DORIS BASSETT BRIDE OF JOHN WELDEN

At a quiet impressive ceremony at the Methodist parsonage Tuesday, December 28, Miss Doris Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bassett, became the bride of John Craig Welden, son of M. V. Welden, all of Cottage Grove. The ceremony was read by the Rev. Frank Brown, pastor of the First Methodist church before the parents of the bride and the father of the groom.

The bride wore a suit of royal blue, white hat and other accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bride's attendant was Miss Lois Welden, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a suit of grey with black accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Kenneth Lovegren acted as best man for Mr. Welden.

The couple left immediately by plane for San Francisco, and on their return will make their home in Cottage Grove, where they are both employed.

BETROTHALS ANNOUNCED OF BROTHER AND SISTER

At a home gathering of relatives and friends the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Connor of Walker the engagements of their daughter Juanita and son Donald were announced. The former is announcing her engagement to Ben Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Johnson, of Cottage Grove. Miss Audrey Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ely of Eugene, is engaged to Donald Connor. No date has been set for either wedding.

Miss Clark is a former student at Eugene high school and Mr. Connor attended the local high school before entering the Navy. Miss Connor graduated from the local high school last spring and is now attending Eugene Business College. Her fiancé is a senior in the local high school.

AUXILIARY ELECTS

The United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting Monday night with nominations and election of officers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sherman. A 6:30 potluck supper preceded the meeting.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term: president, Martha Cooley; senior vice president, Lillian Doolittle; chaplain, Bertha Rogers; patriotic instructor, Millie Hodgson, conductress, Ada Oakes; historian, Minnie Sweet; treasurer, Josephine Chapman; secretary, Helen Sherman.

The next meeting will be January 24th at the home of Bertha Rogers at which time officers will be installed with Ada Oakes as installing officer.

GOWDYVILLE SOCIAL CLUB

The Gowdyville Social club met on December 15th with Mrs. Frances Evenson for the Christmas party, with 24 members and 26 children present. Mrs. Haldeman of Eugene was present. Mrs. Hoopes won the prize for the highest score in the Christmas game. Thelma Gates also won a prize, and members exchanged Christmas gifts. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Evenson served salad and sandwiches.

The next meeting will be on January 15th at the home of Mrs. Nels Mattson.

FLYING CLUB PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones entertained the Lynx Flying club at their home with a Christmas party. The members exchanged gifts and enjoyed a social evening after which the hosts served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gatewood will entertain the group at a New Year's watch party Friday night.

COUPLE EXCHANGE VOWS AT CHURCH RITES

Miss Dorothy Lee Sugg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Sugg, of Cottage Grove became the bride of Donald Verne Clark, son of Mrs. George Marquardt of Cottage Grove and Irwin Clark of Springfield, on Sunday, December 19th at one-thirty o'clock in the First Methodist church with the pastor, the Rev. Frank Brown, reading the ceremony. Tall baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride was attired in a grey suit with black accessories and wore a purple orchid corsage. Her maid of honor, Miss Rose Underwood, wore a wine suit with black accessories and gardenia corsage.

Ronald Leathers was best man. The bride's mother wore a green dress with a gardenia corsage and the groom's mother chose a blue dress with red rosebuds for a corsage.

Only the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom attended the wedding.

A reception followed at the home of the groom's mother. Mrs. Donald Massey poured. Assisting in serving were Selma and Mary Sugg, sisters of the bride. The bride's table was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. A bowl of pink and white carnations and chrysanthemums and pink and white tapers completed the table decorations.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 1338 Quincy avenue.

The bride graduated from the local high school and is employed at the Safeway Store. Mr. Clark graduated from the high school in 1947 and is a sophomore at the University of Oregon, and employed part time at Safeway.

MISS JANE BEIDLER ATTENDING USCC MEETING

Miss Jane Beidler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beidler, was chosen to represent Westminister House as a Presbyterian at Oregon State College at the United Students Christian Council conference being held in Lawrence, Kansas from December 27 to January 1.

