Any one who attended school here in Cottage Grove or Latham where the first school house was located in this vicinity, from the earliest date up to the year 1900 are eligible to attend this annual affair which was organized by Mrs. Anna Adams, Mrs. Hattie Best, and Mrs. Emma Branstetter, at the home of Mrs. Adams in order that old school mates might get together to renew memories of old school days. We have a potluck dinner and a program of old time school songs, with reminiscences of old days. Come out and meet your old school mates. Mrs. Mabel Merymann is now acting secretary. Tailored Cotton Robe

For hot weather at home.

By VERA WINSTON

COOL LOOKING and very comfortable when the thermometer soars, is this crisp, semi-tailored robe of white crinkly cotton that looks like cotton matelasse. It is printed in an etched design in royal blue, a sort of broken plaid effect. Curved revers extend from a gathered yoke. The slim waist achieves its slender lines by means of an actual set-in double band that is twice buttoned.

MINNESOTA PICNIC JULY 18

Harold Mahnik, president of the Minnesota of Oregon recently issued the following statement regarding the Minnesota picnic:

"That big day of the year for former Minnesotans now living in Oregon, the Annual Picnic at which we expect a 'gathering of the clan' from all over the state, is almost here. It's Sunday, July 18, and the place this year is that very historic spot, Champoege Memorial Park. This is an invitation for everyone of you to join in and help make it the biggest picnic the Minnesota Society has ever had. Just as sure as shootin' there'll be folks there from or near the old home town or some'n'll know some'n' you know. And when you locate these folks the old gab fest'll be on plenty hot. That's one thing we hope to give you plenty of this year—time to get around, rub elbows and get acquainted.

Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppression. Slavery is not the legitimate state of man. God made man free. — Mary Baker Eddy.
