

CRESWELL

Creswell Grange Meets

Creswell Grange met Thursday evening with the new officers in the chairs. Joseph Guth was inducted in the first and second degrees and Clarence Jackson, the new master, announced the following committee chairman: legislative, Frank DeBerry; resolutions, Mrs. R. E. Wright; finance, E. W. Tolben; building, A. E. Elmer; ways and means, F. A. Clack; courtesy, Mrs. G. R. Miller; relief, Mrs. Van Grousebeck; youth, Miss Margaret Vaughan. Greetings were read from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardiner, now living in Los Angeles, and C. O. Hewitt from Portland. The change in method of electing state Grange officers was discussed and referred to the resolutions committee. A past masters pin was presented to E. E. Allen, the retiring master, and 25 year pins to Mrs. David Francis, Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Van Grousebeck and Mrs. C. I. Kent. For the program everybody sang carols. H. S. Joslin played several violin solos; Danny Grousebeck said "The Night Before Christmas." A large flower basket was presented to the Grange from George Stratton in memory of his wife, Mrs. Esther Stratton, who recently passed away. Games were played and gifts distributed by Santa Claus.

The young people of the Methodist church will hold a watch party at the annex New Year's Eve. Miss Elizabeth Ann Miller, Warren DeLaVergne and Miss Betty Tiedje are in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Beitel and daughter of La Jolla, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Howard of Tulare, Calif., and Sergeant and Mrs. C. L. Wyble and son of Harrisburg are guests at the Charles Wyble home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tolben are spending the holidays visiting in California.

A theatre full of children enjoyed the free show as guests of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Friday night at the Star Theatre. Treats were given out following the show.

Cora's Beauty Parlor will be closed between Dec. 23 and Jan. 10 while the operator, Mrs. John Mullin, enjoys a vacation in California with her husband.

Mrs. R. M. Carpenter entertained her group of Girl Scouts at a party at her home Tuesday afternoon. The girls presented Mrs. Carpenter with a lovely gift and she in turn remembered each of the girls. Treats were served around the lighted tree.

The grade school gymnasium was completely filled with parents and friends of the children for their program Wednesday evening. Clever dances, songs and other entertainment were features of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hollemon and family spent Christmas with relatives in Salem.

Christmas guests at the R. C. Bruce home were Claude Roneau of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Walker of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ival S. Wilson and sons spent Christmas in Portland with their daughter, Donna.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coleman and son of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Silvis, Jr. and son of Corvallis are visiting with the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Traxler.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kelly and family of North Dakota are spending several months with the Art Mogstad and Ted Mogstad families.

Mrs. Cecil Rhodes underwent major surgery at a Eugene hospital Monday but returned home in time for Christmas.

Three new offering plates were presented to the Methodist church Sunday. One was donated by the choir, one was dedicated in memory of Mrs. Martha Milligan, and one in memory of Mrs. B. A. Land. The annual Christmas march and contribution to the church by everyone was held.

Mrs. Irma Ogram and Mrs. Dora Martin entertained the choir of the Methodist church at the Ogram home Tuesday evening. Games were played and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell and children spent Sunday at Yoncalla visiting with the R. E. Hoagland family.

Mrs. Loren Westrope was elected president, Mrs. Bob Sellers, vice-president and Mrs. Ted Mogstad secretary-treasurer at EL club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Dean Eustad. The group voted $5 toward the sprinkling fund for the IOOF home in Portland. The group will serve the Lions Club dinners during January with Mrs. D. A. Whitney and Mrs. Norman Skaggs in charge of the first dinner and Mrs. Westrope and Mrs. R. M. Carpenter in charge of the second.

The Home Economics Club held their Christmas party at the Grange hall Tuesday with Mrs. Fanny Gaudin and Mrs. Genevieve McCarrison as guests. Pollyanna were drawn. New officers were installed by Mrs. E. E. Allen as installing officer. Mrs. F. E. Vick was installed as chairman; Mrs. Al Viking as vice-chairman; Mrs. J. W. Smith as secretary; and Mrs. C. I. Kent as treasurer. It was reported that the club had turned $357.46 over to the Grange during the past year. The club presented

Mrs. Allen, the retiring chairman, with a gift.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars repaired a box of toys and presented them to a nearby family in Creswell this week.

Miss Margaret Vaughan and Joseph Guth announced their engagement in a novel way Thursday evening following Grange of which they are both active members in the Youth group. The glad news was concealed in walnut shells.

Formal installation ceremonies for Creswell Masonic and Eastern Star lodges were held at the Cottage Grove Masonic hall Saturday evening with Matt Smith, past master of Cottage Grove Masons acting as installing master for the Masons and Littleton Lasater, also of Cottage Grove, acting as installing marshal. Roy Henry was installed as Worshipful Master; L. A. Whitney as senior warden; R. M. Carpenter, junior warden; Barney Doyle, secretary; V. W. Johnston, treasurer; Harry Brown, senior deacon; Marvin Kerr, junior deacon; Eldon Shields, senior steward; Leonard Young, junior steward; Frank DeBerry, marshal; and Bert Thompson, tyler.

Mrs. Carl Leabo was installing matron for the Eastern Star; Mrs. Lloyd Aldrich, installing marshal; Mrs. Walter Reese, installing chaplain; Mrs. J. L. Scott, escorting marshal; and Miss Joyce Everson, musician. Mrs. H. H. Dersham was installed as worthy patron; Mrs. Sherman Gibson, associate matron; Sherman Gibson, associate patron; Mrs. Ralph Rogers, treasurer; Mrs. J. L. Scott, conductress; Mrs. E. A. Green, associate conductress; Mrs. Miles Wicks, chaplain; Mrs. Barney Doyle, marshal; Mrs. Thomas Graham, organist; Mrs. Lester Whitney, Adah; Mrs. Roy Henry, Ruth; Mrs. Lucille Kinnamon, Esther; Mrs. R. M. Carpenter, Martha; Mrs. V. W. Johnston, Electa; Mrs. Marvin Kerr, warden; Lynn Scott, sentinel. Mrs. W. C. Spencer, secretary-elect was unable to be present for installation.

Sherman Godard of Cottage Grove presented each order with a gavel which he personally carved. The Masons was made of myrtlewood and black walnut and Eastern Star's was made of yew wood and black walnut. Both orders had lost their gavels in the October fire which destroyed their hall. A program consisting of vocal solos by Miss Elaine Sartell and a reading by Mrs. Janice Strackbein, was presented.
