YONCALLA COUPLE WED AT ILLINOIS HOME

The farm home of Guy Lauan of Kingston, Illinois was the scene for his daughter's marriage on June 30. The bride, Miss Martha Lauan, and the groom, Albert Hoffman, son of Mrs. Katherine Hoffman of Cornelius, Oregon, are both teachers in the Yoncalla schools. The ceremony was performed at high noon by the Rev. Draper Bishop of the Methodist church of Cary, Illinois. The wedding day was the eightieth birthday anniversary of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Henry Lauan. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of white linen with cowl neckline and cap sleeves. She wore a wreath of rosebuds in her hair, and carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds. She also wore a pair of hand-knit lace gloves which were her grandmother's sixty years before.

Mrs. Phyllis Perrin of Forest Park, Illinois, matron attendant, wore a beige afternoon dress with green accessories, and carried a colonial bouquet of carnations.

Joel Lauan, brother of the bride, was best man.

Bouquets of white blossoms decorated the home for the wedding. Special music consisted of piano selections before the ceremony, played by Mrs. Draper Bishop, cousin of the bride. She also played the traditional wedding march from "Lohengrin."

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Twin Gables Restaurant, near Chicago. The young couple traveled to Chicago, planning to continue through the Canadian Rockies back to Oregon. They will be at home after August 1 at Yoncalla. Mr. Hoffman is principal of the Yoncalla Grade School, and Mrs. Hoffman taught in Yoncalla High School for the past two years.

Miss Irene Schaffer Is Bride Of Robert Bauder At Church Ceremony

A lovely July bride in a double ring ceremony was Miss Irene Lois Schaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Schaffer, who exchanged wedding vows with Robert C. Bauder, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bauder, all of Cottage Grove. The couple chose the Little Church on the Hill at Walker, which was beautifully decorated with baskets of pink and white gladiolus, candleabra and white lighted tapers, for their nuptial vows, repeated Sunday afternoon, July 11, at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. E. D. Busch, pastor of the Hope Lutheran church of Springfield, read the ceremony before a large group of relatives and friends.

Mr. Schaffer gave his daughter in marriage. Her dress was of white slipper satin with long sleeves, lace yoke, satin flange over shoulders, covered buttons down front of bodice and on sleeves, full flared skirt with long train, and was made by her mother. Her fingertip lace-edged veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a deep-throated orchid and shower on a white Bible. Her three-strand necklace of pearls was a gift from the groom, and for "something borrowed" she wore pearl earrings of her mother's.

Mrs. Ray M. Rees was matron of honor, and wore an aqua taffeta dress with matching net headdress, white lace mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses with frill and streamers of aqua net.

Best man was Ray M. Ross, and ushers were Harold F. Bauder, brother of the groom, and Marvin C. Schaffer, brother of the bride. The little flower girl was Farrys Jean Lusk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lusk, who was dressed in a dainty rose taffeta formal with a crown of rosebuds on her head. Ringbearer was Eddie Bauder, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bauder of Portland and nephew of the groom.

Taper lighters were Miss Patricia Kelly in yellow pique with matching net head piece and colonial nosegay with frill and streamers of yellow net and centered with a taper, and Miss Jane Beidler in blue pique, also carrying a colonial nosegay with blue net frill and streamers, and taper in center.

Organist was Miss Betty Bagley, who played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Patricia Kelly as she sang "I Love Thee," and "Because."

The bride's mother wore a navy blue ensemble with gold accessories, and Mrs. Bauder chose a rose colored dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of orchids.

The reception was held at the home of the groom's parents on South Sixth street. Pink and white carnations were used for the table centerpiece and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, which was served by Mrs. Edwin Bauder and Mrs. Ray Funk. Mrs. Velma Harrell and Mrs. Fred Knickerbocker presided at the punch bowl.

For her honeymoon to the coast, up the Columbia and home via the McKenzie Pass, Mrs. Bauder wore a white tailored sharkskin suit, white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They are now at home at 730 East 13th Ave., Eugene.

The bride has been employed in the law office of Herbert W. Lombard since her graduation from high school, and Mr. Bauder is a pre-law student at the University of Oregon, where he has been enrolled since his discharge from the Navy.

Out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Busch, Springfield; Miss Doris Wendel, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagner, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bauder of Portland, and Captain W. C. Newton of Clearwater, California.
