DORENA GRANGE

THANKSGIVING SUPPER
Dorena Grange had a Thanksgiving potluck supper preceding their regular meeting on Thursday, November 18th.

First and second degree obligations were given to Dean Snauer by Mary Arne.

The agricultural committee announced that there will be an election of Triple A committeemen December 7 at the Cottage Grove city hall.

The next serving committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Ponton, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomson.

The next H. E. meeting will be at Mrs. Thomson's. It will be the Christmas meeting and each lady coming is to bring a gift not exceeding fifty cents to be put under the tree. The meeting will also be election of H. E. C. officers for the coming year.

The youth group reported having a nice time at their last meeting which was held at Kelly's. The next meeting will be at the home of Billie Jo LeCompte. The youth group will have a baked food sale in Cottage Grove the second Saturday in December and will appreciate having donations for it. The youth group is also taking orders for Christmas cards, birthday cards, napkins, etc.

Theres Hewes resigned from her new office as secretary and Dolah Plaisted was re-elected.

It was decided to hire Philip Lake and Claude Arne to start building on the new grange hall. They will start right away and will need volunteer help.

The literary program consisted of group singing and musical mixers and marches.

LUNCHEON BY DORCAS CIRCLE

The losing members in the recent experience social of the Dorcas Circle of the Baptist church treated the winners to a luncheon Wednesday held in the church. A business meeting and program followed with Mrs. Baker in charge of the devotionals. Dr. Frank Matthews gave a humorous poem and Mrs. Salem Magnusson sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Read.

Plans were made to hold a bazaar and food sale December 11 at Short's Grocery. The proceeds from the sale will go on the purchase of a new gas stove for the parsonage.

BAZAAR AND FOOD SALE

Members of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid will hold a bazaar and cooked food sale December 4th at Short's Grocery.

Golden Wedding Observed November 20th

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schaefer of 1241 East Jefferson street celebrated their golden wedding last Saturday night, November 20, at their home, when their three sons and their wives, and their many friends gathered to help make the occasion a happy one. The rooms were beautifully decorated with several baskets of gold and white flowers, and the four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a wedding bell. A fruit cake decorated with gold and white was sent by a friend from Seattle. The cakes with ice cream and coffee were served the guests. The honor guests were showered with many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer were married November 17, 1898 in Seattle, where they resided until coming to Cottage Grove 27 years ago. Their three children were born in Seattle. While living in Seattle Mr. Schaefer was employed as a brick maker. He is now retired. They are members of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Schaefer was born at Free-lands, Indiana 83 years ago. Mrs. Schaefer is 71 and was born at Alexander, Minnesota.

Those present for the event were their three sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Schaefer, all of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schaefer of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr., Ivona and Billy, Mrs. Julia Powell, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton, Rev. and Mrs. D. Hugh Peniston and Gary, Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Shivers, Mr. and Mrs. Arnes, Mr. and Mrs. De-Jarnett, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bal- low of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Trembley and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coiner.

LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS CHRISTMAS CHEER

The American Legion Auxiliary met in the IOOF hall Monday evening with a good attendance. Secretary Jean Bishop reported that the dues are coming in nicely.

The unit voted to send a contribution to the Christmas cheer fund for both the Veterans Hospital and Child Welfare Center. Mrs. Vinal Randall Sr. was appointed to purchase and send gifts for the Auxiliary Gift Shop. This room and service is offered by the Auxiliary to the patients in the hospital. From the gifts sent in the veteran may select suitable ones for the members of his family at no cost to him. The packages are then wrapped and mailed by the Auxiliary's volunteer workers in the hospital.

Plans were completed for the Christmas dinner and program which will be held in the dining room of the IOOF hall on December 13th. It is hoped there will be a good attendance.

STORK SHOWER FOR MRS. HARRIS

Mrs. Dale Harris was honored with a stork shower Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. "Buck" Perry with Mrs. Gordon Grable as co-hostess. The afternoon was spent opening the many gifts which had been placed under an umbrella beautifully decorated with pink and blue. At the close of the afternoon, refreshments were served to Mmes. Dorothea Wolfard, Haumont, Julia Prescott, Caroline Schultz, Pedroni, Mack Tonoli, Bill Miller, Dan Vlock, Andrew Fix, Wayne Gates, Frank McHughill, Ben Absher, Herschel Tracy, Max McGuire, Lester Yearous, Nels Mattson, John Schmitt, Pearl Burnell, R. M. Williams, Ralph Geer, S. P. Radtke, George Johnson, Jess Forrester, Curt Plunket, B. C. Shattuck, Frank McCullough, "Buddy" Gatewood, Richard, Miss Goldie Hayes and Miss Marion Williams.

Those unable to attend but who sent gifts were Mmes.: D. R. Wittekind, Harris, Blake, Z. A. Coop, Effie Hoopes and Jack Isaacs.

