June Brides Still Leading Social Activities Of Week

June brides and weddings are still highlighting social activities with several couples repeating their "I do's" at the church altars or at quiet home ceremonies taking place at Beaverton, Eugene and Cottage Grove during the past week.

Couple Wed at Home Ceremony June 25th

Before the rose-banked fireplace in the living room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bird Friday evening June 25th, Ramona Anderson was married to James W. Bird at 8 p.m. The Rev. Frank E. Brown, pastor of the Methodist church, read the double ring service in the presence of a group of relatives and friends.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Saltwick of Shelton, Wash., was attired in a powder blue afternoon dress with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen W. Bench, brother-in-law and sister of the groom.

Preceding the ceremony, the tapers on the mantel were lighted by Mrs. R. E. Howe, sister of the groom. The brass candelabra which were loaned for the occasion had been brought from China by Mrs. Howe's husband.

A reception followed the ceremony with the bridal pair cutting the first piece of cake. Mrs. Chas. Hall assisted in the cutting of the cakes. Mrs. R. E. Howe cut the ices, and Miss Marcella Hammond, aunt of the groom, poured the coffee for the guests who were served buffet style.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding were: Mrs. Pearl Saltwick of Shelton, Washington; Henry L. Bird, Seattle, Washington; Mrs. R. E. Howe, San Francisco, Cal.; Miss Marcella Hammond, of Albuquerque, New Mex.

For going away the bride chose a pin-striped suit of gray wool with white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home on Disston Route, in Cottage Grove.

LILY GROWERS LAST MEETING
The Southern Lane Easter Lily Growers decided at their last meeting Monday evening to take a vacation during July and August. The next meeting will be the fourth Monday in September, the 27th.

Huge baskets of white calla lilies, pink and white carnations and tall candelabra with white flickering tapers made a beautiful setting at the First Methodist church Sunday evening, June 20, at 8:00 o'clock for the wedding of Miss Virginia Adella Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Owen, to Albert L. Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wells, all of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Frank Brown, pastor of the church, read the ceremony before a large group of friends and relatives.

Organ music was played by Mrs. Roy Pollard, who also played the wedding marches. Mrs. Pollard accompanied Mrs. George Beldon who sang "Always" and "The Lords Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was of white nylon with a full-length train, long full sleeves and fitted bodice. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a halo hat, and she carried a lavender orchid corsage with background of white satin lover's knot from which fell white streamers knotted with stephanotis.

Miss Viola Owen was maid of honor for her sister. Her gown was floor length and of blue dotted swiss, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Shirley Owen and Miss Dorothy Owen, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids, both in pink dotted swiss, and carried pastel nosegays. All attendants gowns were identical to the bride's in style.

Wilber Dodge, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Ushers were Dick Simpson and Mike Quaglia.

The bride's mother wore a blue nylon dress, white accessories and corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother chose a grey suit with matching accessories and pink carnation corsage.

At the reception which followed in the church parlor, Mrs. Richard Hamilton, sister-in-law of the groom, cut the three tiered wedding cake, which was served by Mrs. Hilda McKay of Portland. Mrs. Adam Grab presided at the punch bowl. Candles and roses completed the bride's table decorations. Miss Frances Thrun of Medford was in charge of the guest book.

For going away on a week's trip the bride wore a light brown box type suit with white accessories and her orchid corsage. The couple will make their home in Cottage Grove, where he is employed as a mechanic and service station attendant.

The bride graduated from Laurelwood Academy in 1947 and the groom is a graduate of the local high school.

GRAND OFFICERS ENTERTAINED

Highlighting the meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star Friday night was the entertaining of the worthy grand patron of the grand chapter of Oregon, Rex Hartley, and Mrs. Hartley, grand marshal, and worthy matron, Ruth Anderson, all of Euclid chapter of Jefferson, Thum, and grand electra, Mary Workman, both of the local lodge, with a drill by officers of the local chapter, who presented the honored ones with "The Key of Happiness."

Ruth Smith, worthy matron, and George Witters, worthy patron, presided over the meeting. The Cottage Grove chapter made Mr. and Mrs. Hartley honorary members of the local chapter, and Anna Graham was introduced as the oldest active member of the local organization. Visitors gave short talk and the officers reported on the recent grand chapter in Portland.

An invitation was read to visit the Gardiner chapter in August. Rex Hartley favored the group with a solo.

Refreshments were served in the dining room with Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Hayes chairmen of the committee, and special table decorations honored those having birthday anniversaries the first half of the year. During the refreshment period members of the Rainbow Girls sang several numbers for entertainment.

dent at this meeting. The next meeting will be July 6 at 7:00 o'clock at the home of Peggy Pynch.
