FISHING INTERFERES WITH TRAP SHOOT

Members of the Rod and Gun club will no doubt agree that you can't mix shooting and fishing. At least some clubs over the state closed the shoot for the opening of the fishing season. By reason of the fishing season opening, the local shooters did not quite measure up to par Sunday with one 25 and four 24's, but are still in the running. Harry Hentle, who has seen many fishing seasons come and go didn't let the opening worry him, so he shot a twenty-five. Hap Wolfard, Ray Vincent, Glen Wicks and Palmer Johnson all shot a twenty-four.

Hap Wolfard, who has slipped somewhat, has been put on a diet of sassafras and molasses for the remainder of the month by the club doctor.

Maxine Thomas, who has been employed at the Square Deal Barber Shop for the past four years has retired from active service to devote her time to home duties. Replacing her is Norman Shives formerly of Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith and family spent Sunday in Eugene with their mothers, Mrs. Franzwa and Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Clara Catlin of Portland visited her sister, Mrs. Ruth Grewelle, the first part of the week, enroute to her home after a two months' vacation spent in San Francisco.
