June, The Traditional Month Of Brides, Is Highlighted By Many Weddings

As usual many couples are finding their way to the altar during the month of June, the traditional month of brides and weddings. The past week end saw several weddings, both church and quiet home weddings. Invitations are out for several more wedding to take place during this month. Weddings the past week end of interest took place at Medford, Albany and Cottage Grove and one at Santa Clara the first of last week.

Traditional Satin Worn By June Bride

A lovely June bride in a double ring ceremony, who chose slipper satin for her wedding dress, was Miss Helen Joyce Hudgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Hudgins, of Lorane route, Cottage Grove. She was married Sunday, June 13, at 2:30 o'clock in the local First Methodist church, to George Lewis Haberly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl L. Haberly of Silverton with the Rev. Frank E. Brown officiating.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, wearing a wedding dress of pale eggshell slipper satin, fashioned with shirred bodice, sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her veil of imported net was fingertip in length and fell from a crown of wax orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid from which fell white streamers and blossoms of stephanotis.

Miss Elaine Reed of Brogan, Oregon was maid of honor and wore a formal-length gown of pale blue taffeta and carried a nosegay with streamers matching her gown. Bridesmaids were Miss Theobelle Jabusch of Fortuna, California, in yellow marquisette and lace formal and Miss Gilda Richards of Dayton, in a pale blue taffeta formal. Both carried nosegays with matching streamers.

Best man was Arthur Dahl of Silverton, and ushers were Eldon Hudgins, brother of the bride, Richard Phipps of Salem, brother-in-law of the groom, and Ralph Allen.

Huge baskets of white peonies and pink carnations and white tapers in candelabra on either side decorated the church for the ceremony. Candle lighters were Miss Alice Hanks of Cottage Grove and Miss Mary Ditto of Dayton.

YREKA SELECTS QUEEN OF GOLD RUSH DAYS

Miss Gloria Ann Colt of Callahan, candidate for Queen of the Yreka Gold Rush Days celebration to be held June 24 through 27.

carrying nosegays of sweetpeas and rosebuds.

Mr. Cone was attended by his two sons, Wendell and Billy.

Preceding the ceremony a niece of Mrs. Cone sang "Through the Years," and "I Love You Truly."

A reception followed in the church parlors with Mrs. Earl Cone of Eugene and Mrs. Ransom Cone pouring and Mrs. Wendell Cone cutting the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Thomas Hughes, daughter of Mr. Cone, and Mrs. Roy Leonard of Milwaukie.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cone were former residents, and will now live in Portland in their new home.

Mr. Cone is a bookkeeper for a large concern in Portland, and Mrs. Cone has been teaching the past four years in Albany.

Attending the wedding from Cottage Grove were Mrs. Ransom Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cone and daughters Janet and Nancy. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton.

Couple Exchange Vows At Home Rites

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Madsen, 845 South Sixth street, was the scene for a quiet and impressive wedding ceremony Saturday night, June 12, at 7:00 o'clock when their daughter, Barbara Jane, became the bride of Jack Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kennedy, also of Cottage Grove. The couple exchanged vows before a lattice bower of pastel yellow roses and baskets of pastel lupins, peonies and roses. The Rev. Peter J. Bakker, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated at the candlelight service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attractive in a white silk street-length dress with overdraped skirt, the material being brought from Japan by her husband, lace gloves and lace Dutch cap. The prayer book she carried was her grandmother's and over 100 years old, coming around the Horn to Oregon in the early days. It was topped with a white orchid, from which fell white satin streamers.

Miss Joyce Holgate of Sutherlin was maid of honor and wore a dress of aqua crepe with nailhead trim, and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Best man was Kenneth Kennedy, brother of the groom, and ushers were Dean Summers, cousin of the bride, and Richard Gore.

Miss Janice Lund, the bride's cousin, played the wedding march, and Miss Frances Thrun sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly." Miss Ellen Madsen, sister of the bride, was candlelighter.

The bride's mother wore an aqua crepe dress and pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Kennedy chose a pink rayon for her son's wedding, and a pink rosebud corsage.

At the reception which followed pastel roses, lilies and tapers were the table decorations. Mrs. Lester Blackmore, cousin of the bride, cut the wedding cake, using a hand-carved bone-handled cake knife, a gift from the bride's uncle and aunt in Denmark. Mrs. E. M. Summers, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Vern Keahey, aunt of the groom, poured. Miss Madelyn Ocumpaugh and Mrs. Charles Niehaus, sister of the groom, cut the lace. The Misses Joanne and Kathleen Summers, cousins of the bride, assisted in serving. Miss Karen Madsen, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

After a two weeks' trip through Yellowstone Park and other interesting points the couple will be at home at Creswell. For going away the bride chose a two piece sport ensemble.

Both are graduates of the local high school, and the past year Mrs. Kennedy has been law secretary for Maynard Wilson and for Murry D. Agate in Eugene. The groom attended Oregon State college and is a World War II veteran, having served over two years in the U. S. Army, and is now employed as a logger.

RAINBOW GIRLS ATTEND GRAND ASSEMBLY

Six of the Rainbow Girls of the local order and their mother advisor, Mrs. Leo Rickard, attended the grand assembly held last week at John Day. Attending from here were Pauline Dyksterhuis, Shirley Hileman, grand outer sentinel, Martha Roy, Janice Swanson, Joyce Crouch and Jean Rickard. At the election of officers Pat Rickard was elected worthy grand representative. Approximately 360 girls attended from the various chapters of the state.

At the regular meeting Monday night initiation was held for Georgina McReynolds, Joan Long, Baba Lee Mosley and Pauline Radtke. This is the final meeting until September.
