UTOPIA PICNIC

Last Thursday evening members of the Utopia club and their husbands and families gathered in the grape arbor of the Vinal Randall home for the annual picnic of the club, and was also a farewell for Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, who left this week to make her home at Lakeview. Following the basket dinner, the evening was spent socially. Guests besides the regular members were Miss Miriam Ferrin, Mrs. Elbert Bede of Portland, a former member, Mrs. Holzhouse and Mrs. Emery of Ukiah, Calif., house guests of Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin, and Miss John Metcalf.

46-YEAR JEWEL PRESENTED ANNA GRAHAM AT N. OF W.

Highlighting the meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft Tuesday night was the presentation of a 46-year jewel to Anna Graham. Those who have earned 35-year jewels, but were not present to receive them are Mrs. Maude Wheeler, Mrs. Herbert Eakin and Mrs. Orpah Benson. These members will receive their jewels later.

The meeting was presided over by Helen Smith, guardian neighbor.

It was announced that Eleanor Wolfard and Jean Thiel will be hostesses at the next meeting, September 7th. The next social meeting will be August 18 with Helen Smith at the Rainbow Cafe at 8:00 o'clock.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Anna Graham and Audrey Buckles.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY WITH MRS. ROBERTSON

The Baptist missionary society met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Laura Robertson on North 9th street. There were nineteen present. Mrs. Frank White had charge of the program, the topic of which was a study of missions in Mexico. Mrs. Roy Reed led the devotionals. Mrs. Salem Magnusson rendered a vocal number and Mrs. W. C. Martin reported on the recent house party at Arrah Wana.

HEBRON GRANGE AUGUST 14

MISS ROBERTS HONORED WITH BRIDAL SHOWER

The home of Mrs. Wilbur Workman was beautifully decorated with glads Tuesday night of last week when Mrs. Workman and Mrs. Schofield Stewart entertained 25 friends of Miss Helen Roberts, bride elect of Alden Copley, at a bridal shower. Appropriate game were played after which the postman arrived bearing a large package which contained the many beautiful and useful gifts for the honored guest. After the recipient opened her gifts refreshments of heart shaped ice cream, cookies and coffee were served the guests.

The wedding date of Miss Roberts and Mr. Copley has been set for August 29.

REBEKAH ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT MAKES OFFICIAL VISIT

Christine Smith of Lebanon, Rebekah Assembly president, made her official visit to the local Rebekah lodge Friday night. The evening started off with a dinner at Landons Inn with a dinner for the president and officers of the Cottage Grove lodge.

The business meeting was a joint one with the Lorane lodge. Corsages were presented by the local order to the president and visiting district deputy presidents, Mrs. Cooper of Lorane and Mrs. Carpenter of Creswell.

Initiation was held for three candidates from Lorane and Ella Hoyer of Cottage Grove. The president talked on appreciation and instructions. Visitors were entertained from Portland, Springfield, Creswell, Salem, Lebanon, Tacoma and Iowa. Sister Hart of Portland brought greetings from Opal Corey, a member of the local lodge.

MR. AND MRS. VIRGIL MOON, (Miss Alvina Northway) whose wedding was an event of July 18, at the First Methodist church, with the Rev. Frank Brown officiating.

The Springfield lodge extended an invitation to the local Rebekahs and Odd Fellows to a picnic held Sunday at Springfield. Aunt Fannie Goude, now living at the I.O.O.F. home in Portland, gave a talk, and also the candidates.

Refreshments were served in the dining room following the meeting by the Cottage Grove and Lorane committees.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN NAMED FOR YEAR BY B & P W's

The grape arbor of Alice Breedlove was the place of meeting for the Business and Professional Women's club Monday night, when the members enjoyed a picnic and business meeting, and at this time the president, Adelia Hatch named the committee chairmen for the year. Those to serve as chairmen on the various committees are: Dorothy Wert, education and vocation; Eleanor Fleming, legislation; Lottie Lee Lamb, program co-ordination; Edna Pillar, finance; Ruth Stewart Caldwell, music and art; Ina Jones, health and safety; Nell Bukowski, membership; Elizabeth Mills, public affairs; Ada Carter, news service; Edna Burleson, Grace Cowan, Alice Breedlove and Lenora Langston, hospitality. This year Mrs. Langston will be in charge of the scrap book. Other committees will be appointed later.

