Miss Jean Nolt Is October Bride
At First Congregational Church, Eugene

A setting of bronze and gold mums and autumn leaves with flickering tapers in candelabra furnished the decorations at the First Congregational church in Eugene Sunday afternoon, October third, at three o'clock for the exchange of wedding vows of Miss Jean Nolt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Nolt, of Cottage Grove, and Eugene E. Vanicek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vanicek, of Eugene. The double ring ceremony was read by the pastor, the Rev. Wesley Goodson Nicholson.

Preceding the ceremony Warren Mack of Eugene sang "God Gave Me You" and "Smiling Through The Years," accompanied by Miss Mary Grubbs, who also played the traditional wedding marches. The bride came down the aisle to the altar on the arm of her father. Her wedding gown was of white satin, the yoke of the fitted bodice being edged with narrow accordion pleated satin and self-covered buttons up the back, sleeves were long and pointed over wrists and her full skirt ended in a long train. Her fingertip veil of nylon illusion was held in place with a white satin pillbox hat. Her flowers, a wrist bouquet, were white Fuji mums centered with a white orchid.

Her attendants were her maid of honor, Rose Marie Walsh of Eugene, who wore gold slipper satin, with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore matching mits and Juliet cap of bronze mums and gold cord, and wrist bouquet of Fujian pom-pom mums and croton leaves, and her junior bridesmaid, Carol Ann Nolt, sister of the bride, wore mist green slipper satin, also with fitted bodice, full skirt and puff sleeves, and mums in her hair. Her bouquet was the same as the maid of honor.

Robert Dickinson of Eugene was best man, ushers were Lloyd Cameron, brother-in-law of the groom, and Robert Wells of Eugene. The bride's mother wore a forest green crepe street-length dress, black accessories and corsage of red roses nestled in black lace. The bridegroom's mother wore a street-length dress of purple with black accessories and corsage of tallisman rosebuds nestled in black lace.

The reception followed in the Wheeler room of the church, with mums and autumn leaves decorating the bride's table, and the wedding cake in the form of a Christain cross. Mrs. Lloyd Cameron, sister of the groom, assisted by Mrs. Leo Best, cut the cake. Mrs. William Shackelford and Mrs. Leonard Clearwater, both sisters of the groom, served, and Mrs. Steve Edwards of Springfield, poured. Mrs. Earl Best of Eugene was in charge of the guest book.

When the couple left for a trip to the coast the bride wore a forest green gabardine suit, brown accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After October 18th the couple will be at home on Rt. 2, Eugene. Mrs. Vanicek is a graduate of Eugene High School and has been employed for the past four years by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. The bridegroom graduated from Springfield High school, and is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is employed by the Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Shackelford of Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clearwater of Coos Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Severson of Aberdeen, Wash.

TOWNSEND CLUB NEWS

Special guests at Monday night's meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald of Portland. Mr. McDonald is national representative of the organization for Oregon and this was his first visit to the local club. His address was mostly on the Oregon old age pension act, a measure to be voted on at the November election. Elmer Kent, who had attended a welfare meeting on Sunday in Medford, also reported on this measure which seems to be meeting with approval of the majority in every part of the state. The local club will entertain the Townsend fourth district council November 14.

JAYCEE-ETTES PLAN GOBLIN PARADE HALLOWEEN

At the last meeting of the Jaycee-ettes on October 6th at the home of Joyce Craine plans were discussed for a goblin parade. Aretta Drury and Bertha Wilson were appointed to appeal to other organizations for support. All children are invited to come to the armory in costume, and a parade will be held in the armory, after which amusement will be provided and treats furnished for all. Prizes for the best costumes will be given.

The Jaycee-ettes decided to sponsor a minstrel show for the Girl Scouts, and a party for the Brownies was discussed, and will be held soon at the home of Ann Woolery. Two new members, Lois Giles and Helyn Copple, were welcomed into the Jaycee-ettes.
