N. of W. Regular Meeting

Tuesday night, August 3rd, is the regular meeting of the Neighborhood Woodcraft in the L.O.O.F. hall. There will be initiation at this time. Mrs. Buckles and Mrs. J. P. Graham will be hostesses.

Schoolmates Picnic July 31

Next Saturday, July 31, will be the annual Schoolmates picnic at the local city park. Picnic lunch will be served at noon, and a good time is promised for the afternoon.

You'll find it in the classified.

Tea For Mrs. Ferrin

Members of the Social Twelve club honored Mrs. H. B. Ferrin with a farewell tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herbert Eakin. Besides the regular members, special guests were Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Paul Means of Eugene. Mrs. Ernest Christensen, a former member now living in Eugene, poured at the tea table. Mrs. Ferrin was the recipient of a lovely gift from the club. Mrs. Eakin was assisted by Mrs. C. F. Hoskins and Mrs. C. E. Dillman.

Party For Retiring Teachers

The Sunday school teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday school met at the home of the pastor and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. D. Hugh Peniston, Sunday evening, the occasion being to honor three of their retiring teachers, Mrs. A. W. Helliwell, who has been superintendent of the primary department for 20 years and Mrs. R. P. Boyce, a teacher in the primary department for 12 years and Mrs. Pete Nelson, a teacher in the nursery department for approximately 12 years. Each retiring member was presented with a copy of the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament by the congregation.

Mrs. L. W. Cainer, superintendent of the Sunday school, was co-hostess. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Double Ring Rites

Unites Couple 17th

In a double ring ceremony in a setting of white gladioli and candles, Miss Louise Torgerson of Parshall, North Dakota became the bride of Donald B. Debertin of Dorena, Saturday evening, July 17, at the Dorena Recreation Center. The Rev. Frank E. Gray read the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ray Torgerson, of Parshall. She wore a dusty pink suit with a corsage of pink rosebuds and stephanotis. Her necklace and earrings were a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Ray Torgerson was matron of honor. She wore a light beige dress with a corsage of yellow rosebuds and gardenias.

V. J. Pender of Umattilla, Oregon was best man. "Oh, Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Rosemary Burdick with Mrs. Roy Pollard as accompanist.

Mrs. Merl Bartlett was in charge of the guest book. After a short trip to Portland and Seaside the Debertins are living at Dorena where Mr. Debertin is employed by the Corps of Engineers.

Cheer Up Circle

Makes Calls To Shutins

Eleven members of the Cheer Up Circle called on Mrs. W. M. Morelock July 13th where songs were sung and roll call was answered by Scripture verse. A special was sung in Spanish by Annette Tonole and Beverly Booth. Mrs. Mable Jackson gave the history of the song "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder."

They also called at the homes of James Tedford and Mrs. Emma Webster at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Knaffle Haynes, where several sacred Hymns were sung by the group, and Earl Balch gave the history of the song "Jesus Lover of My Soul." Mrs. Reginald Fauquier accompanied Beverly Booth and Annette Tonole as they sang a duet. Mrs. Nettie Tucker read a poem, "A Tired Mother" and Bernice Overton read a poem written by Mable Jackson.

On July 20th the group went to the Guggisberg home at Walker to give cheer to Mrs. Guggisberg's mother, who is a shutin. Mable Jackson gave a reading, and Susie Wood set up a flannelgraph picture on "Peace" while "Wonderful Peace" was sung by Bernice Overton, accompanied by Mrs. Guggisberg. The poem "Everyday Christianity" was read by Mary Plunkett. Darlene and Frankie, small grandchildren of Mrs. Guggisberg, also sang a duet.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Summer Home of Ducks
Practically all of Alaska's 500,000 square miles may be considered as waterfowl nesting habitat.

Pop-Corn as Meat-Stretcher
To stretch meat, use pop-corn in meat loaves. This will give a delicious new flavor, also.

Reception Honoring Grand Officers Draws Large Crowd

The outstanding social function of the season was the reception Saturday night in the local armory honoring Ilma Thum, worthy grand matron, and Mary Workman, grand Electa, of the grand chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and Worth Harvey of Eugene, senior grand warden of the grand lodge of A. F. & A. M. of Oregon. Grand officers and members from the various chapters of the state came from far and near, with approximately 600 in attendance. The local chapter of Eastern Star was host for the festivity.

The armory was beautifully transformed into a scene of greenery depicting the industry of Lane county with 60 fir trees and 700 potted Easter lilies, interspersed with baskets of pink glads, attractively arranged to give the atmosphere of a flower garden. Tall baskets of blue hydrangeas graced either side of the entrance. The Easter lilies were loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Finnerty and the decorations were in charge of Mrs. K. K. Mills and Wilbur Workman.

Presiding over the meeting were Ruth Smith, worthy matron, and George Witters, worthy patron. The presentation of the flag was given by George Witters and the address of welcome was by Ruth Smith. As Ilma Thum, worthy grand matron, was escorted and introduced, the Rainbow Girls honored her with a drill and sang "School Days" and presented her with a gift, and for Mary Workman, grand Electa, they sang "Her Name Was Mary."

Worth Harvey, senior grand warden of the grand lodge of A. F. & A. M. of Oregon was also introduced at this time. Miss Louise Walther rendered selections on her accordion, and Rex Hartley, worthy grand patron, favored the group with a solo. The program closed with the men of the local chapter presenting the "Timber Drill" which they had given at grand lodge in Portland, which depicted the lumber industry of our section of the state.

