THREE BELLES AT BELLE'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Belle Burkholder celebrated her birthday July 1st by entertaining at her home, the following guests from Eugene and Cottage Grove, Mrs. Hugh Curran, Mrs. Frank Chambers and daughter, Mrs. Brockelbank, Mrs. Glennie Frost, Mary Munroe, Emma Gorrie, Bette Shurtzoff and little son, Helen Hodes, Linda Martilla, and husband, S. J. Martilla, Maxia O'Neil, Minnie Rogers, Florence Alden, direct descendant of Priscilla, and John Alden, Florence Evans, Luell Hough, Belle Williams, Sylvia Peters, Martha Roytance, all from Eugene, and Florence Lionberger, Lula McCullough and Ada McDonald of Cottage Grove. Invited guests who were unable to be present were Mrs. Nora Armes, of Eugene, and Mrs. Myrtle Funkhauser of Cottage Grove. A potluck dinner was served on the spacious lawn. Mrs. Glennie Frost, a friend of 36 years standing, cut the birthday cake which read: Happy Birthday to Belle. Presents of cut glass, towels, and fancy work were received by the hostess, and many birthday cards. The weather was fine and all stated they had a grand time. Marilyn McCormick, granddaughter of Mrs. Ada McDonald also enjoyed herself at the party. Mr. Martilla, being the only man present, left after lunch to play the Cottage Grove golf course. Group pictures of the hostess and her friends were taken at the table. If Mrs. Belle Walling of Eugene who is traveling in California had been present that would have made four Belles at the party. Mrs. Mildred Burkholder, 2619 Potter St., Eugene, sister-in-law of the hostess, was also an invited guest but was unable to attend.

Bride Chooses Parents' Wedding Anniversary For Her Wedding Day

A lovely June bride was Miss Beverly Felice Benton, who chose her parents' twenty-third wedding anniversary for her wedding day. Miss Benton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Benton, exchanged wedding vows with Robert I. Daugherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Daugherty, all of Cottage Grove, at three o'clock, Sunday afternoon, June 27, before the Rev. D. Hugh Peniston, pastor, in the First Presbyterian church, in a double-ring ceremony. An arrangement of deep red gladioli combined with white delphiniums and green foliage and silver candelabra with lighted tapers made an effective setting with a background of red velvet drapery and screens, planned by Mrs. Warren Daugherty.

Organ music was played by Donald W. Allton, who played the wedding marches and for the soloist, Robert Putnam, as he sang "I Love Thee" and "Because." Given away by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of ivory slipper satin. The bodice was made with long sleeves and an illusion yoke outlined by a circular fold of satin, caught with orange blossoms. The full skirt had a train, extending from the bustle at the back, and at the front, the hem of the skirt was caught up with clusters of orange blossoms to show ruffles of a satin petticoat.

The fingertip veil worn by Miss Benton, with tiara of seed pearls, had been worn by Mrs. Douglass Johnson at her wedding a year ago. Pearls worn by the bride were a gift from her father to her mother on their wedding day. Her bouquet was of stephanotis with a center of white roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Laurel Anderson of Portland, a sorority sister. She wore apple-green taffeta made with princess-type bodice and a bustle, a short matching veil and mitts, and carried an arm sheaf of deep red gladioli.

The bridal attendants, Mrs. Douglass Johnson and Miss Nancy Smith, also a sorority sister, both of Portland, wore gowns of orchid taffeta similarly styled and with matching veils and mitts, and also carried arm bouquets of the red gladioli.

Two-piece afternoon dresses were worn by the two mothers. Mrs. Benton wore green silk shantung with an orchid corsage, black picture hat and black gloves, shoes and bag of blanchage. Mrs. Daugherty wore brown silk shantung with green hat and matching accessories, and corsage of rubrum lilies.

Stanley Daugherty served his brother as best man, and ushers were Lester Jones of Cheney, Wash., and James Kenney of Rainier, both fraternity brothers of the bridegroom; Dr. Douglass Johnson of Portland, a cousin of the bride, and Howard Harpole of Cottage Grove.

The reception following the ceremony was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Daugherty, where Mrs. Palmer Johnson, aunt of the bride, poured, and Mrs. Norman Richards, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake. Mrs. Paul H. Douglass of Lebanon, aunt of the bride, served at the punch bowl. Assisting were sorority sisters of the bride, Miss Edith Rae of Eugene and Miss Elizabeth Pearson of Myrtle Point; also Misses Jane Beidler, Patricia Kelly and Betty Lou Bagley, Cottage Grove. Miss Marjorie Colner had the guest book.

Decorations were in green and white for the reception, bouquets of white gladioli being employed and clusters of white wedding bells tied with satin ribbons. White carnations formed the centerpiece on the bride's table.

The couple will be at home after August 5 in Portland. The bride's going away outfit was a Michele original, a pink wool suit with long skirt falling into knife pleats below the knee, and short matching pleats in cap effect on the shoulder of the jacket. She wore pink hat and gloves, with bag and shoes of blanchage, and her corsage was a green orchid.

After 10 days spent at Dorchester House at Ocean Lake the couple went to Victoria, B. C., and other places of interest in Canada.

Mrs. Daugherty attended the University of Oregon, and is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha social sorority. The bridegroom is a student in medicine at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland, and member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Douglass of Eugene, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Douglass, Lebanon; Mrs. A. P. Johnson, Garfield, Wash.; Mrs. T. A. Stivers, Mrs. O. D. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bryant, Mrs. Myrtle McRae, Mrs.

HEBRON GRANGE PLANNING INITIATION

At the Hebron Grange meeting Saturday night the master asked that all applications for membership be turned in by the next meeting so degree work may be given soon. The next grange meeting has been postponed from August 7th to the 14th on account of the Regatta being on the 7th.

and it was decided to dispense with the next social night due to the Rodeo Queen's ball.

The grange queen candidate, Betty Duerst, was given a royal sendoff for a full campaign, and her birthday being July 4th she was honored with a birthday table centered with a display of flags and a beautiful decorated birthday cake as the group sang "Happy Birthday." The committee for queen contest is Rosie Lewis and Darrell Graham. Refreshments were served by the committee.

The Home Ec. chairman gave a report and concession committees were named for the regatta and rodeo.
