BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS JUNE LEE HUGHES

A recent bridal shower honoring Miss June Lee Hughes, bride-elect of Ivan Hoyer, was given on the lawn of the home of Mrs. E. L. Clark. The honoree was presented with a superb corsage by the hostess. Several games typical of the occasion were played during the afternoon. The last game each contestant called her husband, but as the bride-elect had no husband, she called the common name of Mary whereupon Mary Doolittle appeared in answer with a coaster wagon loaded to overflowing with many useful and lovely gifts for the honoree. Delicious refreshments were served to the 23 guests. The wedding date of Miss Hughes to Ivan Hoyer has been set for August 14.

TOWNSEND CLUB

The regular Townsend club meeting was held Monday night in the Petersen hall, at which time reports showed the Oregon Old Age pension movement, which the clubs are helping to sponsor, is getting off to a good start. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Miss Winnie Lee Stokes Lovely July Bride At First Methodist Church

A lovely bride of July 30 was Miss Winnie Lee Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stokes of Cottage Grove, who exchanged wedding vows with Walter Norman Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davis of Springfield, Ill., at the First Methodist church with the Rev. Frank Brown, pastor, reading the ceremony at 8:00 o'clock.

Mr. Stokes gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown was of ivory satin with an off-the-shoulder effect, high necked marquisette yoke, long sleeves extending in points over wrists, fitted bodice and full gathered skirt, ending in a long train. Her white satin tiara, embroidered with seed pearls held her fingertip veil in place. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies with a large satin bow and satin streamers showered with stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Lois Welden in an orchid floor-length gown, satin bodice and net skirt and white lace hat. Her bouquet was salmon colored gladiolus with orchid streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss LaVaughn Stokes and Miss Blanche Stokes, sisters of the bride. Their gowns were identical in style, the former wearing aqua and the latter pale pink marquisette with fitted bodices and hoop skirts, white lace hats. LaVaughn carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and yellow rosebuds and Blanche carried a colonial bouquet of pale pink carnations and deeper colored rosebuds, with streamers matching their gowns.

Best man was George (Bub) Bryant of Portland and ushers were Mark Morgan and Donald Wickendall.

Little flower girl was Judy Voegel in a white organy dress with ruffled off shoulder neckline and rows of ruffles in back extending into a train. She wore a wreath of white carnations on her head. The two little train bearers were Farrys Lusk and Sheila Sedergren. Their dresses were identical to the flower girl in style, but were of blue and pink, and white carnation wreaths on their heads. All wore ruffled petticoats which were revealed by their dresses being caught up with a satin bow. Candelighters were Diane Morelock and Jean Ritter, their formal being alike, one a turquoise and the other blue, fashioned like the other attendants, and they carried pink carnation wreaths on their candles. Ring bearer was Jan Lundahl.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladiolus, Shasta daisies, calla lilies and fern. Organist was Dwane Hunsker of Springfield, who played the wedding marches and for the soloists, Mrs. Elliott Voegel, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," and for the Rev. Frank Brown, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a suit of dark champagne and navy blue accessories. The groom's mother was not able to attend.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. A centerpiece of pink carnations and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom were on the bride's table. The cake was cut by Mrs. R. L. Sedergren and Mrs. Fred Knickerbocker, and Mrs. Norman Lewis and Mrs. C. E. Neet poured. Assisting in serving were Miss Diane Morelock and Miss Jean Ritter. Miss Norma Bradley was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left for Springfield, Illinois to visit relatives and on their return will be at home in Cottage Grove, about the 15th of September. Her going away outfit was brocaded blanchiogo suit with champagne hat and gloves with darker blanchiogo accessories and orchid corsage.

The bride graduated from the local high school with the class of 1947 and the groom graduated from a high school in Springfield, Illinois.

The groom is employed on the local police force and is a deputy sheriff of Lane county.