The USCC represents the student Christian movement in our country and will be a meeting of 2,000 students and 200 leaders from 15 national student Christian movements. The theme of the conference, which is interdenominational, is "World Churchmanship—1949."

Several young people from Oregon are attending this conference. The group left Portland Christmas night in a special car on the City of Portland.

Miss Beidler is a sophomore at Oregon State.

PENISTONS ENTERTAIN SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

The Rev. and Mrs. D. Hugh Peniston entertained the Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school at the annual Christmas party. Twelve members were present for the short business meeting led by the president, Miss Stella Adams, which was followed by a social afternoon and gift exchange, and the serving of delicious refreshments by the hosts.

N. OF W. CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. J. P. Graham was hostess to the member of the Neighbors of Woodcraft at a dessert course and Christmas party in rooms brightly decorated for the Christmas holidays. Featuring the evening's entertainment was the Christmas gift exchange. Edna Burleson was a special guest of the evening. The next regular meeting of the Circle will be Tuesday evening, January 4th.

REGULAR MEETING OES

The regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star Friday night was presided over by the newly elected worthy matron, Isabelle Gates. It was announced that the public installation service for the officers will be held at a special meeting on January 4th with the grand worthy matron and grand worthy patron acting as installing officers.

MRS. HAGEN PRESENTS PUPILS IN RECITAL

Mrs. H. A. Hagen's piano class had a student recital and Christmas party at her home Tuesday afternoon, December 28th. Each pupil played two selections and gave short talks about the composers and numbers that were played. Sandra Carlson gave a report on the history of the Vienna Choir Boys and Mrs. Hagen played two of their recordings. A study of Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony was made with the class listening to the records.

Three of Mrs. Hagen's former students, now majoring in music at college, played for the group and told of their work in school. They were Betty Bagley and W. C. Martin Jr., from the University of Oregon, and Abigail Trask, student at Lewis and Clark college.

Those playing in the recital were: Ivona Randall, Wayne Daley, Darrell Woodson, Gene White, Jimmy McClarnan, Suzanne Stewart, Joanne Kuhl, Linda Carlson, Jeanne Voss, Joey McClarnan, Virginia Grab, Gail Forrester, Charles Coston, Yvonna Chaffee, Margaret Wulff, Jerry Dyksterhuis, LaVelle Schilling, Roberta Rickard, Joan White, Sandra Carlson, Shirley Witters, Alfred Wulff, Enid Ann LaBlue, Cathryn Clark, Barbara Gleason, Lorraine Robertson and Betty Dyksterhuis.

Miss Marjorie Colner, another former pupil of Mrs. Hagen, who is attending Eastern Oregon College of Education at LaGrande, was also a guest.

GIRL SCOUTS AND BROWNIES ENTERTAINED

During the pre-Christmas days all of the Brownie and Girl Scout Troops had Christmas parties and birthday parties and the holidays were climaxed by a roller-skating party on Tuesday afternoon for the Brownies and on Wednesday afternoon for Intermediate Girl Scouts. Our thanks go to Mr. Sweigart at the armory for the use of his roller skates and letting the girls have this party.

Lady Baltimore Pie

Broadcast: January 1, 1949

1 cup Graham cracker crumbs
3 tablespoons melted shortening
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar

1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup Fat Milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup seedless raisins
1/2 cup cut-up Marshmallow cherries
3/4 cup chopped nuts

Mix crumbs with shortening. Press 1/4 cup of mixture on bottom and sides of greased deep 9-inch pie pan. Chill. Soften gelatin in 1/4 cup water. Mix slightly beaten egg yolks, sugar, salt, milk and remaining 1/2 cup water. Cook and stir over boiling water until slightly thickened. Stir in gelatin; remove from heat. Add vanilla. Chill until slightly thicker than unbeaten egg whites. Add raisins, cherries and nuts. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Put into crumb crust. Top with remaining 1/4 cup crumbs. Chill until firm.
