Mrs. Ella Wills Feted On 85th. Birthday

Mrs. Ella Jane Wills was honored Saturday, May 1, on her 85th birthday anniversary with a family dinner held at the Wills farm on the London road, which has been her home for the past 60 years. Mrs. Wills was pleasantly surprised by having all her children home for the occasion. Mrs. Wills received many lovely gifts, including four large birthday cakes.

Those present for the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. D. Ernest Wills, Vallejo, California, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert H. Wills, Paradise, California, Mrs. T. Ralph Wills, Fair Oaks, California, Mrs. Alice Wills Noth, Salem, Mrs. Margaret Nichel, Woodland, California, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Shortridge, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Newton, Miss Maxine Currin, University of Oregon, Richard Currin and Mr. and Mrs. Lynch Currin, at whose home the dinner was given.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY VISITS SHUTINS ON TUESDAYS

The Free Methodist Missionary Society called at the Mary Smith home at Walker April 27th for a devotional service and social hour. Seventeen were present for the song service with Mrs. Jackson as accompanist, scripture and prayer. Mrs. Ruth Richmond, leader, appointed Mrs. Mary Booth as secretary for the club, which is unnamed as yet. A suitable name will be chosen at the next meeting. The ladies call once a week on at least two shutins. Cake and coffee were served and delicious candy made by Mrs. M. A. Horn.

Mrs. Richmond chose as her helpers for next week, Bernice Overton and Rozella Douglas. These will serve refreshments at the meeting May 4 at Mrs. Walker's home.

The ladies also called at the Milton Ross home at 122 North River Road where singing was enjoyed and prayer offered, and a plate of cake was left for Mr. Ross. Both Mrs. Smith and Mr. Ross are shutins.

CLUB HAS EVENING OF CURRENT EVENTS

Topics of current events occupied the time of the Tuesday Evening club held last week in the library. Topics reported on were: "Monkeys With Plastic Skulls" by Mrs. C. E. Dillman; "Women of the Argentine" by Mrs. Clyde Roberts; "The Artist as President," a topic on Venezuelan president, by Mrs. Dan Hamant; "Shall We Trade Teachers With Germany?" by Mrs. S. L. Mackin; "Vermiculite, Strangest of Metals" by Mrs. Charles Hall, and "The Horror in the Nursery" by Miss Mariette Hamant.

Mrs. Warren Snapp was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Warren Edwards was a guest.

The next meeting will be May 11th and will be the annual meeting with election of officers.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS TO MEET MAY 10

There will be a meeting of the Unity Chapter of Gold Star Mothers of America in Eugene Monday, May 10th, at 1:30 p.m., at the YWCA library, 1060 Willamette street. All gold star mothers are welcome to join the club.

PAST MATRONS MAY 10

The Past Matrons club will hold a short business meeting May 10th in the club room.

MARY ANNE BANTON SHOWERED

(Mrs. Gale Roby)

One of the largest and most elaborate social functions of the London community for the season was the wedding shower given Friday afternoon, April 30, by Mrs. Jeanne Morton at the London 4-H clubhouse for Mary Anne Banton.

A reading was given by Mrs. Morton on "Bells." Many beautiful and useful gifts of linen and glassware and miscellaneous wedding gifts were opened by Miss Banton assisted by Mrs. Lawana Sugg as tally.

Dainty and unusual refreshments of ribbon and pin wheel sandwiches and assorted attractively decorated cookies and coffee were prepared and served by Mrs. Morton assisted by Mrs. Marie Stein, Lawana Sugg, and Esther Banton.

Thirty-two guests signed the artistic keepsake guest-gift book with special guests, Mrs. Gerald Banton and mother, Mrs. C. A. Marlow of Eugene, Mrs. Clara Bachelder of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Garland Abene and Mrs. J. E. Banton, aunt and grandmother of Miss Banton.

Miss Banton will become the bride of Vernon Warren of Eugene in a Cottage Grove ceremony by the Rev. Frank E. Brown, Methodist minister, on May 14, and leave for Downs, Kansas, to make her home.

B. Y. F. ELECTION

The Senior Baptist Youth Fellowship had their election of officers last Sunday in April. Miss Sarah Jenkins, the past president, was in charge of the business meeting. David Andriesian was elected president; Bobbie June Clark, vice-president; Marilyn White, secretary-treasurer; Daniel Andriesian, Lorraine Robertson, and Mary Bush, social committee. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bush were unanimously elected as their advisors.

The Junior B. Y. had their elections last Sunday. Miss Janice Johnson was elected president; Miss Betty Parrett, vice-president and Joan Bush, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Frank Bridwell and Mrs. Roy Reed are their advisors.

FIRST NOMINATION OF OFFICERS BY REBEKAHS

At the regular business meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night in the IOOF hall the first nomination of officers was held. Visitors were present from Eugene, Creswell and Coburg, and following the lodge session the grand lodge team from Eugene furnished an hour's entertainment of readings, music and Charles Poole showed moving pictures which he took on a trip to Canada. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next regular meeting will be Friday night, May 7.

THETA RHO GIRLS COMPLETE PLANS

Plans were completed for various activities of the Theta Rho Girls Monday night at their regular meeting. A definite date was set for their rummage sale which will be May 22nd in the Githens Motors building. All articles are to be left there by the evening of the 21st. Final plans were made for the convention to be held in Eugene Saturday, May 8th. All girls are to meet at the Greyhound bus depot to leave there at 9:00 o'clock sharp. Arrangements were completed for the mother-daughter banquet which was held May 5th in the IOOF hall. First nomination of officers was held also.

