark. They decided to hold their monthly 4-H party at the clubhouse the evening of April 23rd. A gift was presented by officers of the club to their leader, Jeanne Morton, in appreciation for her help during the year.

Following the business meeting the girls held a style revue to model their work dresses and aprons they had made in their project and the younger group modeled their woven bags.

Miss Melba Maston, assistant county club agent, was present and presented girls who participated in Achievement Day with their awards: a satin 4-H ribbon to keep, a felt 4-H shield to wear and a 4-H pencil to use. The Mothers Club award of a half scholarship was awarded to Thana Mae Abeene. It was announced that Wana Fay Sugg had been chosen by the 4-H Summer Camp committee to be a junior counselor at camp this year. Miss Maston gave a short talk to the girls about their work following presentation of awards. The club girls later served tea to mothers and friends present.

Those participating in Achievement Day were: Donna Abeene, Thana Mae Abeene, Betty Clark, Phyllis Garman, Marjorie Newton, Leota Raiser, Wana Fay Sugg, Zenda Garman and Doris Hald. Guests for luncheon and the afternoon were Miss Melba Maston and Mrs. Betty Woodward. The next meeting will be held at the clubhouse on April 28th and members are urged to come early to work on the quilt.

B. & P. W. POTLUCK DINNER

About 25 members of the Business and Professional Women's club gathered at the Ruth Stewart Caldwell home Monday evening for a potluck supper, program and business meeting. The "come as you are" part brought out some clever costumes.

Adelia Hatch, news service chairman, was in charge of the program which consisted of two violin solos by Mrs. Robert Merrick, accompanied by Mrs. Caldwell, and two piano selections by Mary Lou Wolfard. Miniature newspapers with current events and the regular articles found in a small town paper were circulated among the members for entertainment.

The Southwest district conference was announced for May 2nd at Bend, and the Northwest district conference will be held at Astoria April 25.

Ruth Stewart Caldwell, Lila Graham and Pearl Gieschler were appointed on a committee to prepare some form of entertainment for the local club's part at the state convention to be held in Eugene June 4-5-6. Edna Burleson, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Caldwell's home was beautifully decorated with wild and tame spring flowers.

The next meeting will be May 3 in the library of the Jefferson school at 7:45 o'clock. This will be the regular business meeting.

MIZPAH CLASS

The regular monthly meeting of the Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school was held Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. Connie Grindle and Miss Stella Adams as hostesses. Miss Adams, president, conducted the business meeting at which 12 members were present. Refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostesses.

The May meeting will be with Mrs. Rickard.

UMPUQA BAPTIST WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Six of the ladies of the local Baptist church attended an all day meeting of the Umpqua Baptist Women's Association Tuesday at Bandon.

Miss Lena Zendron led the devotional service at the morning meeting, and Mrs. Salem Magnusson and Mrs. P. J. Bush sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Reed. Others attending from here were Mrs. Ervin Hansen and Mrs. W. C. Martin.

At the election of officers Mrs. Reed was elected secretary and treasurer of the group and Mrs. Martin was retained as Missionary Speaker.

REGULAR MEETING

The Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War met last week with Miss Hazel Tohlen for the regular business meeting. At this time a past president pin was presented Marie Sorensen. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

On April 27 at 2:00 p. m. Mrs. Lee Cooley will entertain the group at its social meeting.

GOLDEN WEDDING TO BE OBSERVED MAY 1

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Jones will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary May 1 at the First Baptist church, at 12:00 o'clock with a banquet and reception following.

1:30 DESSERT BY CLUB

A dessert course was served the Utopia club Thursday afternoon by Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin at her home, her dessert table being centered with peach blossoms and pink tapers. A social afternoon was enjoyed by the members and special guests, Mrs. F. L. Grannis of Portland, Mrs. A. H. Brachvogel, Mrs. S. L. Godard and Mrs. A. Hixson. Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr. will be hostess at the May meeting, the 13th.
