LAYMEN'S LEAGUE MEETS

Men from five churches made up the group on Monday evening. Some committee reports were given and a special meeting was called for Monday night, August 30 at the Assembly of God. Each church is urged to have a full quota of three members at this meeting as it is very important. Candidates for the office of city mayor will be invited at a later meeting to discuss various issues with the group.

Attractive Garden Scene For Wedding

The attractive garden of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker in Eugene was the scene of a lovely twilight wedding ceremony Saturday, August 14, in which Miss June Lee Hughes and Ivan C. Hoyer were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Sudrow and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hoyer, all of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Hugh Peniston, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Cottage Grove, read the service before a group of 50 relatives of the bride and groom. Wedding vows were exchanged before an arbor of greenery, white gladioli and flanked with tall baskets of fern and white gladioli.

Mrs. Gordon Corner of Eugene softly played "I Love You Truly" and "Always" preceding the ceremony, and also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father, Carl A. Sudrow. She was beautiful in a two-piece powder blue dress, embroidered in felt flowers and appliqued net bows. She carried a white Bible on which rested a white orchid, from which fell white satin streamers knotted with stephanotis. A matching spray of stephanotis was in her hair, and she carried a silk handkerchief which had been her grandmother's and over 50 years old for her "something old."

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce Bush, sister-in-law of the groom. Her dress was of light grey and her corsage of pink and white carnations.

Doane Walker, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a dress of pink with white and pink carnation corsage.

Best man was Bruce Bush, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Lowry Hoyer, brother of the groom, and Wayne and Dale Walker, cousins of the bride. An informal reception followed the ceremony. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the couple and served by Mrs. Ralph Walker, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. C. W. Ohlsen of Salem, the groom's aunt, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. E. L. Clark of Cottage Grove was in charge of the guest book.

The bride and groom are both graduates of the local union high school, she being with the class of '48 and he in the class of '45. She is employed at the Hoyer Accounting office and he is a student at the University of Oregon. He served in the recent World War in the U. S. Army for two years.

After a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C., Canada and Washington, the couple will be at home to their friends about September 1st at 141 North L street.

Out of town guests at the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hoyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ohlsen of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bil of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hoyer and son Lowry.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bush, Mr. and Mrs. George White, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Sudrow, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark, Miss Dorothy Sugg, Miss Rose Underwood, Miss Rita Quaglia, Herold Witherspoon, Ronald Leathers, Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Peniston, Byron Foster, Mike Quaglia, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Monteth and Richard H. Cantonwine, all of Cottage Grove.

MRS. RUBY J. NICHOLS

NOW MRS. HUBERT OLDHAM

A wedding of interest was that of Mrs. Ruby J. Nichols of Cottage Grove to Hubert P. Oldham of Bakersfield, California, Thursday, August 19, at the Lane county courthouse, Eugene, with Judge Hurd officiating. The ceremony was performed at 10:15 a.m.

Mrs. Oldham wore a gabardine suit of steel gray with navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias and red roses.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Burle G. Thomas. She also wore a gray suit with Kelly green accessories, and her corsage was of gardenias and Marianne roses.

After September 1st the couple will be at home at the Dykstra home at Mt. View.

Mrs. Oldham is a former resident of Portland, having lived there since 1926. She recently moved to Cottage Grove and opened Patty's Flower Nook and Gift Shop in the M & W Market building of which she is owner and operator.

Mr. Oldham is a retired locomotive engineer, having served 42 years with the Southern Pacific.

CHAPMAN FAMILY REUNION

A family reunion was held at A. L. Gray home at Creswell August 22nd for the Chapman family. Those attending were F. M. Chapman, Clare Chapman and family of Divide; the Sherman Chapman family of Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Chapman of Yoncalla, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Phillips and daughter Nadine of Tucson, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman and daughters of Bandon; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Conant and son Dick of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gray and son Donald. Linn Chapman and family of Oakland, California were unable to attend.

A delicious lunch was served.

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY UNITES COUPLE

The Rev. Frank Brown, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated at a double ring wedding ceremony Thursday evening, August 19, at 7:30 o'clock, uniting Miss Betty Sturdevant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sturdevant, and Hubert R. Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser, all of Cottage Grove. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom's parents before the fireplace banked with summer flowers of blue and pink hydrangeas and white gladioli. White candles and baskets of the same flowers decorated the mantel. Immediate members of the two families were present.

