CHEER UP CIRCLE BRINGS CHEER TO SHUTINS

On October 19th the Cheer Up Circle called on Grandma Witcher and her guest, Mrs. Glendelia Nokes, mother of Mrs. Ed Miller. After a well planned program of singing, poems, scripture reading and prayers, the group enjoyed visiting with the ladies. It was also a meeting of old neighbors for Mrs. Mary Mackie as she and the Nokes family were neighbors 54 years ago in the Lynx Hollow vicinity.

A cheer up letter from Aunt Fannie Goude was read, telling them of the different ones in the IOOF home.

After the meeting a very generous supply of groceries, canned and fresh fruits, jelly and vegetables from the Cheer Up members, also a box of canned fruit, meat and jellies from Mrs. Ed Sherrill of Delight Valley and $5.00 contribution from Mrs. Buckner was taken to a very worthy family where the husband has been bedfast for several months. All this was greatly appreciated by the family, who extends their sincere thanks to them.

WEDDING AT HOME OF BRIDE SATURDAY

At the home of the bride on Harvey road, Saturday, October 16, at one thirty in the afternoon a double ring ceremony performed by Judge and Mrs. Alta King united Mrs. Lois Hathaway and Harlow Hubbell, both Cottage Grove residents. The ceremony took place before an improvised altar before the fireplace in beautifully decorated rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong attended the couple.

The bride and her attendant wore afternoon dresses of pastel shades and corsages of gardenias.

The 16th was the fifth month anniversary for the attendants, who are closely united in that Mrs. Hathaway's son married Mr. Armstrong's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell are both well known here. She formerly worked for Swartz and Wolfard and Mr. Hubbell is known throughout the Pacific coast for his famous Hubbell's honey, and has done a great deal of constructive work in the bee industry.
