

LONDON

Thermometers in the community read 6° and 8° above zero Monday morning with one reading of zero at 6 a. m. and a 10° at Blackbutte. The longest and coldest cold weather for a good many years as recalled by the old timers.

Woodard Lumber Co. is reported to be closing down the construction crews this week until better weather. The woods crews have been shut down since before Christmas because of snow in the hills.

London school boys basketball team was winner Saturday 19 to 12, in a game with the Wilson school "Hotrods" at the Golden Ball tournament at McArthur court in Eugene, sponsored by the Eugene Active club. The London boys were accompanied by Robert Wood, principal and "Spud"

Camp. They will play another Eugene, Tuesday evening of four games will win.

London service club regular meeting is this Friday evening 4, 8 p. m. at the school. Officers are especially welcome and bring their best.

Mrs. Riggs underwent an operation at the hospital in Eugene Wednesday. Mr. Riggs has been in staying with relatives.

Dick has been laid up with arthritis in his hip. He is a little better, to be up part time. Neave helped with the chore.

Mrs. Blow of Eugene known there, suffered a bad fall tripped and fell in her tent, receiving bruises. No broken bones.

Word is here that N. S. Hays, fondent, died Dec. 13, at home, Youngstown, New York 78. Mr. Hays will be used by many of the older as running the present old Springs hotel, about 25 p. m. is the one who built track south of the building field.

Miss Vay cut her visit short here sister, Mrs. Edith Woodhouse of the continued color and concern for her in Centralia. She was here as of a planned month's visit.

Mrs. Leon (Jaci Morton) is here with two children Jill and Mortie Fowler, Calif., at the honor parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leron, having accompanied in their return from a visit Mr. and Mrs. Johnson any over the holidays.

Marion In, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, attended the sowl game New Years in Pa. Miss Anderson plans to return California and work there.

Ray Anderson spent a week visiting his Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Anderson Sunday for Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Stein and sons, Terry and David, enjoyed Oregon's scenic snow covered scenery on a trip to Drain New Years, to visit a cousin, Will Hardy.

S. T. Clark is driving a new car. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ewing have a new telephone.

Mr. and Mrs. Perl Campbell spent a week visiting relatives in Portland, St. Helens, Castle Rock, Wash. and Mrs. Campbell's mother at Winlock, Wash. They returned Jan. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Henderson of Drain spent Saturday to Monday with Mr. Henderson's mother Mrs. Nora Henderson.

Robert Wood's parents, visiting here from the east, are "looking around," near Albany and Corvallis this week with a view to locating in Oregon.

Roy Easley, Ralph Gilham and Jack Long enjoyed some good sledding, on Carl Small's hill, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Beatty returned Sunday from over a month's visit to Oklahoma and California to find Oregon with the worst weather they'd encountered. They reported California cold, cold for California that is.

London 4H Mothers Elect Officers
The first meeting of the new year of London 4H Mothers' Club was held at the club house Jan. 5, beginning at noon with a pot-luck, lap-luncheon, and coffee around the fire. Mrs. Shirley Wood was housekeeper.

Fourteen members and one guest attended the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Marie Stein, president. The secretary, Mrs. Lawana Sugg, reported twenty paid members including three new ones. New housekeeper lists in alphabetical routine are to be made as soon as all members dues are in.

Mrs. Gladys Kelly was appointed to purchase the sheets for a wedding gift to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Banton.

Correspondence was read by Mrs. Sugg from the Cottage Grove Hospital Committee to which the Mothers Club was a generous contributor. A letter was read from the 4H officials inviting a representation to the appreciation banquet pot-luck dinner being held Jan. 18 at Colin Kelly Jr. high school at Bethel. Invitations were for 4H scholarship sponsors, of which the club is one, 4H scholarship winners and their parents. It was undecided who would be able to attend.

A new quilt is to be put in the frames for quilting for Mrs. Dolly Wood, at the next meeting. Also material is to be purchased for the two club quilts, donated by Mrs. Phillips, and to be put together next meeting by those not quilting. When completed these quilts will be sold by the club to club members only.

Pollyanna gifts were received by Mrs. Dolly Wood and Mrs. Lovelle Quigley, both for wedding anniversaries.

Mrs. Nina Shortridge was a guest of the day. Mrs. Edith Woods displayed new additions to her button club collection of Germany, Norway and Sweden brought to her by Mrs. Nina Shortridge on her recent trip.

Election of officers was held by secret ballot. New officers elected were: Mrs. Esther Banton, president; Mrs. Shirley Wood, vice president. Re-elected, Mrs. Lawana Sugg, secretary-treasurer. Next meeting is in two weeks, Jan. 19, and members are to come early to work on the quilts.

DORENA

Lucille Stewart is ill with tonsillitis. Her baby girl is also ill. Mrs. Sherrette is visiting her children in Grants Pass.

Jessie Vining and daughter Phoebe moved back to their home in Gowdyville last week. They have been staying with Mrs. Vining's parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Spahr since the death of her husband.

