Words of the Wise

Envy, among other ingredients, has a mixture of the love of justice in it. We are more angry at undeserved than at deserved good fortune.

Diabetes Heredity

Diabetes is most likely to occur in persons who have diabetic relatives. The disease strikes most of ten in middle and old age, and more women than men get it. The highest diabetes mortality is among the better-off classes, and the lowest among workers doing hard manual work.

Origin of Domestic Cattle

Domestic cattle are descended from wild cattle of the genus "Bos." Five groups are generally included in this genus. It has been estimated that cattle have been domesticated since 4,000 to 5,000 B. C. Cattle of Zebu or Indian origin have increased with astounding rapidity on the ranches of the United States.
