UNITED CHURCH WOMEN ORGANIZE

A group of women met recently at the Walker Union church to organize a Ladies' Aid Society with the following members being elected to office: president, Mrs. Maxine Garri; vice-president, Mrs. Emma Sears; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hilda Long; finance committee, Mesdames Kinsland, Lionberger, and Cora Fisher; sunshine committee, Mrs. Nora Connor; serving committee, Mesdames Sears, Hanson, and Ethel Fisher; publicity chairman, Ellen Sherrill. The next regular meeting will be called to order at 2 p.m. Wednesday, June 9, at the church with the Missionary Society of the Free Methodist church of Cottage Grove and the Walker Community club being entertained. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Several of the ladies from the Walker Union church met with the Neighbors' Cheer-Up Circle, a branch of the Free Methodist Missionary Society, and visited the Quigley Home in Creswell Tuesday, June 1. The afternoon was given to prayer, song and a study of the scriptures, with refreshments served at the close of the meeting. Gift boxes of candy and fruit were given to each resident lady at the home.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Miss Madia Hansen, Clarence Crane

SHOWER FOR MISS HUDGINS
Miss Helen Hudgins, bride-elect of George Haberly, of Silverton, was the inspiration for a shower given in the parlor of the First Methodist church Saturday afternoon, May 29, with Mrs. Grace Hanks as hostess.

The guests were entertained by solos by Rev. Frank E. Brown, accompanied at the piano by Miss Betty Dyksterhuis; and by Miss Charleye Wood accompanied by Mrs. Esther Land.

After a get-acquainted game, Mrs. Frank Brown was mistress of ceremonies for a "Queen for a Day" program at which time Miss Hudgins was chosen queen and was presented with her many lovely gifts.

Guests included friends from Cottage Grove, Silk Creek, and Gowdyville, and also Mrs. Donna Balsiger, of Eugene, and many friends who were unable to be at the shower sent gifts.

Miss Hudgins and Mr. Haberly are to be married here June 13.

"SNEAK" ON ROYAL NEIGHBORS

Royal Neighbors met in regular session Tuesday evening in the IOOF hall, with Mrs. Helen Smith, guardian neighbor, presiding. The members were given a "sneak surprise" by twelve members from Pine Circle No. 45 of Springfield. Among the guests were Grand Representative Laura Darby, District Flag Bearer, Neighbor Barrett, Lyndon Darby, guardian neighbor of Pine Circle, all of whom were introduced and given honors. Mrs. Adelia Hatch, district G. N. was also honored. Mrs. Hatch, ill at home, came over for a short time to participate in the ceremonies.

The visitors assisted in floor work and they suggested to the Grace circle having a "pep meeting" in the fall. The guests also invited any of the local lodge to go with them to Roseburg on a "sneak" at some future date.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fannie Leabo and Mrs. Hatch, assisted by Mrs. Julia Bartels.

The next social meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Bressler Tuesday evening, June 22.

A double ring ceremony read at two o'clock Sunday, May 23rd at the home of the bride's parents wedded Miss Madia Maxine Hansen to Mr. Clarence Clifford Crane of Cottage Grove. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiggo Hansen of 138 North "H" street of Cottage Grove, the bridegroom is the son of Mr. Judd Crane of Adrian, Michigan. The Rev. Frank Brown of the First Methodist church officiated at the ceremony.

Miss Hansen wore a gown of white lace and tulle with a sweetheart neckline and a coronet held a finger-tip veil in place, she carried a nosegay of stephanotis and pink rosebuds. Miss Margaret Babcock of Salem, Oregon, who was maid of honor, wore a pink gown and carried a nosegay of lavender sweetpeas and pink carnations.

The bride's father, Mr. Wiggo Hansen, gave her away in marriage. Her brother Ray Hansen was the best man, and her son ring bearer.

Miss Charleye Wood sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" accompanied by Mrs. Monty Pitcher who played "To Each His Own" while Robert V. Hansen and Walter P. Hansen, brothers of the bride lit the candles. Baskets of pink carnations and white lilies adorned the home.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served on the bride's table decorated with the wedding cake as a centerpiece surrounded by pink rosebuds and maiden hair. The wedding cake was cut by Miss Vada Crosby and served by Misses Wilma Wade, Nelda Merrell, Marna Rynearson, and Mary Jane Ponton.

The couple made a trip to McCredie Springs, and will be at home in Cottage Grove. The bride donned a white linen tailored dress and a corsage of stephanotis and pink rosebuds for traveling.

For good luck the bride wore a two dollar bill in her right shoe brought back from Italy by her brother Roy Hansen, and a necklace borrowed from Miss Mary Jane Ponton, which is over sixty years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chambers are in Cottage Grove this week from their winter home in Arizona.

O. E. S. DISCUSSES MEASURES

The local chapter of Eastern Star held its regular meeting last Friday, Mrs. Ruth Smith, worthy matron, and George Witters, worthy patron, officiating. The evening was given over to discussion of measures which will be introduced at the Grand Chapter which convenes June 14 in Portland. An invitation to visit Drain chapter on Wednesday evening was accepted. Initiation for the next regular meeting, June 11, was announced. Refreshments were served by a committee, Mrs. Harriett Horn, chairman, Mrs. Chloe Horn, and Mrs. Gladys Hall.

MRS. SHAY HONORED

The following friends of Mrs. E. C. Shay honored her last week and enjoyed tea at her home in observance of her birthday: Mrs. Eva Holderman, Mrs. G. C. Holman, Mrs. Wm. Chestnut, Mrs. Connie Grindle, and Mrs. Rosa Curran.

ATLANTIC CITY MEET TOLD

The Bethlehem White Shrine met in Eugene Thursday evening at the Masonic temple. Della Hayden, Supreme Handmaid, of Salem, and District Deputy Spears, also of Salem, were introduced. The Worthy High Priestess gave an interesting report of the meeting of the Supreme Shrine which met in Atlantic City in May. Mrs. Alma Sears, Mrs. Daisy Cochran, Mrs. Frances Racknor, Mrs. Grace Smith, and Louis Caldwell attended from here.
