JUNE WEDDING OF COTTAGE GROVE MAN REVEALED

Word has been received here of the wedding of Miss Evalie Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Harris, Omaha, Nebr., and Dexter F. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams of Cottage Grove, which was solemnized at Florence Christian Church, Omaha, June 23. The Rev. M. V. Chastain officiated.

The bride was elaborately gowned in white satin and lace and carried a white Bible topped by an orchid. Her attendants were Miss Elva Harris, of Kansas City, Mo., Miss Myrtle Harris, Omaha, and Miss Mary Benson, Scotts Bluff, Nebr. A large reception followed in the church parlors.

Mrs. Williams was graduated from the Minnesota Bible School and has been working for religious publications in New York City. Following four years service in the Army Air Corps, Mr. Williams attended Northwest Christian College, later entering Eastern Christian Institute in New York City. They are living now at East Orange, N. J. Later they plan to go to China as missionaries.

ANNUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC NEXT SUNDAY

The annual Sunday school picnic of the Methodist Sunday school will be held next Sunday at 1:00 p.m. at the city park. A basket dinner will be served at 1:00 o'clock, and an afternoon of games is planned for the children.

GOWDYVILLE SOCIAL CLUB

The Gowdyville Social club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Lester Yearous. A social afternoon was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess. The prize was won by Norma Smith.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ben Absher on August 25. A potluck dinner will be served at 1:00 o'clock.

YOUNG ADULTS MONTHLY MEETING

The Young Adults of the Methodist church met at the parsonage Sunday evening for their monthly meeting. Highlight of the evening was a talk given by Dr. Soltman in "What It Means to Tithe." Group discussion followed.

The remainder of the evening was spent in listening to a recording which had been made during the discussion period. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks.

WALKER LADIES AID

The Ladies Aid met at the church on Wednesday, Aug. 11 with six members and two visitors answering roll call with a verse of scripture. Mabel Jackson read the story of the song "Count Your Blessings" with all the ladies joining in singing it. The study of these hymns, the history of their origin and sometimes a short biography of their authors, create a deeper interest and understanding of words that otherwise would just be sung to a melody.

It is hoped that quilting may be obtained since a good number of the members are adept quilters and there is a definite need for quilted work in the organization. Anyone having quilt tops they wish done may contact any one of the Aid members.

Mrs. Mary Mackie and Mrs. Mabel Jackson were appointed co-hostesses for the next meeting, Wednesday, Sept. 8 at 2 p.m.

FAREWELL PICNIC FOR TURAYS

A surprise farewell picnic was given Sunday, August 15, at the Cottage Grove lake for Mr. and Mrs. Milton Turay and children Jeff and Wally, who are leaving soon for Montesano, Washington where Mr. Turay is being transferred by his company, Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.

Invited guests, some of whom were unable to attend, were: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cauler, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wakefield and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Thompson of Eugene; Messrs. and Misses. George Hohman, Lloyd Griggs, Howard Conner, George Macready, Francis Horn, Leo Rickard, Dale McGarvin, Warren Hansen, Richard Bushell, Walter Downes, Coleen Garoutte, Darrell Garoutte, Geo. Woodworth, Harold Berge, Ivan Morris, Larry Chapman, LaSells Stewart, Maurice Estabrook, Darnwood, Thomas Howard, Ivan Patton, Kenneth Ward, E. R. Lemley, Ronald Gray, Mrs. Mary VanDenburg and Miss Eunice VanDenburg, all local people, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davies from Corvallis.

The group enjoyed a bountiful picnic dinner and a social evening of games, and the courtesy of Col. and Mrs. LaLonde made a good time for everyone.

Lester Cauler expressed everyone's regret that the Turays are leaving, and presented gifts from the crowd to each member of the Turay family.

TEACHERS SPECIAL MEETING

Tuesday evening of last week, the teachers of the Methodist church school children's division met at the parsonage for a special meeting.

Plans for the annual Sunday school picnic, which will be held in the city park Sunday, the 22nd, were made and committees appointed.

Following the business session, Mrs. Howard Taylor and Mrs. A. M. Johnson reported on their recent attendance at laboratory school, which was held on the campus of Willamette University, Salem.

"How To Teach the Bible" was the theme of the evening's discussion, and was presented thru the use of colored slides. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening by the hostess.

CAST OF "MISS JIMMY" ENTERTAINED FRIDAY

Friday night following the play, "Miss Jimmy," which was presented by the Methodist Youth Fellowship, members of the cast, ushers, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks, Ralph Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ness gathered at the Methodist parsonage for fun and fellowship. The group had many laughs and thrills listening to a recording which had been made of the play.

Plans were made for future dramatic presentations and refreshments were served.

POTLUCK DINNER

The Methodist Men entertained men from several churches at a 6:30 potluck dinner on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kent's home Monday evening. Following the dinner several impromptu speeches were given, and the guest speaker of the evening was the Rev. W. M. Byars of Drain.

GERTIE-RAYMOND REUNION

One of the largest family reunions of the season was held recently at the city park when descendants of the Gertie-Raymond families gathered for a picnic and get-together meeting.
