

FLUFF-DRI CLOTHES

Fresh - as a Daisy
in minutes—not hours!

Think of the extra pep you'd have—the hours you'd save—if you never had to hang out another wash—if you could dry it all indoors with a Hamilton Automatic Clothes Dryer!

No more struggling with heavy baskets—clotheslines—clothespins! Just put the clothes into your Hamilton, flick the switch and in a matter of minutes your clothes are gently tumbled fluffy-dry and wrinkle-free.

"But wait," you say! "How about the fresh air and sunshine on my clothes and linens? I like that. I want that!"

Madam, good old Science thinks of everything! There's a powerful ultra-violet Sun-E-Day lamp in your Hamilton. It sanitizes your clothes and sweetly freshens them with genuine sunshine-and-breeze ozone. They smell like the breath of Spring.

How about that? How about dropping in for a free demonstration?

Isabelle Gates Is Installed W. M. Of Local O. E. S.

Highlighting recent social functions was the lovely formal installation service at a special meeting of the Order of Eastern Star Tuesday night in Masonic temple at which time Isabelle Gates was installed as worthy matron and Jack Dillon as worthy patron. Others installed to serve with the head officers were: Ruth Thompson, associate matron; Wolff Allen, associate patron; Eunice VanDenburg, secretary; Barbara Hill, treasurer; Aileen Rickard, conductress; Elsie Hickok, associate conductress; Ollie Dillon, chaplain; Louise Hansen, marshal; Maude Allen, organist; Eleanor Wolfard, A. D. M.; Augusta Beck, Ruth; Juanita Woodson, Esther; Genevieve Nelson, Martha; Margaret Lasater, Electa; Edith Long, warder; Edgar Rickard, sentinel; courtesy girls, Della Anderson, Emma Porter, Vesta Wheeler, Alma Porterfield, Bessie Radtke and Hilda Sayles.

Committees appointed for the year are as follows: Finance, Ruth Thompson, George Witters, Lenora Liston; examining, Maude Wheeler, Earl Hill, Berdie Durham; instruction, Sherman Godard, Harriet Horn, Faye McLaughlin; visiting and relief, Ollie Dillon, Leona Veatch, Marie Malcom, Vesta Wheeler, Naomi Witters; refreshment, Twila Stewart, Donna Allen, Ida Williams, Jennie Beidler; decorating, Lois Mills, Geneva Ballou, Faye Bozell; house, Louis Caldwell, Jessie Matthews, Elizabeth Mills; entertainment, Ethel Akerblade, Opal Wagner, Audrey Ponton, Betty Rickard, Thelma Gates; committee to select Rainbow board, Charles Akerblade, Ruth Thompson, Betty Rickard; publicity, Anna Graham.

Installing officers were: Ilma Thum, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon, and Rex Hartley of Jefferson, worthy grand patron. Additional installing grand officers were Gladys Hall, installing grand marshal; Helen Roberts, installing grand secretary; Ruth Randall, installing grand marshal and Arlene Anderson, installing grand musician.

Approximately 250 members were present for the installation and program, including Esther Hartley of Jefferson, grand marshal, and several from the Eugene chapters. The new worthy matron in her address stated that her theme for the year would be "Harmony". She was presented with a hand made gavel of walnut and Oregon maple, made by S. L. Godard, and presented by Ilma Thum. The officers presented an addendum honoring the newly installed worthy matron. Ruth Smith, the retiring worthy matron, was the author of the addendum. Alexander Hergert entertained the group with two vocal numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Hergert. The rooms were gaily decorated with poinsettias and greenery. Jack Dillon, incoming worthy patron, and George Witters, retiring worthy patron, were presented gifts.

Refreshments were served in the dining room with Helen Dillman as chairman of the committee. Decorations were in keeping with the days of '49, including favors of miniature gold bricks with larger ones in the center of the table. Also centering the table was a miniature stamp mill with an old '49'er panning gold in the creek by the mill. The late Andy Nelson, father of Ray, constructed the mill in 1935.

Initiation was announced for the next meeting, January 14.

It was announced the Willamette Valley Matron and Patron Association will meet in the Masonic temple January 13.

MRS. GRACE COWAN NOW MRS. HAROLD SKINNER
Mrs. Grace Cowan of Cottage Grove and Harold W. Skinner of Eugene were united in marriage Thursday evening, December 30, at eight o'clock at the First Methodist church in Eugene. The Rev. L. O. Griffith, pastor of the church, officiated. The bride is the daughter of J. W. Adams of Yoncalla and the groom is the son of Mrs. Emma Skinner of Eugene.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jean Cowan of Yoncalla. Also attending the ceremony were Mrs. Mignon Carmichael, Miss Lorene Burt and Harold Skinner Jr.

The bride wore a suit of grey with black accessories and corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.
