"Sacrament" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 11.

The golden text is, "The hour cometh and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him" (John 4:23).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "The cup of blessing which we bless is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?" (1 Cor. 10:16), together with the following correlative passage from Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We worship spiritually, only as we cease to worship materially" (p. 140).

Christian Science Society, Cottage Grove, Oregon, 242 Second street holds Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Morning worship at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday evening meetings at 8 p.m. (the second Wednesday of each month). Reading room is open Monday through Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Church of Christ, 6th and Gibbs "the church with a friendly spirit"—Have you got any troubles or trials, friend? Jesus had them too. He, and He alone can give you the right counsel when you are in trouble. If my ministry has taught me anything, it has taught me that most folks have trouble. You are not the only one, you are one of a vast army that battles against trials. Better let Jesus point the way. We believe you will receive help from the message Sunday evening.

Bible school at 9:45. Morning worship at 11:00, sermon, "The Christ of Pilate's Judgment Hall." Young folks at 7:00. The juniors are in camp this week. The seniors will go next week.

Pre-prayer service at 7:30, come! Evening evangelistic service at 8, sermon, "What Jesus Teaches About Trials and Tribulations." Mid-week prayer and Bible study Thursday evening and Friday afternoon. We extend to you a cordial invitation.—J. Michael Shelley, minister.

LONDON

Felix Ems, former resident, died Friday night at the Portland Veterans hospital of an acute heart attack after an extended illness. Mr. Ems was a deacon and treasurer of London Church of Christ during the years he lived here before moving to Cottage Grove about two years ago.

Cottage Grove lake was a popular picnic place at the Wilson creek shade grounds the 4th.

Among those from this community with well filled picnic baskets and a family gathering at the lake were Mr. and Mrs. Cnet Gilham and all their children and their families, including Mrs. Vera Kerr and two girls, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and three sons of Ashland and Gold Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Farr and children of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews also visited Mr. Andrews' parents here, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Andrews.

Mrs. A. L. Fletcher's parents and a brother and sister all of Woodburn, spent the 4th here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barkmeyer and Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Armstrong of Cottage Grove went on a trip to Newport and Florence Saturday. Since they could not find a cabin they returned Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darby of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Abeene made a trip up the McKenzie River July 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Garman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max Bradford and their California friends spent the 4th up Cougar Bend with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Powell and were to make a trip Monday to Crater lake.

Belva Jean Garman was home from Eugene the holiday week end and enjoyed the fireworks Saturday night with Evelyn and David Garman and Spud Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Olds and children had a July 4th picnic in Cottage Grove with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Brown.

S. T. Clark took his children to Yoncalla Sunday afternoon to visit the grave of Jesse Applegate, famous figure in early Oregon history, who died in 1816.

Lucille Blackman had six young friends come over from Eugene Sunday for a watermelon feed and a trip in the afternoon to the coast with a swim in the ocean at Umpqua beach. Marie Clark accompanied them.

Bill Barkmeyer has purchased a convertible, hot-rod "car". Joe Abeene and his son Claude have painted their houses, white with green trimming.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alcorn who lived here for awhile have moved to Nampa Idaho to care for the old home place since Mr. Alcorn's father, Mr. Fred Alcorn, has suffered a stroke. Frank will take up carpentry training there under the G. I. schooling.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dowd returned to Long Beach, California Thursday. They have plans to come here to live in March.

Alvin Berset of Cottage Grove is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Tucker.

Gaylord Farmer plans to return home to Arkansas for the draft. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McEwen and their visitors from Iowa and Washington drove to Portland Wednesday to visit Kenneth McEwen and family, and returned Thursday, leaving again Friday accompanied by Mrs. McEwen to Fresno, Calif. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kennedy.

Mary Ann Hall of Cottage Grove who is home from college, visited Mrs. S. T. Clark Sunday.

Sammy Medford was home for a week's holiday over the 4th and helped his father farm.

Jerry Clark has the measles. Mrs. Herma Abeene won high score at the Merry-makers card club at Mrs. Zelma Small's last week with Mrs. Dortha Hess second and Mrs. Claude Abeene low.

Dale Cox is spending his July 4th vacation from Cottage Grove with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sutherland.

Viola Welty, who has been visiting her sister Edith Woods, returned home Saturday to Chehalis Washington.

Traces of frost were reported Friday morning by Mr. McEwen. Considerable hay is down in the rain this week.
