Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hoyer entertained at dinner Tuesday evening for their guests, Mrs. Reta Warrick of Battle Creek, Iowa, mother of Mrs. Hoyer, and Lawrence Hoyer of Chicago, Illinois, brother of Mr. Hoyer. Attending the dinner besides the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoyer of Salem, parents of Mr. Hoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bush and son Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hoyer of Eugene and Lowry Hoyer.

NOVEMBER 13 CHOSEN FOR WEDDING

Saturday, November 13, has been chosen as the wedding day for Miss Madelyn Ocumpaugh and Eldon L. Carlson. Miss Ocumpaugh is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ocumpaugh and Mr. Carlson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Carlson, all of Cottage Grove. The bride-elect is a graduate of the local Union high school and attended the University of Oregon for a year.

REGULAR BUSINESS MEETING

The Royal Neighbors met Tuesday night for their regular business meeting. During the social hour which followed refreshments were served by Alice Breedlove, Fern Anderson and Elsie DeYoung. Fall fruit and leaves were table decorations. Plans were made to attend Eugene camp October 21st. The next meeting will be October 26 in Petersen hall.

MRS. SEARS, MRS. HORN HOSTESSES TO CLUB

Mrs. Max Sears and Mrs. Francis Horn were hostesses Monday afternoon to the members of the Past Matrons club at the Sears home in Delight Valley. A dessert course was served by the hostesses and was followed by a short business meeting and a social afternoon.

At the November meeting Mrs. J. P. Graham and Mrs. C. E. Dillman will be hostesses, the place to be announced later.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

Members of the Catholic Daughters of America met at the home of Mrs. Frank Gierau on October 11 for their regular business meeting. Preliminary plans for the bazaar to be held some time in December were discussed. Hostesses Florence Keibelbeck and Lillian Porter, served refreshments to the twelve members present.

CHEER UP CIRCLE CALLS

On October 12 members of the Cheer Up Circle called at the home of Grandpa Ross, who had been unable to leave his home in several months. The cheering words, songs and the promises of our Savior were appreciated.

They then went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hosman, where a short devotional service was held. Mr. and Mrs. Hosman thanked the Cheer Up Circle for coming into their home with these meetings and invited them to return.

Heirloom Veil From Italy Worn By Miss Quaglia At Catholic Church Rites

An heirloom veil of hand-woven sheer linen edged with eyelet embroidery, over two hundred years old, brought from Italy by the bride's mother, was her "something old" worn by Miss Margarita Madeline Quaglia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michele Quaglia, of Cottage Grove, Friday, October 8, at ten o'clock in the morning, when she exchanged wedding vows with Richard Harold Cantonwine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cantonwine, of Longmont, Colorado.

The bride graduated from Cottage Grove Union high school in 1945 and attended Oregon State college, and is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. He served three years in the U. S. Navy on the USS Saratoga, and is an employee of the Lorane Valley Lumber Co.

Special organ music was played by Mrs. M. Sizemore, who also accompanied Mrs. Robert Boyce and Mrs. M. Overgaard as they sang "Mother, At Your Feet, Is Kneeling," "Ave Maria" and "Mother, Forget Me Not." During Mass Mrs. Sizemore played "Veni, Domine."

Mr. Quaglia gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white slipper satin with a full skirt and long train. Her skirt was caught up in front with yellow rosebuds to reveal eyelet inserts. The bodice was fashioned with large neckline with tiny pearl buttons down the front, and long pointed sleeves. Her sheer linen veil fell from a cap formed from part of the veil, and her arm bouquet was of white rosebuds. She carried a silver rosary.

Maid of honor was Miss JoAnne Premazzi in a gown of orchid lotted swiss, with white satin halo and shoulder-length veil, white gloves and arm bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bill Pruitt, in a gown of pink net, and Miss Doris Dixon, in blue net, both wearing white satin halo hats with shoulder-length veils and carrying arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother wore a street-length gray dress and coat, black accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Michael Quaglia, brother of the bride, was best man, and ushers were Kenneth Jackson and Virgil Moon.

A reception followed in the parish house with Mrs. E. Boswell cutting the wedding cake after the bride and groom cut the initial piece. Mrs. J. Gallo presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Fred Langston Sr., and Mrs. R. Buswell. The guest book was in charge of Miss Maxine Blue.

For their wedding trip to Salt Lake City, Denver, Colorado Springs and Longmont, Colorado, where they will visit the bridegroom's parents, Mrs. Cantonwine wore a pink wool suit, blue and gray accessories and a white rosebud corsage from her wedding bouquet. They will be at home November 1st, at 109 N. River Road, Cottage Grove.

The bride graduated from Cottage Grove Union high school in 1945 and attended Oregon State college, and is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. He served three years in the U. S. Navy on the USS Saratoga, and is an employee of the Lorane Valley Lumber Co.

BROWNIE SCOUT COMMITTEE MEETS

The committee for the Brownie Scout Troop No. 140 met at the home of Mrs. R. F. Smith on Wednesday evening to make plans for the Brownies for the coming month. It was decided to meet the first Wednesday of each month. Seven ladies were present and refreshments of coffee and cake were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gardiner King on South River Road.

SEVERAL GUESTS AT CLUB MEETING

Members of the Elite Bridge club and several guests were entertained Thursday night at a 7:30 dessert and evening of bridge by Mrs. Ralph Saltzman. Special guests were Mrs. Lloyd Aldrich, Mrs. Sam Veatch, Mrs. Harold Wolfard, Mrs. Max Sears, and Mrs. Anna Swanson of Portland, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Saltzman. High score for guests was received by Mrs. Sears, and for members by Mrs. Stewart Carlson.

Mrs. Orlo Bagley will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, October 21.

EASTERN STAR ENTERTAINS

Several members of the chapters of the Oakridge and Creswell Eastern Star were guests Friday night at the regular meeting of the local chapter. The worthy matron of the Oakridge chapter, Mrs. Charles Croner, was introduced. Invitations to visit various chapters were read, and a social hour of charades was in charge of Eleanor Wolfard. Refreshments served by the committee closed the evening's meeting and entertainment.

B. & P. W. DINNER MEETING
