Marble Tourney To Be Held Here Saturday May 8th

An interesting marble tournament awaits grade school youngsters and a chance for a free trip to Portland and perhaps to the national tournament at Salt Lake City June 3 to 5. The Tournament is being sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars with Lew Hart of the Bohemia Lumber Co., in charge of arrangements.

The local elimination tournament will be held here at the Jefferson school grounds, Saturday, starting at 1:00 p.m. Grade school pupils from Culp Creek, Mt. View, Dorena, London, Latham, Lorane, Delight Valley, Saginaw and Cottage Grove will be eligible to compete in the local event here Saturday, which will be held under the Jefferson play shed if it rains. Four will be chosen in the two divisions. The champion and the runner-up in division A from 6 to 12 years old and the champion and runner-up in division B, 13 to 15 years. The four will get a free trip to the Jantzen beach at Portland, Hart said, and likewise four winners from the state will get a free trip to the national tournament at Salt Lake City, June 3, 4 and 5.

Cottage Grove and Oakridge boosted the state entrants to 48 and there is unusual interest in the coming tourney. Mr. Hart said, who can answer questions regarding the event.

Sunday, May 2, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Helliwell attended the wedding of Mr. Helliwell's niece, Miss Ruth Hartley, to James Ernest Doudiet, which took place in the Episcopal church in Bend.

Radio Ray Nelson spent four days last week in San Francisco looking over plans for his new building here; and getting the latest information on heat pump systems, of home heating. After spending all winter in Oregon's "misty" weather he hit northern California at the time of the first good rains they have had this year.
