Autumn Ensemble

A handsome tweed outfit.

By VERA WINSTON

BEAUTIFUL COLOR tones distinguish the autumn dress parade. Linton tweed in a lavender shade is combined with purple wool jersey to make this charming coat and dress ensemble. It is wearable, young, and good for travel, college and general wear. The one-piece dress has a two-piece look and uses set-in bands of the tweed to outline the deep armhole. The coat is simple, loose-swinging, and is lined in the purple jersey of the dress top.

THETA RHO GIRLS INSTALL AND INSTATE

At the regular meeting of the Phi Theta Rho Girls Monday night in the IOOF hall, officers who were absent at the regular installation service were installed at this time. Those installed were: president, Mae Malcolm; warden, Cindy Gore; musician, Barbara Buckles; second herald, Jean Rickard; third herald, Donna Guggisberg; fourth herald, Dolores Van Matre; right support to vice president, Barbara Kinsland and outside guardian, Barbara Mosley.

Installing officer was Thiel Murrel; installing chaplain, Joyce Lyon and installing marshal, Donna Porterfield.

Following the installation ceremony initiation was held for Carolyn Crane.

The financial secretary, recording secretary and treasurer are to meet with Joyce Lyon and Donna Porterfield next Tuesday night at Donna's home to go over the books. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be for regular business.

Buffet supper for guest Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lionberger entertained at a buffet supper for Lieutenant Fred Lionberger of the U. S. Air Corps, who is home on leave.
