Isabelle Gates and Jack Dillion Head Eastern Star

Isabelle Gates and Jack Dillion will head the local chapter of Eastern Star as worthy matron and worthy patron for the coming year as the result of the election of officers held Friday night at the Masonic temple. Working with the worthy matron and worthy patron as officers will be: associate matron, Ruth Thompson; associate patron, Wolff Allen; secretary, Miss Eunice VanDenberg; treasurer, Barbara Hill; conductress, Aileen Rickard; associate conductress, Elsa Hickok.
Appointive officers will be announced later, and installation of officers will be held at a special meeting, January 4th.
Reports of visits to other chapters were given and invitations to visit various lodges were read.
Several lovely gifts were presented to the officers during the evening. Worthy matron, Ruth Smith, instructed Matt Smith to escort his mother, Mrs. Grace Smith, to the East, where she was honored and presented a gift by Ruth Smith. Matt Smith presented his wife, Ruth Smith, with a beautiful diamond set Eastern Star ring. Grace Smith presented her son, Matt Smith, to the worthy matron and worthy patron, who presented him with a gift. Earl Hill was also remembered with a gift from the chapter in appreciation for his assistance during the year, the presentation being made by the worthy patron, George Witters.
The officers honored the retiring worthy matron and worthy patron with an impressive candlelight agenda, "Sacred Trust to Fidelity," and gave them gifts.
Refreshments were served at the close of the evening with Mildred Taylor as chairman of the committee.

CHEER UP CIRCLE IN TWO MEETINGS

The Cheer Up Circle met with Miss Grace Bennett on December 7th and had the usual devotional program with the singing of a number of hymns. Last Tuesday the circle met at the homes of G. Ross and Chas. Hosman. In addition to the devotional program the group sang a number of Christmas songs.

LADIES AUX. F. O. E.

The ladies Auxiliary of the F. O. E. met December 7th in the Eagles hall. At this time initiation was held for Laverna Pitcher and Edna Pitcher. The Brownie Troop No. 140, which the Auxiliary sponsors, was present and the Madam president presented the troop with a flag in honor of their first birthday. Lou Hart took pictures of the presentation. The troop rendered two songs for the Auxiliary. The next meeting will be the Christmas party on December 21st.

AMERICAN LEGION AND AUX. CHRISTMAS PARTY

Monday evening members of the American Legion, the Auxiliary and their families gathered at the IOOF hall for their annual Christmas party. About 200 were seated to partake of a delicious turkey dinner with all the fixins.
After dinner a short program was given under the direction of Mrs. Robert Nelson which included a trio "Long, Long Ago," Ivona Randall at the piano, Billy Randall on base horn and Donald Heck, clarinet; "Christmas of Long Ago," a reading by Joe Miller; piano solo, by Charles Coston; recitation, "The Night Before Christmas," by Billy Coston; solo, "Silent Night," Margaret Thompson; group singing of Christmas carols, accompanied by Mrs. Merlin Bullard on the piano and Merlin Bullard on the trumpet; duet, "Jingle Bells," Ivona Randall at the piano and Billy Randall on the horn.
Santa Claus himself made his appearance during the playing of the final number of the program and furnished much pleasure to the younger guests. Each child present was given a treat by Santa after he had heard their requests.
Next meeting of the two groups will be December 27th at which time it is hoped the membership quotas will have been reached.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ELECT

At the meeting of the Royal Neighbors Tuesday evening Fern Anderson was elected Oracle, and will be head officer for the group for the coming term. Those elected to assist her as officers are: vice oracle, Agnes Tremblay; chancellor, Emma Tremblay; recorder, Edna Burleson; receiver, June Bird; marshal, Mable Funk; inner sentinel, Julia Prescott; outer sentinel, Mary Duffy; manager for three years, Hazel Melzer; musician, Nellie Blackmore; installing officer, Elsie DeYoung; special auditor, Inez Hoyt.
Cora Teeters, a charter member, was present and given the grand honors. A program followed the election of officers, consisting of group singing of Christmas carols; a song by the Keene sisters and readings by Carol and Mona Funk.
A Christmas gift exchange was held for both the adults and juveniles, and refreshments were served by the committee, Georgetown Funk, Cora Berger, Mable Funk and Agnes Henderer. Decorations were symbolic of the Christmas season.

SIX CANDIDATES INITIATED

The Order of Rainbow for Girls held initiation for six candidates, Barbara Buckles, Carmen Grewe, Frieda Swartz, Lavonne Huggahl, Rowena Miller and Barbara Laird at their regular meeting Monday night in the Masonic temple. Each candidate was presented a corsage from the Order.
The Rainbow winter formal was planned at this time for Wednesday evening, December 29th, for Rainbow Girls and their friends, and will be held at the Masonic hall. They also planned a Christmas basket for a needy family.

GOWDYVILLE CLUB

CHRISTMAS POTLUCK DINNER

Sunday night the members of the Young Adult group of the Methodist church with their families gathered in the church dining room for a Christmas potluck dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks in charge. A colorful decorated Christmas tree was laden with gifts for the children.
The program closed with the recording of the Christmas story, "The Star." Special guests were the Rev. Mrs. Charles Brown and W. E. Brown, both of Portland.
Following the program the choir adjourned to the auditorium where they practiced for the Christmas cantata, "Carols of Christmas," to be presented Sunday night, December 19th.

The birth of the Dionne quintuplets was one of the most publicized events in the 1930's.

SOCIAL TWELVE PARTY

The Social Twelve club met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hemenway for the annual Christmas dinner and gift exchange. Mrs. Hemenway was assisted by Mrs. R. S. Drenner and Mrs. Ernest Christensen of Eugene. Beautiful Christmas decorations adorned the rooms of Mrs. Hemenway, and the dining table was centered with Christmas berries flanked by red tapers in wooden candlesticks made by R. S. Drenner. Place cards had crocheted sachets attached to them, made by Mrs. Christensen. The brightly decorated Christmas tree was laden with gifts for the exchange.

A short business meeting followed the dinner, and a Christmas program was enjoyed by the group, who sang Christmas Carols, played by Mrs. Bessie Sutcliffe; a beautiful Christmas story was read by Mrs. Charles Adams of Eugene and Mrs. Paul Means of Eugene sang two solos. Guests of the club were Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Paul Means of Eugene and Mrs. Frank McFarland of Cottage Grove.
The January meeting will be with Mrs. Maude Wright.