All the grand officers of the state were present, coming from all parts, who were: Ilma Thum, worthy grand matron; Edna Throne, associate grand matron; Leslie Bass, associate grand patron; Laura Bretscher, secretary; Marjory I. Leo, treasurer; Pearl McCloy, conductress; Alice Robinson, assoc. conductress; Hope Wood, chaplain; June Martin, lecturer; Stange, Martha; Mary Workman, Wiseman, organist; Blanche Bergen, Adah; Louise Irving, Ruth; Anna Case, Esther; Priscilla Etange, Martha; Mary Workman, Electa; Nancy Parker, warden and Conwell Davy, sentinel. Other officers here were junior past grand matron, Catherine Flegler, Salem; and past grand matrons, Lorena McNair of Ashland; Hazel Graham of Tillamook; Hazel Foster of Prineville; Dr. June Martin of Coos Bay; Margaret Barnes of Medford and Doris Stipe of Beaverton; junior past grand patron, Roy Hatfield of Portland; past grand patrons, Ben Nichols of Corvallis and Phil Jones of Portland. Refreshments at a late hour closed the evening's entertainment.

Proceeding the reception Mary Workman and Ilma Thum entertained the grand officers at dinner at the Workman home which was served on their lawn. The dinner was prepared by the members of the Constellation club.

Maude Wheeler acting as chairman, and served by Mrs. Wilbur Workman Jr., the Misses Betty and Roberta Bagley and Jeannette and Elizabeth Workman.

Guests besides the grand officers were: Mr. and Mrs. Matt Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Witters, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Scofield Stewart, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Lebow.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Thum and Mrs. Workman were hosts again at a breakfast for the visiting members at which approximately 100 were present. This was served in the Masonic temple and was prepared by Grace Smith and Ruth Smith, who were assisted by Ethel Akerblade, Naomi Witters, Margaret Lasater and Marie Malcolm. The serving was done by Littleton Lasater, Matt Smith, Charles Akerblade, Sam Veatch and George Witters. Breakfast was served logging style with a centerpiece of a very clever logging camp scene.

On arrival at the armory Mrs. Thum was very much surprised and pleased to see a new Dodge bearing the inscription "Ilma from Willy".

Graceful Gown

Nightgown of yellow silk.

By VERA WINSTON
PURE SILK in a delicate lemon yellow is used for this graceful nightgown. It has a round neckline and rippled cape sleeves that are piped in dark green, as is the ruffling hem. Scattered over the bodice and skirt are beautifully applied dark green silk butterflies. A charming gown to own or to bestow.

Easter Island
Only three or four ships visit Easter Island, in the South Seas, yearly. This mysterious island is famed chiefly for its colossal statues, hewn of compressed ash from a volcano's crater wall. Between 400 and 500 statues varying in height from 3 to 36 feet were cut from a quarry before the work came to a sudden and mysterious end.

Farm Protection
No range, ordinary stove or furnace should be placed within three feet of unprotected woodwork, wood lathe or plaster partitions in building the farm home.

Traditional Bridal Satin Worn By Summer Bride At Church Wedding

Traditional white bridal satin was chosen by Miss Alvina Northway for her marriage to Virgil Moon, Sunday, July 18, in the First Methodist church when they pledged their troth in a setting of gladioli and candelabra, two tall baskets of white gladioli on either side of the altar and smaller baskets of the same flowers about the auditorium completing the decorations. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Northway of Cottage Grove and the groom is the son of Mrs. Joe Aufdermauer of Tillamook. The Rev. Frank Brown, pastor of the church, read the double ring service at 2:00 o'clock.

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father. Her white satin gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a full skirt which fell into a court train. At the front hem the skirt was caught up to reveal ruffles of a lace petticoat. Her full-length lace-edged veil fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with a pink orchid, also a borrowed handkerchief of her mother's. She wore a three strand necklace of pearls a gift-of the groom. Miss Violet Northway was maid of honor. She wore a full-length gown of light blue and carried a colonial bouquet of carnations and roses. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Deloris Reed of Coburg, in pink, and Mrs. Leora Capua of Portland in light green, and both carried nosegays of carnations and roses.

Best man was Bud Leach, and ushers were Dick Cantonwine and Alfred Reed.

Eleanor Northway, sister of the bride, in a full-length blue dotted swiss dress, and Dale Brendon lighted the tapers. Little flower girl was Danna Jo Capua, niece of the groom, in a full-length dress of yellow organdy, and pink rosebuds in her hair, accompanied by the ring bearer, Dwight Haunnot.

The bride's mother wore light green with black accessories and the groom's mother wore aqua with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Soloist for the wedding was Miss Charleye Wood, who sang "Always" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Warren Ness. Mrs. Ness also played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception followed in the church parlors where Mrs. Howard Brendon cut the three tiered cake and Mrs. Florence Werner poured. Assisting in the serving were Miss Bernadine Henry and Miss Mary Jo Parsons. Joyce Williams was in charge of the guest book. A bowl of pink rosebuds centered the bride's table.

For her wedding trip to Washington and California, the bride chose a checked suit with green accessories and her orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Moon graduated from the local high school in '47 and is now employed at the Mountain States Power Company.

The groom is a World War II veteran, having served three years in the Navy. The couple will make Cottage Grove their home.

Birthday Club Annual Picnic

The senior Birthday club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shanda Saturday evening for the annual picnic with husbands of the members as guests. The basket dinner was served on the lawn, and the evening was spent with games.

The following were present Mr. and Mrs. Verne Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ervin, Mrs. George Hawley, Mrs. Henrietta Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Teich and daughter Thiela Murrell, Miss Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kiker, the host and hostess and their granddaughter, Frances.
