MISS DOROTHY SPECK HONORED AT SHOWER

Miss Dorothy Speck of Eugene, bride-elect of Addison Heath, was the inspiration for a bridal shower last week when Mrs. Ivan Morris, Mrs. Clarence Buckles and Mrs. William Bartels Sr., entertained for her at the Morris home. Thirty guests were present for the buffet dessert and shower. Mrs. R. B. Hill, mother of Miss Speck, and Mrs. Heath, mother of Mr. Heath, poured.

Miss Speck was presented a gardenia corsage and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, presented in an unusually clever manner, with an improvised miniature altar, decorated with small yellow and white flowers, and a little bride for the background of the gift table.

Yellow and white were the colors used in the color scheme, using Easter lilies and yellow tapers as table decorations.

HEBRON GRANGE HEC

The Hebron Grange H.E.C. held their first September meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Harris. Mrs. Harry Lewis resigned as secretary as her work makes it impossible for her to attend meetings. Mrs. Roy Geer was elected to fill out the rest of the term.

Further plans were made for the bazaar, and Grange ladies are requested to prepare articles to be sold there.

It was agreed to have a Grange dinner or supper the latter part of November. All Grange ladies are urged to attend the Oct. 22 meeting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Baker to help make plans for lots of food and fun for all.

MOTHERS CLUB, OCT. 12

Fall meetings of the Mothers club will get underway next Tuesday, Oct. 12, with an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Hart. There will be plenty of work to do.

BPW Club Members To Attend Two-Day Conference 9-10

Cottage Grove Business and Professional Women's club members will attend the Southwest District conference Saturday and Sunday in Eugene, theme of which will be state issues in the coming election.

Sessions will be held in the Eugene Veterans Memorial Building, with Cecilia Galey, State Legislative chairman, as key speaker. Mrs. Carmalita Weddle, state president, also will talk. Saturday night will feature a party, with business sessions Sunday.

Twelve new members were accepted in the club at its meeting Monday night in the City Library. They are Charley Woods, Winnie Dowis, Gladys Anderson, Dorothy McMillan, Annie Wooley, Lois Weiden, Bertha Cottrell, June Lee Hoyer, Lorraine Ness, Donalene Hastie, June Neal and Jean Olsen.

The 1948-1949 club budget was read and approved.

Another highlight of the meeting was a talk by Elmer Kent on the old age pension bill in the coming election.

Hilda Walther, chairman of Businesswomen's Week in Cottage Grove beginning October 10, told of advertising plans. Theme of the national celebration is "Use Your Vote in '48."

The next meeting will be a dinner meeting October 18 at the Rainbow Cafe. Eleanor Fleming, Legislative chairman, will preside. Serving with her will be Lucy Ranney, Hazel Melzer, Lottie Lee Lamb, Coordination chairman, and Ruth Caldwell, music chairman.

The Club voted to donate the $100 check received as first prize in the Regatta float parade to the Cottage Grove Hospital Association. A picture of the check presentation appears elsewhere in this paper.

22ND ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED AT MEETING

Grove Circle No. 875, assisted by Pine Circle No. 45 and Eugene Circle No. 16, Neighbors of Woodcraft, was host for a pep meeting held Tuesday night in the local IOOF hall. This meeting was also in observance of Grove Circle's 22nd anniversary.

Distinguished guests were Grand Guardian Neighbor Minerva Coddling and Grand Clerk Leah Wood, both of Portland; Grand Representatives Lora Darby of Springfield and Esther Newton of Coos Bay. District officers of District Guardian Neighbor, Adelia Hatch, Cottage Grove; District Attendant Florence Glaze of Eugene; District flag bearer Myrtle Barrett of Springfield; District Captain of Guards Elmer Newton of Coos Bay; outer sentinel, Hazel Clack of Creswell.

Those filling out offices were past guardian neighbor, Anna Graham; advisor, Julia Bartels; magician, Estella Lewis of Springfield; district clerk, Fanny Leabo of Moss Circle No. 485; district banker, Pearl Bressler; district managers, Nellie Blackmore and Mildred Teich; district musician and acting district captain and team, who had charge of all floor work were from Pine Circle No. 45 of Springfield.

Corsages were presented to grand officers, grand representatives and district officers by Neighbors Eleanor Wolfard and Mildred Teich.

Music during presentations was played by Mary Lou Wolfard, who also entertained with two piano solos.