MPG CLUB AT MARTIN HOME

Mrs. W. C. Martin entertained the M. P. G. club Tuesday afternoon at a dessert course and social afternoon at her home, which was attractive with a variety of spring flowers. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Karl Mills.

Vows Repeated At 50th. Anniversary

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jones was held at the Baptist church in Cottage Grove May 1. Before the ceremony the song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold" was very beautifully rendered. The wedding ceremony was reenacted with Judge Stearns of Oakland, Oregon, who is now 93 years old, performing the ring ceremony. He had married Mr. and Mrs. Jones 50 years ago at Oakland, Oregon. Wayne Jones, oldest son, was best man and Lois Noel, oldest daughter, was bridesmaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones' family of five boys and two girls were present. Wayne Jones of Coos Bay, Adis Jones of Reedsport, Mrs. Lois Noel of Reedsport, Mrs. Alice Perkins of California, Ted Jones of California, Stacey Jones of Everett, Washington and Earl Jones of Coos Bay.

After the ceremony a banquet dinner was served in the church basement to about 200 relatives and friends. The tables were beautifully decorated with bouquets in keeping with the day, with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake trimmed in gold and white, and golden candles. The bride cut the first piece of wedding cake which was served to guests and friends.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones and son, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jones and children, Mr. and Mrs. Adis Jones and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Jones and children, Mr. and Mrs. Noel, Mrs. Alice Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Eugene, Mrs. Clara William Walterville, Mrs. Pearl Drury, Cottage Grove, Mrs. Joe Yokum and daughter, Springfield, Sam Jones, Oakland, J. B. Jones, Oakland, Mrs. Applegate, Cottage Grove, Lizzie Dolan, Etta Blackwell, Alice Jacquet, Silverton, Ore., Mae Roberts, Lenora Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cellars, Yoncalla, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vail, Mrs. Lewis Holliman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lee, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Marsters, Roseburg, Ore., Ethel Malcom, Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Fern Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Land, Mrs. D. L. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Watkins and son, Lyle Lee, Dr. and Mrs. Wright Lee, George Freed, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rogers and children, Georgina Sherman, Ada Sherman, Melva Jones, Pauline Bloomquist, Cora Lewis, Lola Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mills, Mr. and Mrs. John William, Mrs. J. E. Stearns, Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. John Sowles, Mamie Gidney, Pearl Safley, Dave and Gene Kime, Anna Perkins, Adelaide Morris, Reedsport, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vanelman, Bessie Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smiley, Pearl Prichard, Mr. and Mrs. Langdon, Yoncalla.

Many congratulations were received by Mr. and Mrs. Jones. Very beautiful gifts were received from many friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Jones live now on Birch avenue in Cottage Grove, but most of their married life was spent near Yoncalla, Ore.

The banquet dinner was prepared by Mrs. Morris of Reedsport, friend of the Jones family and served by the very capable Baptist ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Jones wish to thank their many friends and relatives for making this day of days a success, and many more years of happiness is wished them by their friends.

MRS. HUNTER HOSTESS

Mrs. Walter Hunter was hostess to the Elite Bridge club last Thursday evening at a 7:30 dessert and evening of contract bridge. Mrs. Stewart Carlson held high score at bridge. Mrs. E. R. Husted will entertain the club at the next meeting.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet, Tuesday night, May 11, at the home of Mrs. Virgil Lomax, 757 N. 10th street. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Stanley Abrams and Mrs. Grant Lovegren.

AUXILIARY INSTALLS NEWLY ELECTED OFFICERS

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary recently installed the newly elected officers with Dorothy Hill, senior vice president of the department of Oregon, as installing officer, assisted by Ruth Beason and color bearers from Eugene. Officers installed were: Elsie Patten, president; Pearl Spain, junior vice; Ada Oakes, conductress; Margaret Woodrume, chaplain; Phyllis Pruett, secretary; Lorraine Garoutte, historian; Pearl Garoutte and Helen Sherman, trustees. Those ill and unable to attend or out of town, who will be installed later are: Geraldine Craine, patriotic instructor; June Bird, treasurer; Flora Koch, guard; Mary Duffy, senior vice.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting and the next meeting was announced for May 14th.

PLAYS BY GRANGES TO BE MAY 24TH

The date of the three one-act plays to be given by the Goshen, Creswell and Hebron Granges at the Latham school has been changed from May 11th to the 24th. The Hebron Grange will go to Thurston the 19th and put on the play there.

WRC TO MEET MAY 8

The Women's Relief Corps will meet Saturday, May 8, in the IOOF hall at 2:00 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

WCS EXPERIENCE SOCIAL

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will hold its annual spring experience social Wednesday, May 12, at 1:45 in the church parlors. Hostesses will be Mrs. C. N. Land, Mrs. Herb Adams, Mrs. Ruth Growelle and Mrs. W. H. Bachelder.

RESEARCH CLUB AT LIBRARY

At the regular meeting of the Research club Tuesday night in the city library, Miss Eunice Vandenberg reviewed the article "Zacchini Family" by John Kohler, and Mrs. Ida Williams reported on the article "I Am an Army Wife in Germany," written by Mrs. C. K. Bartell.
