Church of Christ, 6th and Gibbs, "the church with a friendly spirit"—This Sunday is the day when we begin our new series of sermons in our "Christ Centering Crusade." This will be a real attempt to follow the footsteps of Jesus from the cradle to His ascension. One line of the messages, the evening series, will deal with the teaching of Jesus, while the morning sermons will deal exclusively with the events of the life and ministry of Jesus. We will do our best to make these messages both instructive and interesting. We believe you will add greatly to your knowledge of the life and teachings of Christ, if you faithfully attend these services during the Crusade.

Whether you are a member or a stranger, we extend to you a kindly invitation to come! —J. Michael Shelley, minister.

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 2.

The Golden Text is, "Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate. The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate" (Ps. 34:21, 22).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath" (Prov. 15:24), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Hell, Mortal belief; error; lust; remorse; hatred; revenge; sin; sickness; death; suffering and self-destruction; self-imposed agony; effects of sin; that which worketh abomination or maketh a lie" (p. 588).

Christian Science Society, Cottage Grove, Oregon, 242, Second street holds Sunday services at 11 a. m. and Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Wednesday evening meetings at 8 p. m. (the second Wednesday of each month). Reading room is open Monday through Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m.

SOCIETY

ANNUAL BANQUET OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH MAY 5

The annual banquet and business meeting of the First Baptist church will be transacted on the evening of Wednesday, May 5, at 6:30 p. m. Dr. Vance Webster of Eugene will be the inspirational speaker, followed by the important business meeting. The Dorcas Circle is in charge of the banquet, and the deacons and deaconesses have invited as their special guests, all those who have united with the church in the past year. Election of officers includes the expiring terms of deacon Ervin Hansen, deaconess Anna Bush, trustee Roy Means, clerk Fred Walton, treasurer Elsa Spriggs. These elected officers, plus all the committees, will be voted upon. A nominating committee, with its chairman, Mr. H. H. Weidreyer, has prepared a ballot for this election. The pastor's resignation will also be accepted or rejected.

All friends and members of the church are invited and expected to be present. All reports of the church will be in a booklet form, and that will shorten the business part of the meeting.

BETHLEHEM WHITE SHRINE

The regular meeting of the Bethlehem White Shrine of Jerusalem was held in Masonic Temple, Eugene, Thursday evening, April 22. Mata Ambler, the noble prophetess, presided over the meeting as Ida Hinshaw, worthy high priestess, was absent, being in attendance at the Supreme Shrine in the east. Routine business was conducted and at the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the dining hall.

The next meeting will be held on May 27.

PINOCHLE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McKenzie entertained a group of friends Saturday evening at a pinochle party. Four tables of pinochle were at play. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ashbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Al Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Monroe, all of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Capp, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marple of Cottage Grove.

Twice during the evening one thousand aces were held by Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Marple. Honors for the evening went to Gene Capp and Mrs. Larry Ashbridge, and low to T. H. Montgomery.

The hosts served refreshments at a late hour.

FORMER RESIDENT HONORED AT DESSERT

Mrs. Maybelle Wilson of Phoenix, Arizona, but recently of Seattle, has been visiting friends here enroute to her home at Phoenix, and was honored with a dessert and evening of bridge when Mrs. J. P. Graham invited a few of her Neighbors of Woodcraft friends in for the evening. Mrs. Graham was assisted by Mrs. William Bartels Sr. Scoring honor at bridge went to Mrs. L. Lasater, and the guest prize to Mrs. Wilson.

CFC'S BIBLE STUDY

The Crusaders for Christ of the Church of Christ gathered Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beach for their weekly Bible study and nearly completed the introduction on "Christian Evidences." The group enjoyed popcorn at the close of the meeting. All interested young people are cordially invited to these Bible studies.
