CRESWELL

Creswell Fair Sept. 18

Creswell Home Economics club met for an all day meeting at the hall Thursday and worked on bazaar articles. Each member is asked to make a special bazaar article for the Creswell Community Fair, which is to be held Saturday, Sept. 18, and bring it to a special meeting Monday, Sept. 13 at the hall. The bazaar committee members are Mmes. A. E. Elmdorf, E. W. Malone, W. J. Polson, F. L. DeBerry, G. R. Miller and F. E. Vick. Mrs. E. E. Allen, chairman of the club appointed the following committees for the fair: canned fruit, Mmes. H. A. Howe, B. Vaughan, E. W. Malone, and F. P. Clark; canned vegetables, Mmes. Van Groubeck, F. L. DeBerry, Ray Vincent and J. P.

Walker; dried fruit and vegetables, Mmes. C. Wetzel, E. F. Malone and David Francis; canned meats, Mmes. R. Wright, F. E. Vick and E. J. Hengelbrok; jams, jellies, pickles, Mmes. E. W. Tolten, C. I. Kent and H. H. Brown; flowers, Mmes. R. F. Scott, E. E. Allen and F. P. Clark; cooked foods, Mmes. Delbert Walkley, J. W. Smith and A. L. Radcliff; fancy work, Mmes. Alice Taylor, H. S. Joslin and Leo Cole. Mrs. Ralph Rogers will be in charge of the greeting and Christmas card sales table.

Twelve members of the Creswell club attended the picnic of the Dorena club at the W. A. Hemenway ranch Tuesday. It was voted to make the picnic an annual affair with the Creswell, Hemenway and Dorena clubs taking part.

Mrs. H. N. Traxler entertained the members of the Insurance Women's group of Eugene and Lane county at her home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stott and Verla Jean and their house guests. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jackson and son Robert of Alinsworth, Neb. made a trip to Crater Lake Thursday. Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Stott are brother and sister.

About 60 members and friends of the Methodist church attended the annual picnic of the church on the lawn Thursday evening.

Nona Gay Hager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nealon Hager of Salt Lake City, is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hager.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Borden and daughter, Patty of Yreka, Cal. visited last week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kerr. Borden is a former principal of Creswell high school and has accepted a position as school supervisor of Siskiyou county for the coming term.

Several Creswell members attended the Beersheba meeting of the Winawala Encampment at Coburg Saturday. Graham Young, grand master of the Oregon IOOF, of Tigard was present and announced he would pay his official visit to Creswell Giffry lodge Wednesday evening, Sept. 1.

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. Lasater of Cottage Grove was observed with a dinner at Mrs. Dora Martin's Sunday. Mrs. Leticia Good and Mrs. Myrtle Cooley assisted Mrs. Martin. Mrs. Good, Mrs. Cooley, and Mrs. Lasater are cousins. Mrs. R. M. Carpenter entered the FL club at her home Tuesday evening. There were six members present.

WSCS of the Methodist church met for Bible study class and a potluck dinner at noon Wednesday. A business meeting was held in the afternoon. Mrs. E. C. Fisher became a new member and was appointed secretary of missions. Members of the Dorcas Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Smith, Sept. 1 to tie a quilt for church relief.

The fire department answered two calls this week. On Wednesday a fire at the Joe Garske property north of town burned three cabins and was barely stopped from destroying the residence of the Garskes. Friday a grass fire was extinguished north of town on property near the railroad track.

Members of Creswell Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Theta Rho girls and their families and friends are reminded of the picnic at the Robert Franklin ranch west of town Sunday, August 29. A basket dinner will be served and each is to bring his own table service.

Miss Eva Powers of Seattle is visiting with Mrs. Leticia Good.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lawton and family of Redwood City, Calif. visited with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Parsons for a few days. They were on their way to Washington.

Jay Kuni made a very good catch of salmon recently. Nineteen big salmon weighing from seven to 35 pounds were caught. He and a nephew, Lynn Royce, went out about 50 miles for their fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Land called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Land, one evening this week. They had just returned from a trip into British Columbia for the Forest Products Co., Oregon Limited and the Forest Hardware Inc., both of Brownsville, Oregon. Mr. Land has financial interests in both firms.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crabb spent the week at Gearhart and Seaside.

Logan Bear returned Monday from a trip to Nebraska and California.

Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Johnston and family left for a ten day trip into Montana.

Mrs. Lela Syphers left the last of the week for Fort Wayne, Ind. to visit her daughter, Mrs. Richard Martin, the former Arleta Syphers.

Mrs. Ida Smith and daughter, Esther of Portland are visiting Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Minnie Henriksen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goreham arrived Saturday from Des Moines Iowa to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Kent. They plan to settle in Oregon.

Creswell Lions club is making big plans for their Jamboree to be held at the high school auditorium Friday evening, Aug. 27 at 8:00. The proceeds will be used for civic improvements.

Mrs. Ada Willoughby left Friday for Nebraska where she will visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rick and son of Seattle visited with the Ival Wilsons over the week end. Mrs. Rick and Mrs. Wilson are sisters. Miss Dona Wilson was also home from Portland where she is employed by the Bell Telephone company.

Members of Moss Circle Neighbors of Woodcraft moved their lodge properties to the IOOF hall this week where they will hold their meetings.

Creswell Teacher Staff

Creswell Union High School will start Sept. 13 with the following teaching staff: Superintendent T. R. Graham will teach social economics and American history and government; Mrs. Barbara Wolfe, English; Harvey Kent, industrial art and freshman orientation; Mrs. Jean Johnson, commerce department; Homer Parks, boys' physical education and math; Ellsworth Huffman, music in both grade and high school; Mrs. Marion Hopper, home making and general science. A part time teacher is yet to be hired to teach girls physical education and biology. All children with permission of the parents will be taken down town for the chest x-ray which is being held the first day of school. Out of state and ninth grade pupils are reminded they must have a physical examination before entering school. All students moving into the district should get in touch with Mr. Graham, phone 477 so he can send for their transcripts. The entire building has been redecorated inside and out with alterations being made in the commercial room and study hall. A utility room has been added for shop work. Pre-school clinic will begin at 9 o'clock Thursday, Sept. 9 and will continue through Saturday, September 11. A student council meeting will be held at the high school Friday evening, Aug. 27 at 7:30 to make arrangements for opening school activities and setting prices of annual student body dues as well as season tickets to athletic contests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gruver of Napa, Calif. visited this week with Gruver's cousin, Mrs. Wm. Thomson and family.

Gary Schmitt of Cottage Grove is spending several days with his cousin Judy Skaggs.

Mrs. R. M. Carpenter and Nancy visited relatives in Forest Grove and Nehalem over the week end. Nancy remained at Forest Grove for a longer visit. Billy Carpenter, who had been visiting at Forest Grove, returned home.

Texas is the only state of the union that may divide itself into five separate states.
