BANTON, WARREN WEDDING

A lovely military wedding performed in the Chapel of the Rapid City Air Force Base, at Weaver, South Dakota united in marriage Cpl. James G. Banton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Banton of the London community, and Charlotte E. Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Warren of Downs, Kansas.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 5 p.m., Oct. 2, 1948 by Chaplain Capt. DeLashan before a group of close friends of the groom and the groom's sister and the bride's parents and brother Wayne from Downs, Kansas.

The bride was dressed in a white wool dress, full skirt, with a peplum tied in a large graceful bow in the back and black accessories. She wore a corsage of red rose buds tied with gold ribbon. For something old she wore pearl earrings, a gift from her mother, and something borrowed she carried a lace handkerchief of her mother's.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Vernon Warren, sister Mary Anne, of the groom, as matron of honor. She wore an aqua gaberdine afternoon dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink asters tied with silver ribbon.

Cpl. Banton was attired in U. S. Army uniform of the Air Corps. Best man was Glenn Erickson, a friend of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained the bridal party at a reception at Devine Court with refreshments of ice cream and a beautiful decorated wedding cake baked by the bride's mother and carried 625 miles for the occasion. A miniature bride in white and groom in uniform topped the cake decoration.

A second reception at 8 p.m. honored the newly married pair at Camp Rapid, given by Sgt. and Mrs. Royal Jaynes with a light buffet supper served and a second wedding cake topped by the miniature bride in white and groom in uniform from the first one.

Mrs. Banton was formerly employed at McCrackins Transfer in Eugene. Cpl. Banton is Photo Laboratory Technician in the Army Air Corps. His present enlistment will expire in March. He was raised near Cottage Grove in the London community and attended local schools prior to his enlistment two years ago.

STAR MEMBERS REPORT VISITATIONS OF CHAPTERS

Ruth Smith, worthy matron, and George Witters, worthy patron, of the local chapter of Eastern Star, presided at the regular meeting Friday night, at which time several members reported visitations to other chapters. Several invitation were read inviting the local chapter to visit receptions to be given for grand officers. The chapter was invited to Oakridge on Tuesday night of this week and is invited to Evangeline chapter, Eugene, for the evening of November 5th. Ilma Thum, worthy grand matron, and Mary Workman, grand Electa, were escorted to the East and honored. Ruth Smith was appointed as grand representative of Nebraska by Ilma Thum, who also presented her with a gift.

Degree work was announced for the next meeting, November 12th. Refreshments served by the committee with Myra Macready as chairman, closed the evening's session.

JUNIOR GUILD ORGANIZED

A Junior Guild of the Methodist church was organized recently at the parsonage with nine girls present. This group takes in those who are through high school up to and including those 25 years of age. The purpose of this Guild is to develop an attitude of fellowship with one another and to become more closely related to God's work, and will carry on projects and have lessons and devotions at their meetings.

Meetings of the Junior Guild will be the third Thursday of each month, the next meeting to be at the home of Mrs. Bill Workman Jr., with Mrs. Jim Hendricks assistant hostess. Anyone interested in this Guild is invited to come. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

ACTIVITIES OF CHEER UP CIRCLE PAST WEEK

On October 26 the Cheer Up Circle met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Tedford and conducted a devotional service of favorite hymns, prayer, scripture and two vocal duets by Mrs. Edna Stout and Mrs. Bernice Overton. Also interesting poems and readings were given. Mr. Tedford was presented a bouquet of flowers. Mr. Balch was also present and contributed his part in singing and a talk.

Flowers were sent to Mrs. Carl Sudrow, who was injured in a car wreck Saturday, and is a patient in a Eugene hospital. A vote of thanks was extended Mrs. Elsie Wells and Mrs. William Kincaid for pictures and books for the children in the Shrine hospital. A date will be set soon to get the books ready to send.

Local Couple Announce Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Malcolm of Cottage Grove announce the engagement of their daughter June to Sanford Wiese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Wiese also of Cottage Grove. No date has been set for the wedding.

GROUP OBSERVES PRAYER AND SELF-DENIAL

The Methodist Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors for the regular meeting and to observe Week of Prayer and Self-Denial. Mrs. Charles Cooley was hostess and served refreshments preceding the meeting. Mrs. C. N. Land was in charge of the lesson, and a special collection was taken for the various mission schools. Mrs. Lee Cooley, devotional chairman, was in charge of the devotional service, assisted by several other members.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Committees for the Business and Professional Women's card party were appointed Monday night at the home of Edna Piller, card party chairman. The card party is to be held in the east room of the armory Thursday evening, November 4th, at 8:00 o'clock.

The regular monthly business meeting of the club will be held next Monday evening at 7:30 in the city library.

DATE CHANGED FOR CLUB

The Cedars club has announced that it will meet November 9th instead of the 2nd, as was planned, but was changed due to election day. On the 9th members will gather at the home of Mrs. Anna Bolton, Creswell, for an all day meeting.

POTLUCK SUPPER, EVENING OF ENTERTAINMENT

The V. F. W. and the Ladies Auxiliary held their regular meetings Friday evening, Oct. 22, with the Auxiliary serving a delicious supper which was immensely enjoyed by everyone present, but what made this meeting something very special was the delightful surprise which had been prepared by the efficient and ingenious commander of the V. F. W. — Colen Garoutte: Mrs. Hicks, instructor of dancing with some of her outstanding pupils assisted by Evelyn Lewis, pianist, gave entertainment which is the first of a series of entertainments to be given throughout the coming winter months.

The costumes were beautiful and bespoke many hours of labor in their preparation. There was tap dancing, a unique military tap dancing, a unique military dance and other performances which would do credit to professionals — all of which calls to mind the fact that we have talent and ability right here in Cottage Grove, which, if appreciated and encouraged will bring gratifying results. This form of entertainment is worthy of emulation in the future.

W. O. M. PLAN INITIATION

Women of the Moose met October 21st in the Moose hall, at which time Grace Luton of the Corvallis chapter, was a guest. The next meeting was announced for November and there will be initiation at this time. Olive Eastburn, library chairman, will be in charge of the chapter night program.

CONSTELLATION CLUB NOV. 4

The home of Betty Rickard will be the meeting place on November 4th for the Constellation club. Eileen Rickard and Mrs. Ray Hilliker will be co-hostesses at the 1:30 meeting.

Pork Gems with Creamed Peas

Broadcast: October 30, 1948

1 lb. ground, lean pork
2 1/2 cup Pet Milk
1/2 cup rolled oats
1/2 teaspoon sage (can omit)
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 medium unpared, red apples
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons shortening

Turn on oven; set at slow (325° F.). Grease 8 three-inch muffin or custard cups. Mix together pork, milk, oats, sage, salt and pepper. Pack into greased cups. Bake 45 minutes, or until brown. Remove cores from apples; cut each apple into 4 slices. Dip both sides of apple rings in sugar. Cook until brown in hot shortening. Remove meat from cups and top with the apples. Fill centers of apple rings with cooked raisins or tart jelly. Serve with creamed peas. Makes 4 servings.
