4-H GIRL WINS MOVIE CONTRACT

PIGTAILED Judy Stewart (above), 11, of Mukwonago, Wis., received a film contract after her selection from 10,000 4-H club youngsters as the "typical club girl." She will appear in a movie based on the activities of 4-H organizations. Judy, who seems to have a flare for archery bullseyes, nearly missed her chance for fame when movie scouts found her picture—without a name. The 4-H winner was identified after the newspapers ran her picture. (International Soundphoto)

*** Fashions *****

Today's teen agers insist that the new fashions make sense, and the new clothes are making a bit because they are not corny. Shown above as pictured in the August issue of Good Housekeeping magazine is "the easiest tweed suit in the world," cut for fast traveling between soda fountain and study hall.

Feminine Sun Frock

Basque dress and matching stole.

By VERA WINSTON

THE STOLE has come into the fashion picture, not only for evening wear and smart afternoon wear, but for sports and casual wear as well. Here it is doing a nice cover-up job on a basque peasant sun frock fashioned of blue and yellow striped cotton. The bodice dips in the center front in a curved basque line. The curve is repeated in the simple U neckline and armholes and again in the gathered skirt which has a hemline ruffle set into scallops. The stole is of matching cotton.
