

Miss Laveta Abeene
Wed In California

Miss Laveta Abeene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Abeene, Black Butte Route, was married at 1:30 o'clock June 26 in Ontario, California to Nash H. Hughes of that city.

The simple but impressive ceremony was performed at the home of Woodrow W. Hughes, brother of the groom and minister of the Church of Christ in Ontario, before a small group of relatives and close friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. H. D. (Gene) Lusk of Cottage Grove, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

Miss Abeene wore a cream-white fitted suit with blue accessories and matching halo of blue larkspur. She carried a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid, from which fell white satin streamers knotted with Stephanotis.

For the traditional "something borrowed" she wore a pearl necklace belonging to her sister, and for something "old" she carried a handkerchief over fifty years old belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Banton of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Lusk, matron of honor, chose an aqua suit, with a corsage of pink rosebuds and matching roses in her hair.

Baskets of pink gladioli and white larkspur placed about the fireplace and candelabra with white flickering tapers upon the mantel made a beautiful setting before which the couple stood to exchange their vows.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Marian A. de Upland, Calif., sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because," playing her own accompaniment on a portable organ. She also played the wedding march.

Tapers upon the mantel were lighted by Kenneth Hoover and James "Curly" Holms, friends of the groom.

At the reception which followed, the three tiered wedding cake was cut by Mrs. W. W. Hughes, sister-in-law of the groom. She was assisted in serving by Miss Mona Daugherty and Miss Sara Chandler. Miss Chandler also had charge of the guest book.

After a few days honeymoon at a mountain resort the couple will be at home at 228 West "H" St., Ontario, Calif.

Besides those from Cottage Grove who were present at the wedding, Mrs. George W. Hughes of Tuttle, Okla., mother of the groom, also attended.

The bride has spent her entire life in the London community, just completing her junior year in the

After a trip to Newport they are at home on Emmerson Lane.

WALKER UNION CHURCH

Fifteen members of the Ladies Aid of the Walker Union church were guests of the missionary society and 'Neighbors' Cheer-up circle of the Free Methodist church on Tuesday, June 29.

The missionary society held a short business meeting after which the following program was presented:

Group singing of "Blest Be the Tip," followed by an invitational prayer by Mrs. Zula Alexander. Song "Bringing in the Sheaves" was further expressed by a poem given by Mrs. Alexander. A beautiful flannelgraph picture of the "Rock of Ages" with the history and scripture verses which inspired the author, A. M. Toplady, were read, after which, the number was sung in duet by Mrs. Overton and Mrs. Stout. A poem entitled "Friendship" was given by Mabel Jackson and dedicated from Walker to the Neighbors' Cheer-up circle. A solo, "Beautiful Garden of Prayer," was sung by Mrs. Albert Guggisberg, of Creswell and two duets, "On the Jericho Road," and "Thank You, Lord," were sung by the grandchildren of Mrs. Guggisberg.

The program closed with group singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," followed by the benediction by Rev. Douglas. Delightful refreshments were served in the garden at Mrs. Ruth Richmond's home.