Adelia Hatch, elected president, presided over the business meeting. At the business session Catherine Sedergren talked on the coming election of city officers. A special committee of Ruth Stewart Caldwell, Lois Mills, Edna Burleson, Inez Hoyt and Catherine Sedergren was appointed. A report by the auditing committee, Myrtle Gleason, Ida Williams and Ella Hoyer, was given. Queen Ada, candidate of the club for the regatta and pageant, was presented a corsage, by Adelia Hatch, in behalf of the club; Tressa Tullar, who is leaving soon to make her home in Springfield, was presented a gift from the club.

Ruth Stewart Caldwell reported on the progress of the float for the regatta parade for Saturday, and committees were appointed to assist.

The Chamber of Commerce extended an invitation to the club to meet with them at their next meeting, August 10th.

New members welcomed into the club were Lucy Ranney, Laurel Kent and Hazel Melzer.

The next regular business meeting will be at the home of Inez Hoyt, Wednesday evening, September 8.

WALKER CHURCH HOMECOMING

A full capacity attendance acclaimed the annual Homecoming at Walker a huge success with approximately 200 enjoying the fellowship of a real reunion.

An inspiring and interesting service was led by members of the Gideon Society. It was inspiring, also, to see the numerous hands of the younger folks raised to the query "Who here, received a Gideon gift Testament in Cottage Grove?"

A bounteous basket dinner was spread under the oak and fir immediately following the close of the morning services.

At 2 p.m. the bell in the tower called everyone back into the "Little White Church" for a well planned and executed program, which was opened by Mrs. Mable Jackson who read a poem, "Little White Church" written by Mrs. Lulu Kent of Creswell and dedicated to Walker on their first Homecoming festival in 1946. The invitational prayer was led by Mr. Alexander, Supt. of the Sunday School. Mrs. Fannie Goude, more familiarly known as "Aunt Fanny" gave a short talk on the early history of the church and of some of the happenings during her fathers ministry in the community. No program would be complete without her harmonica, so while she played the voices raised in her favorite song "Sweet By and By." A poem "Little Country Church", written by Mrs. Mary Wilson of Creswell, and also dedicated to Walker, was read by Ellen Sherrill, followed by a solo by Mrs. Hugh Trunnell of Latham. Alice White, of Latham, gave a beautiful whistling solo of "Softly and Tenderly." A duet of "The Pearly White City" was sung by Messrs. Stout and Overton of Cottage Grove, who were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Wright of Creswell, while Rev. Rozelle Douglas prepared a flanelgraph picture and later gave a talk on the homecoming to the "Pearly White City," as compared to this day's homecoming at Walker.

Three numbers on the bells by P. Waldo Davis of Eugene, were thoughtfully enjoyed by all. The surprise number on this year's program was a tenor solo, "Sweet Oregon" by Allan Wheeler, county commissioner, who was accompanied by Mr. Davis at the piano, and a solo was sung by Mrs. Guggisberg of Creswell.

An impressive reading "A Voice in the Twilight" was given by Mrs. Alexander and a violin duet by little Patricia and Darline Martin, and solo by Mrs. Lulu Kent were next to be enjoyed.

Several of the older members present gave short talks of their association in years gone by and many happy and laughable incidents were told and re-told.

Mrs. Jackson read a letter from Mr. Harry Neet, now of Lodi, Calif., who was Sunday School Supt. in the early 1920's and a roll call of those who attended Walker at that time showed five still in attendance. Mrs. Lois Abeene of London, sang a solo and Mr. Davis obliged everyone by another beautiful number on the bells. The Girls Quartet from Walker sang "Dear to the Heart of the Shepherd."

A short sermonette by Rev. Gray whose topic "Where do we go from here," left everyone with a bit of serious thinking.

A Closing Prayer in song was given by the Girls Quartet with the benediction by Rev. Douglas.

The members of Walker Union Church take this opportunity to express their heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to those who gave so generously of their time, energy and talents to make this day one to long to be remembered, and to the many others for their fellowship and good will.
