COTTAGE GROVE LAKE NOT CONTAMINATED

Wild rumors seem to be in circulation that the Cottage Grove lake is contaminated and unfit for swimming and the rumors are proving a headache for the resident engineer. We were informed this morning that fifty or more calls had been received at the office of Col. Walter R. Lalonde inquiring about the rumors.

We are informed that the lake is tested weekly and if contamination should develop, the public will be notified immediately.

Bill Cantwell of Cottage Grove visited Sunday evening with friends in the community.

Ed Sale visited in the community recently and was able to walk up to his old place, since he is much improved from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Roby and family visited Sunday and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Norris Roby at Blue Mountain.

To Eradicate Obnoxious Weeds

London 4-H Mothers' club met June 23 at the club house with Marie Stein, president, presiding and nine members in attendance.

A self service cafeteria style covered dish luncheon was held at noon with no housekeepers appointed, each one washing her own dishes.

Immediately following the luncheon a brief business meeting was held around the quilt as quilting was in progress. A report was made by Esther Banton that the Atlaside weed killer spray had been purchased and was ready to be applied as soon as the grass and wild blackberries were mowed around the club house. It was agreed to hire Mr. Stein to do the mowing.

Mrs. Mary Jo Phillips, a member who is ill, was sent greetings for a speedy recovery by each member present.

Pollyanna gifts were received by Marie Stein, wedding anniversary, and Mrs. Stimmel, who was not present.

Next meeting will be July 7.

LOCAL MINISTER TO LEAVE HERE

The elders of the Monroe Ave. Church of Christ have announced that their minister, Mr. Henry A. Lynch Jr., is leaving Cottage Grove, July 5. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will move to Gainesville, Texas, where he will serve the church in that area in addition to teaching in the high school there. Mr. Lynch had taught there some time before coming to Cottage Grove. The church here has expressed its appreciation for the preaching of the minister while he has been here and wishes both of them success as they leave here. At the present time no successor to Mr. Lynch has been named.