Remember school club meeting will be Friday evening, January 14, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Elwood Hancock returned home Friday from Counsel, Idaho where he attended the funeral of his uncle, Mel Carlson. His mother, Mrs. Arthur Bales, remained up there to be with her sister for a while.

The Dorena Grange H.E.C. club meeting of Tuesday January 11 was postponed until Tuesday, January 18. The meeting will be with Mrs. Myrtle Lake. Let all those attend who possibly can. Several ladies met and cleaned the hall Monday.

Robert W. Every, O.S.C. extension entomologist, says there are 800,000 known insects in the world that have been classified. That is, 800,000 have been named. Authorities believe, however there are actually between two and three million different insects.

There are 600 hatcheries in Indiana and over 100 million chicks hatched each year in these hatcheries.

IN THE NEWS

Chevrolet's biggest newspaper advertising campaign will use 5,972 dailies and weeklies to announce new models January 22. Dwarling Toni Banish, here's what 5,972 newspapers look like, each representing an individual publication.

DELIGHT VALLEY

The valley school children are having a vacation during this extended cold spell, for it was deemed advisable to close the school for the duration of the extreme weather.

Only a small percentage of valley voters turned out for the first board meeting of the year at the school, presumably, because of inclement weather, but the business at hand was dispensed with as quickly as possible, and after a few minor corrections, the budget for the year was approved.

Guests at the Harve Duer home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mason and children of Cottage Grove.

Burt Garris left on Saturday, again, for Oroville, Calif. where he has secured employment for the most of the winter months.

Mrs. W. F. Norris and son, Paul, were visitors in Mills City, during the past week. Mrs. Norris attended the installation ceremony in which her friend, Mrs. Fern Shuey was installed as worthy matron of the Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart and family of Santa Clara were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Hardenbrook.

Johnny Wynhoff was snowed in at his home in Wilbur, Wash. over the Christmas holiday vacation, and was unable to return to his studies in Creswell until Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reeves and family, of Springfield, were dinner guests at the Wm. F. Norris home on Sunday.

The cold weather has created a new fashion among the new born calves on the McDaniel ranch. They now wear buttons and bows on their little jackets. When Mr. McDaniel found a half frozen, tiny Hereford the other day which measured only 22 inches high and 25 inches long and weighed less than 30 pounds, he brought it to the only logical place, the kitchen. Mrs. McDaniel nursed it back to life and then clothed it in a jacket to protect it from the extreme weather. At last report, calf, bows and all, were doing grand.

The meeting of the Walker Ladies Aid was postponed for this month, because of the bad roads and worse weather.

There have been many conjectures among several of the valley folks concerning their thermometer readings, with the coldest reported at the Sherrills' back door on Monday morning of two above zero, at 7 a. m.

Mr. Bill Moors, who had been stationed at Camp Lee in Virginia for the past year and a half, since his return from Germany, and who now has been mustered out of the army, is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stalder.

DIVIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lee and children moved into their new home Sunday. They built it on the hill on the northeast corner of the West place overlooking the Latham community.

The fire department was called to the Bob Carpenter home Sunday morning. Mr. Carpenter had been thawing out water pipes and turned on his pump before they were all thawed out, causing a short which set fire to the garage. Considerable damage was done to the garage but the fire department arrived in time to save their home.

Word has been received of the marriage of Johnny Lamb in Washington D. C. Johnny has been stationed in Washington D. C. for several months. He is in the navy.

The average broad-breasted bronze turkey will consume about 92 pounds of feed during its growing period of 28 weeks.

MOSBY CREEK

Mrs. Hixon, Landis and Martin were hostesses for a pink and blue shower Tuesday January 4 at the Martin home honoring little David Franklin, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eastburn who was born Christmas day. A delicious lunch was served late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Castle gave a birthday dinner January 5 in honor of her son Leon Lancaster's birthday. Guests were Mrs. Berta McGuire and sons, Melvin and Russell, and Bill Gerrard of Walden.

The thermometer registered 9 degrees here Monday morning with three or four inches of snow frozen on the ground.

Mrs. Ada Overton and Mrs. Frank Bridwell were hostesses to a bridal shower at the Overton home honoring Mrs. Betty Putnam, Olsen of Cottage Grove. Coffee, ice cream and cake were served after Betty had opened her many nice gifts.

Several neighbors and friends gathered for a farewell party Saturday night at the Bryan Carter home as they are leaving this week for California.

The Blue Mt. Camp Cookery club had their third meeting Saturday, January 8, at the home of their leader, Mrs. Lula Bettis of Blue Mt. They spent most of their time making their "hobo toaster," and making ice cream in the snow, and enjoyed a long tramp and play in the snow in the afternoon. In case some are as dumb as your correspondent, a "hobo toaster" is made by punching holes in the bottom of a can or bucket and putting wire across the top. Just set this on a campfire and put the bread on the wire to toast.

