'Voice of the Deep' To Be Presented At Baptist Church January 11th

Discovery that the "silent deep" is not silent after all forms the basis for a scientific color film, "Voice of the Deep," to be shown at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday (Jan. 11), in the First Baptist Church, 5th and Jefferson, according to the Rev. F. Sidney Shinnall, pastor of the church.

Contrary to the age-old belief that there is no sound under the sea, "Voice of the Deep" reveals that fish have a definite language of their own. Their aquatic conversations in the film resemble

The golden text is, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me" (Ps. 51:10).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name; and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake" (Ps. 79:9), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Through repentance, spiritual baptism, and regeneration, mortals put off their material beliefs and false individuality" (p. 242).

Christian Science Society, Cottage Grove, Oregon, 242 Second street holds Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Morning worship at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday evening meetings at 8:00 p.m. (the second Wednesday of each month). Reading room is open Monday through Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

The Westminster Fellowship groups will meet at 5:30. At 7:30 there will be a meeting of all Sunday school teachers at the manse.

On Tuesday at 8 there will be a meeting of all women of the church at the home of Mrs. George Macready, 443 So. 3rd. The Ladies Aid and Westminster Guild will come together at this meeting to form a women's association.

First Methodist Church, Frank E. Brown, minister, 303 Main St., phone 108—"The Prophet Amos" will be the sermon topic for this coming Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock worship hour, as the pastor presents the first sermon in a series on the Old Testament prophets and their relationship to the modern world. The senior choir will sing at this service which follows the Sunday school hour held at 9:45. Youth activities for the Sunday evening hour begin at six o'clock with groups for both junior and senior high age levels. The Methodist Fellowship will have its first meeting this coming Sunday evening at 7:30 when the Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray, of Denver, Colorado, will lead a discussion group on the United World Federalists. The public is urged to attend these meetings on Sunday evening and enjoy this new and interesting type of Sunday evening meeting.

First Baptist Church, 5th and Jefferson Avenue, Cottage Grove, F. Sidney Shinnall, minister; Mrs. Roy Reed, director of music; Mrs. Charles Parrett, supt. — The regular session of the church school is at 9:45 a.m. each Sunday morning.