CHRISTMAS PARTY AND TURKEY DINNER

The Constellation club Christmas party with gift exchange not to exceed 50 cents will be held in the Masonic temple December 2nd at 12:30 o'clock with a turkey potluck dinner. The expense of the turkey will come out of the birthday fund. Hostesses for the Christmas party will be Mrs. T. C. Wheeler, Mrs. Jack Dillon and Mrs. William Williams.

COUPLE WED AT CRESWELL

The wedding of J. E. Redford of Cottage Grove and Olive E. Parsons of Creswell took place Sunday afternoon, November 21st, at the country home of R. Clair Parsons, Creswell. The Rev. Ed Powell officiated before a few intimate friends.

The bridegroom has been a resident of Lane county and vicinity of Cottage Grove his entire life.

Mrs. Redford has been a resident of Creswell since childhood with the exception of a few years spent in Eugene and Newport.

They will make their home in Cottage Grove.

SHOWER FOR YOUNG MATRON

Mrs. C. C. Cruson and Mrs. Robert Mills entertained Saturday night complimenting Mrs. Michael VanderKley at a pink and blue shower at the Mills home. An umbrella attractively covered with pink crepe paper ruffles hanging from the ceiling, concealed the many lovely and dainty gifts for the honoree. Twenty guests were present to enjoy the evening of appropriate games, including the guessing of baby pictures of those present. The centerpiece on the refreshment table was in keeping with the occasion, a miniature Mike and Pat wheeling a tiny baby buggy on a bed of chrysanthemums. The guests were served sandwiches, coffee and tea, at the close of the evening.

REGULAR MONTHLY MEET

The Past Noble Grands club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon in the IOOF hall with 16 members present. Following a short business meeting and social afternoon, the committee, Minnie Willits, Leta Stewart, Vina Smith and Addie Veatch, served refreshments.

On December 9th the club will meet for the Christmas party and no-hostess covered dish dinner.

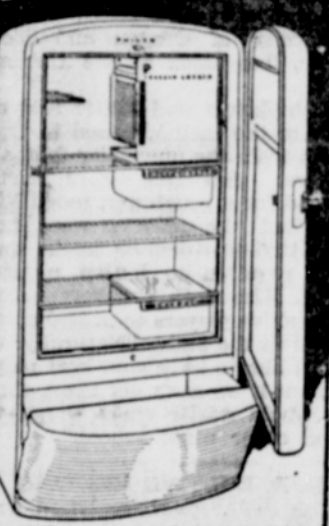

MRS. BRADFORD HOSTESS

Mrs. Frank Bradford was hostess to the Ad Libitum club Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent socially, and the hostess served refreshments to the members and one guest, Mrs. Lee Duffy. Flowers were sent to their Akersblade, who is ill.

The December meeting will be a turkey dinner and Christmas party with gift exchange at the home of Mrs. P. C. Christensen.

PRESBYTERIAN AID COVERED DISH LUNCHEON

The losing side in the recent experience social of the Presbyterian church were hosts at a covered dish luncheon to the winners on Wednesday of last week. At the business meeting which followed, Mrs. Roy Short, president, was in charge. Mrs. Bird Rickard led the devotional service. A bazaar and cooked food sale were planned for December 4th at Short's Grocery.

The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Short with Mrs. R. S. Drenner and Mrs. Minnie Willits as co-hostesses.

DORENA SCHOOL CLUB MEETS FRIDAY

The regular meeting of the Dorena school club was held Friday at the Dorena grade school. Forty two members answered the roll call and in addition a number of visitors were present. The program was enjoyed and the pie social was a financial success and netted the sum of $102.00. The proceeds from the pie social will be used to purchase an electric mixer and other equipment for the kitchen.

The next regular school club meeting will be held Friday, December 10th with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shoberg serving on the entertainment committee and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wicks and Mrs. U. S. Bales on the serving committee. New members and visitors are always welcome.

MADRECITUS CLUB

The Madrecitus club of Eugene was entertained by Mrs. R. L. Sedergren at a noon luncheon Tuesday which was followed by an afternoon of bridge. The Thanksgiving motif was carried out in the decorations, using copper flower pots, paper mache turkeys and green tapers on her luncheon table. Three tables of bridge were at play during the afternoon.

"FOODS" ROLL CALL TOPIC

"Foods" was the roll call topic Tuesday evening at the meeting of the members of the Research club which was held in the city library. The book reported on was "How to Stop Worrying and Start Living," written by Dale Carnegie, and reviewed by Mrs. Ida Williams.

Thanksgiving.....

... is a purely American institution and one of the best we have. It represents freedom and security, the two main essentials of living.

God grant that we may always be able to retain this day and its meaning!