The bride wore a white summer suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Miss Greta Bender was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a blue eyelet dress and corsage of gardenias and pink roses.

Bill Kanel acted as best man. A reception followed with the bride and groom cutting the initial piece of the three-tiered wedding cake and the bride's mother cutting the remainder. Assisting in serving were a sister of the bride and sister-in-law of the groom, Miss Lois Livingston was in charge of the guest book.

Both young people graduated from the local high school in 1947. They left immediately for a wedding trip to California and are now at home on South Sixth street.

Mr. Fraser is employed as a planer at the Grimes Lumber Company.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR NEW PASTOR AND WIFE

On Wednesday evening of last week about 20 members and friends of the Free Methodist church met at the parsonage and greatly surprised their pastor, the Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Starkey. Most of them brought parcels of provisions, as was the custom in former days.

The meeting was primarily for welcoming the pastor and his wife and was in the form of a devotional meeting, the devotions being conducted by the class leader, Charles Hosman. After the devotions, addresses of welcome were made by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Wright, Mrs. Bernice Overton and Charles Hosman. The Rev. and Mrs. Starkey responded to the welcoming addresses. A duet, "No One Ever Cared for Me Like Jesus," was rendered by Mrs. Thelma Wright and Mrs. Bernice Overton. Mrs. Starkey gave a reading, "The Bad Boy in School."

Following the service refreshments of ice cream, feed tea and grape juice were served. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by everyone present. The Rev. and Mrs. Starkey have already endeared themselves to the members and the church is looking forward to a prosperous year under their pastorate.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE FOR MRS. MARSH

Mrs. Martha Marsh was pleasantly surprised last Friday afternoon when a group of friends called to help her celebrate her birthday. A pleasant afternoon was spent in visiting. Those present were Mrs. Ethel Applewhite, Mrs. Fum Adams, Mrs. Viola Cruse, Mrs. Mae Barton, Mrs. Ella Parton, Mrs. Sam Warren and the hostess.

Mrs. Marsh was further entertained with a birthday dinner that evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marvon Harpole. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vincent, Mrs. John Frazer, JoAnn, Bobby and Kenneth Frazer, Donald Vincent, Howard Harpole, Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Witherspoon, Mrs. Sam Warren, the honored guest, Mrs. Marsh, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Marvon Harpole.

NEIGHBORS CHEER UP

CIRCLE MEETS AUG. 17

On August 17th the Neighbors Cheer Up Circle called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warren with 12 present. Readings were given by Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Starkey, and poems by Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Warren. A very interesting letter was read from Grandma Star, and the meeting closed by singing "God Be With You," and prayer by Mrs. Warren.

On August 24th the Circle called at the homes of Miss Grace Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Knaffle Haynes, where favorite hymns were sung and an interesting talk given by Mrs. Belknap on her trip to points in Washington and of the camp meeting she attended while there. Mrs. Webster's favorite hymns were sung and the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Overton.

REBEKAHS REGULAR MEETING

The Rebekahs held their regular meeting Friday night in the IOOF hall and made plans for the Rebekah-IOOF picnic which was held last Sunday. The committee appointed to assist the Odd Fellows was Viola Rohde, Gladys Hatch and Emma Erwin.

It was reported that Adah Jones, a lifelong member of the local order, had passed away at her Roseburg home.

Loretta Saffley, district deputy president, gave her unwritten work.

VFW AND AUX. TO MEET

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary will meet Friday night, August 27th, at 8:00 p.m. in the IOOF hall. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

BIRTHDAY CLUB ENTERTAINS HUSBANDS

The Senior Birthday club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kiker Saturday evening for a potluck supper and social time with their husbands as guests. Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin and their two grandchildren who are visiting them from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunn, guests of the host and hostess. It was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Kiker, who was the recipient of some lovely gifts.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS RITA QUAGLIA

Miss Doris Dixon, Mrs. Bill Pruitt and Mrs. Myrtle Lake were hostesses for a bridal shower last week at the Lake home, honoring Miss Rita Quaglia, bride-elect of Richard Cantonwine. The honoree was showered with many lovely gifts by the 22 guests present, and refreshments of coffee, ice cream, fruit cake and cookies were served by the hostesses.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Women of the Moose held their regular meeting August 19th at the Moose Hall.

Gladys Miller, committee chairman for publicity, will have charge of the chapter nite program at the next meeting, September 2nd. There will also be initiation.

Georgetta Funk, Agnes Gates and Francis Gill are on the refreshment committee.
