Rainbow Girls

Honor Officers

A reception for grand officer, Shirley Hileman, grand outer ob-server, was given at the Monday night meeting of the Rainbow Girls.

Elected to office were: Jeanette Workman, worthy adviser; Pat Dawley, associate worthy adviser; Helen Axley, Charity; Pat Rickard, Hope; Pat Scott, Faith.

Formal installation will be held at the next meeting on May 24.

CATHOLIC SOCIETY MEETS

The Catholic Altar Society met Wednesday, May 5, at the parish house. Hostesses were Mrs. Glenn Flatters and Mrs. Norman Bachelder.

Many attended the Stanley party which was held. Plans for a summer school were started and will be completed at the June meeting.

PAST MATRONS MEET
The regular meeting of the Past Matrons was held Monday in the Masonic club room.

Mrs. Francis Horn and Miss M. Hamant were on the refreshment committee. A business meeting was also held.

There will be no meeting of the Past Matrons in June because the Grand Chapter will meet during the same week, and none will be held during July or August.

Arden Powell Takes Bride In Home Rites

Mrs. Sedergren

Miss Hazel L. Hutchison, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Roy E. Hutchison, became the bride of Arden C. Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Powell, all of Cottage Grove, on Sunday, May 2, at 4 p. m.

The Rev. J. Clifford Foster, brother-in-law of the groom, conducted the service which was held at the home of the bride's parents at Knox Hill.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white marquisette over white satin. A string of pearls graced the sweetheart neckline of the dress. The fingertip veil edged with lace fell from a tiara of white stephanotis.

Gift From Mother

The Bible which the bride carried was a gift from her mother and was adorned with gardenias, stephanotis, and ribbon streamers.

Miss Phyllis Pullen of Bandon was the maid of honor. She wore a rose-colored floor-length gown of silk crepe and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds and carnations.

The bride's mother wore a black dress trimmed in aqua and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother was dressed in black and had a corsage of pink roses.

Fireplace Ceremony

The ceremony was held in front of the fireplace, and the bride came in on the arm of her father.

Bouquets of calla lilies and pale pink carnations were on the mantel and piano and filled tall baskets on each side of the fireplace.

Miss Charley Wood sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly", accompanied by Mrs. Reginald Fauquier.

The reception was held after the service in the home of the bride's parents. Decorating the table were tall candles, rosebuds, and maiden-hair fern. Mrs. Archie E. Powell cut the wedding cake, which was three-tiered and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Arthur W. Combs, aunt of the bride, poured.

Trip to California

The bride's going-away costume was a two-piece pink linen dress with black and white accessories. After their wedding trip to California by way of the coast, the couple will be at home on Black Butte route, Cottage Grove.

The bride graduated from Cottage Grove high school in 1945 and afterwards took a course in Christian education at Pacific Bible college. She has been employed at the Lovegren Lumber company for several months. The Rev. Mr. Hutchison, the bride's father, has been pastor of the Church of God in Cottage Grove for more than six years.

The groom was born and reared near Cottage Grove.

Brownies Plan Spring Festival

A Spring Festival given by the Cottage Grove Brownie troops has been planned for May 20th at Jefferson school gymnasium at 7:30 according to Mrs. M. A. Bullard, leader of the 4th grade Brownie group.

The older girl scouts will assist in decorating the hall. The girls have been practicing for several weeks, and the program promises to be very worthwhile, said Mrs. Bullard. Badges will be received by those girls who have earned certain ranks. The public is invited to attend, and there will be no charge.

During the past two weeks both Girl Scout and Brownie troops have been active in giving teas or parties for their mothers. Gifts have been made and presented by each troop to their mothers on these occasions.

SENIOR BIRTHDAY CLUB

The Senior Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Hawley Thursday afternoon of last week for their regular monthly meeting of business and a social hour.

Lovely gifts were received by the hostess and dainty refreshments were served at the tea hour.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. Smith, 1104 Washington Ave.

TALLY-HO CLUB MEETING Roy Langley for dessert bridge. The Tally-Ho club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Shriner 40-er — Sat., at Armory
