PRESBYTERIAN AID

Probably the last meeting of what is now the Presbyterian Aid was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Roy Short. This group is being united into the Women's Association which is being organized under one head and will include all of the women's organizations of the church. Mrs. J. P. Graham presented the devotional service on "New Years Resolutions," which was followed by group singing, accompanied by Mrs. O. W. Blackmore.

The present Aid was organized 58 years ago, and there are now just three charter members left, Mrs. Eva Holderman, Mrs. Herbert Eakin and Mrs. J. P. Graham, the latter two being present at the meeting.

The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the meeting.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

The Women of the Moose met January 6th with Juanita Goodrich, child care committee chairman, in charge of the chapter nite program. Louise Walther played a number of selections on her accordion.

The next meeting will be January 20th which will be a dinner preceding the meeting. The committee in charge will be Ruth Smell, Maxine Partney, and Alta Cook.

MRS. EARL HOSTESS

Mrs. Guy Earl was hostess recently to the members of the LaComus club at a dessert course followed by a social afternoon. An additional guest was Mrs. Earl Wiese. Next Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Frank Gierau will entertain the club at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Boyce Jr., 1218 Tyler street.

Four generations were represented at the baptismal service on New Years day for three weeks old Nancy Carol Haberman at the home of the baby's great uncle, Carl Brandsness, in Cottage Grove. The Rev. R. E. Gross, pastor of the local Lutheran church, conducted the baptismal service.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY ENTERTAINED

The Baptist Missionary Society was entertained last Wednesday by Mrs. Curtis Hansen and Mrs. Glen Weeldreyer at the home of Mrs. Hansen. In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. C. Martin presided. At this business meeting, Mrs. A. C. Spriggs, White Cross chairman, presented the White Cross quota for the year. Mrs. John McCall was in charge of the reading program and Miss Lena Zendron led the devotions. For the program Mrs. Ida Terveen reviewed part of the book "Called to Cathay."

The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

MRS. DUFFY TO ENTERTAIN
Mrs. Lee Duffy will entertain the Neighbors of Woodcraft at the January social meeting, which will be the 18th.

DORENA GRANGE HOLDS FIRST 1949 MEETING

The first regular meeting of the Dorena Grange during the new year was held January 6.

Third and Fourth Degree obligations were given to Betty Hulse by the Master, Phillip Lake.

Building committee reported they need more lumber for the new hall, but have been unable to obtain it because of the county road load limit due to the freezing weather.

A discussion was held on whether to put on aluminum roofing or composition shingles. The decision was left up to the building committee.

Mary Arne announced her intention to resign from the office of Home Ec. Chairman, and she was elected Lecturer in place of Mary Snauer who resigned at the last meeting.

The officers who were absent from installation held at Creswell December 13 were installed after the meeting by the Master.

The next Youth Group meeting will be held at Sherrills, and the main business will be the planning of the year's work.

LADIES AID MEETS WITH MRS. ARP

The Ladies' Aid of the Trinity Lutheran Church held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Arp, with Mrs. John Bauder and Mrs. Richard Dixon as hostesses. Business was transacted by the newly elected officers who are: Mrs. A. Strohmaier, president; Mrs. C. Drew, vice president; Mrs. C. Brandsness, secretary; Mrs. Henry Arp, treasurer; Mrs. H. Fishell, Christian Knowledge; Mrs. D. Eastburn, Christian Service; and Mrs. R. Gross, Publicity.

During the business meeting a thank you from the Children's Welfare Home in Corvallis was read. The ladies packed a box of toys, games, cookies, and candy for the Lane County boys for Christmas. Two new members were received, making the total membership of the organization twenty-three. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the retiring officers for the splendid work they had done.

Devotions were conducted by Pastor Gross, who also addressed the ladies on Christian Stewardship.

MISS BILLIE CRAIG WEDS FREEMAN BREWER

Miss Billie Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Craig, of Mena, Arkansas, became the bride of Freeman Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brewer, of Cottage Grove, Monday evening, January 3rd, at seven o'clock, in the First Baptist church at Roseburg. The Rev. H. P. Sconce officiated.

The bride wore a gray suit with navy blue accessories, gray hat and a corsage of red rosebuds.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brewer are graduates of the Mena high school in Arkansas. She has been employed at the Union Bank at Mena, and Mr. Brewer is a clerk at the local Safeway Store.

For a wedding trip the couple went to California, and are now at home at 1404 West Main street.