Open initiation was held with acting district clerk, Fannie Leabo, of Moss Circle, singing the solo parts. The Eugene team, dressed in pastel shades, presented a fancy drill, which was greatly enjoyed. Flowers for the robes and table decorations were furnished mostly by Olive Parsons of Creswell. A gift was sent her from the hostess circles.

Interesting talks were given by grand officers and grand representatives and district captain of guards, Elmer Newton. Cecil Beck favored the group with moving pictures of the regatta, parade and Girl Scouts.

The evening's entertainment closed with delicious refreshments served by the hostess circles in a beautifully decorated dining room.

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS AT FIRST FALL MEETING

Mrs. Ray Nelson was hostess to the Elite Bridge Club at a luncheon Thursday night, which was followed by an evening of bridge and election of officers. Mrs. Ardeth Nichols was a guest, and high honors at bridge went to Mrs. Orlo Bagley.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were Mrs. Walter Hunter, president and Mrs. Fred Hammond, secretary and Treasurer. The next meeting will be on October 7 with Mrs. Ralph Saltzman.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER FOR YOUNG MATRON

Mrs. John Trunnell and Mrs. Robert Woolcott entertained for Mrs. Kenneth Whitlock at a pink and blue shower on September 24 at the home of Mrs. H. O. Bennett. Approximately 25 guests showered the honoree with lovely, dainty pink and blue articles, which were presented in a beautiful bassinette. Besides the opening of the many gifts by Mrs. Whitlock, appropriate games were enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Attractive Autumn Suit

Smart and wearable.

By VERA WINSTON

DOESKIN IN a dull taupe shade is the medium used for this excellent bread-and-butter suit, the sort of outfit that is always ready for duty, always wearable and smart. It has a rolled collar and the round shoulder yoke, and the seaming of the jacket terminates in a seamed waistband that goes all around the back. The large patch pockets at the hips are buttoned down. The skirt is slim and straight.

OCT. 3rd FIRST MEETING OF YOUNG ADULTS

On Sunday night, October 3rd, the Young Adult group of the Methodist church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks for the first fall meeting. The Rev. Frank Brown led a discussion of the quadrennium program of the Methodist church, entitled "For Christ and His Church." Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson were guests. Refreshments served by the hosts closed the evening's program.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE PARTY

The Intermediate Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church started meetings Sunday night after the summer vacation when 19 of them met in the League room for a party, consisting of games and refreshments. This was followed by the group outlining a program for the coming year. They will meet next Saturday at 1:30 at the new church to help clean it up in preparation to moving in.

BAZAAR PLANNED

At the regular meeting of the Past Noble Grand club Thursday in the IOOF hall, plans were made to have a bazaar in the near future, and initiation was held for Calla Land. Hostesses for the afternoon who served refreshments were Mearle McKibben, Lena McFarland, Loretta Safley and Marie Sorensen.

FOR DELLA HAYDEN

On Saturday evening, October 2, Grace Smith, Ruth Bradford and Frances Racknor, who are members of Bethlehem White Shrine in Eugene, attended an elaborate reception which was held in the Salem Masonic temple honoring Della Hayden, second handmaid of Supreme White Shrine of Jerusalem, and for Pearl Speer, District deputy for Oregon. Both are members of Salem's Willamette Shrine No. 2.

There was a large attendance, with sojourners coming from Portland, The Dalles, Klamath Falls and Eugene shrines of Oregon and representation from Idaho and Washington; also several from Canada with one coming from as far away as Ottawa. Among the distinguished guests was the Supreme Third Wise man whose home is in Victoria, B. C.

When our flag was brought into the hall the Canadian flag was also escorted after which the audience sang "America" and "God Save The King." On Della Hayden's entrance she was preceded by an escort of ten maids from several shrines who, when they arrived at the foot of the dais, formed an arch with gladioli which they carried, for her to pass through.

The program consisted of vocal solos and several speeches honoring Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Speer, with Nellie Combelbeck of Long Beach, California, Past Supreme High Priestess, being the first to speak.

The climax of the evening came with the appearance of two shrine patrols, first one from Seattle followed by the other from Olympia, who enthralled the audience for about forty minutes with their perfect marching.

At the close of the evening delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee were served in the large dining hall.

REGULAR BUSINESS MEETING

The regular business meeting of the Rebekahs was held Friday night in the IOOF hall. Ethel Stolle of Mora, Minnesota was a guest. The next regular meeting will be October 15th.

You'll find it in the classified.
