SOCIETY

LAYMEN'S LEAGUE DISCUSSES ORGANIZATION

H. B. Ferrin, chairman of the newly formed Laymen's League, presided at the meeting Monday night at the Assembly of God, at which time organizational plans were discussed and a committee of five was appointed to draw up rules and bylaws. The committee is composed of E. L. Clark, chairman, Kenneth Lovegren, Elmer Kent, George Crosby and Earl Ballew. It was decided to have three laymen from each church instead of two as it was decided at the last meeting. Six churches were represented at the Monday night meeting.

B. & P. W. CLUB SELECTS QUEEN CANDIDATE

The Business and Professional Women's club chose Miss Ada Carter as their candidate for queen for the Cottage Grove Regatta and Pageant August 6-8 at the club meeting Monday night, at the home of the treasurer, Dorothy Wert. Miss Carter is stenographer for Maynard Wilson, lawyer, and active in the B&P.W. club. A committee was appointed to advertise for the club candidate, the committee being Lois Mills, Della Gallo, Ruth Stewart Caldwell, Joan Williams and Edna Piller. All members are expected to be ready to assist in electing Miss Carter as queen.

A picnic supper was served in the park at 6:30 after which the group adjourned to the home of Mrs. Wert where the business meeting was held and installation of new officers for 1948-49 were installed. Edna Burleson, now junior past president, was installing officer. Adelia Hatch was installed president; 2nd vice, Edna Piller; recording secretary, Joan Williams and treasurer, Della Gallo. The 1st vice, Lottie Lee Lamb, and corresponding secretary, Lois Mills, were out of town.

Mrs. Burleson presented each officer and the chairman of various committees who served with her during the year with clever B.P.W. identification luggage tags. The next meeting will be the regular business meeting, July 12, at the home of Lenora Langston.

Set aside to preserve a Sequoia tree planted by an Oregon pioneer of 1843, William Waldo, the nation's smallest city park is located almost in the middle of North Summer Street, Salem, Oregon. The park is barely large enough to protect the base of the tree and may have to be enlarged as the tree grows.

Texas City Disaster

It was the explosion of a burning nitrate-laden freighter that set off the Texas City, Tex., disaster on April 16, 1947. Six hundred people were killed and half the town was destroyed.

BABES IN THE WOODS

The first commercially-produced television show broadcast from an airplane in flight was put on by the Navy's Willow Grove, Penna. Naval Air Reserve Station in November, 1947.