Mr. and Mrs. Linden Knight of Bremerton, Wash. were Monday evening callers at the Arnold Duerst home. Mr. Knight is a cousin of Mrs. Duerst. They brought their movie projector and showed pictures of different places they had been and of their family.

There was no school Monday at Blue Mt. as all the pipes were frozen and the coils in the stove in the lunch room had broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cline and children stopped over at the Arnold Duerst home on their way home from a trip east. They visited in Arkansas, New Mexico and with the Everett Duerst family at Midwest City, Oklahoma. The worst weather they had was in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Farber of Portland visited several days last week.

Mrs. Lester Rearrick gave a birthday dinner Thursday evening honoring her nephew Guy Dulle on his tenth birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Danny Dulle and sons Gary and Grant of Knox Hill. After dinner they took the children to a theater party in Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson and daughter Linda have returned from a visit of several months with Mrs. Anderson's folks in Owensboro, Ky.

LYNX HOLLOW

The community club will meet at the teacherage Friday at 2:30 p. m. January 14.

A 4-H health club has been organized at school. The pupils gave the first demonstrations Friday. The first outside project planned is to rid the school yard of poison oak.

Jimmy Kangas has returned from visiting relatives in California. Jimmy had the misfortune to break the forefinger of his right hand last week.

Participating in many thrills and spills while sleighing evenings after school are Jack, Zack and Joe Holbrook, Bruce Lamb, Ben, Edward and Paul Macaulay.

We welcome the L. C. Satter family who has recently moved here from Creswell.

Subscribe to the Sentinel. 20-1tcx

SILK CREEK

Mrs. Verne Thomas and little daughter Kristie, are visiting her sister and family in Woodland, Calif.

George Kentner, who has been in a hospital at Eugene since before Christmas, returned to his home Tuesday afternoon and is convalescing nicely.

Miss Lillian Putnam, of Shasta City, Calif., was an overnight guest at the home of Mrs. Nettie Estes last week.

Alvin Allen has been ill with pleurisy since returning from Eugene hospital and was taken to a physician Tuesday at Cottage Grove for treatment.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas a daughter, Theresa Louise, at Sacred Heart hospital, Eugene, Saturday, January 8th. Mother and child are doing nicely and returned home Wednesday.

The Neighborhood Friendship club will hold the regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Guy Smith, Thursday, January 20. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Clarence Duncan will be hostesses.

David Baker, who spent the holidays with his parents at Moscow, Idaho, returned Tuesday.

Mrs. R. J. Wilson was hostess at an afternoon party at her home Tuesday. Refreshments were served and game diversion enjoyed. Those present were Mrs. Mae Doolittle, Peter Thoreby, W. B. Chaffee, Ida Oveath, Nettie Estes, A. O. Downie, R. E. Poynter, Gertrude Sovers, and the Misses Janet Jones and Dorothy Poynter.

Kenneth Ray, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carlson, who was in a Eugene hospital for nine days with pneumonia, was returned home Sunday. The child was taken back to the hospital Tuesday for a checkup and examination. He showed him suffering from influenza, requiring re-admission to the hospital for further treatment and care.

Mrs. A. B. Cook, who, with her children Jimmie and Mickie, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Halle Cochran, was prevented from returning home by a severe sinus attack and is remaining over pending improvement.

DID YOU KNOW—

George Washington was the first mule owner in the United States, having received several as a gift from Spain while he was president. Mules came into their own during the days of the Santa Fe trail when they were used to pull the wagons. Since the eastern end of the trail was in Missouri, that state soon became known as the "mule state." Today it ranks seventh in mule numbers.

—Subscribe To The Sentinel—

BILLETS FOR 2500

With billets available for 2500 candidates from U. S. colleges and universities, a new officer candidate program; which permits draft exempt college students who are members of the Organized Naval Reserve is being initiated by the Navy.

To be draft exempt the candidates must be veterans or must have been a member of an Organized Reserve unit prior to June 24, 1948.

The first six-week training course will be held in the summer of 1949 at either Newport, Rhode Island, or San Diego, California.

Canned food production in North America amounts to over half a billion cases yearly.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned has been appointed as Administratrix of the Estate of GEORGE JAMES, deceased, by the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County, by an Order dated January 6th, 1949. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same, duly verified, with proper vouchers to the undersigned at the law office of Richard L. Thwing, 34 N. 6th St., Cottage Grove, Oregon, within six months from the date of first publication of this notice. Dated and first published January 13th, 1949. LILLIE V. JAMES, Administratrix. RICHARD L. THWING, Attorney. 23-51-27

Beltone

Hear with Beltone and enjoy sermons, lectures, music, etc.

S. C. Mitchell is a member of the J. N. Taft Association of Portland who have been serving the hard of hearing since 1934. Mr. Mitchell has his Eugene office at 305 IOOF Building, phone 4141.

Regular free Beltone clinics at the Cottage Grove Hotel are planned. Write for the next date. 28-3tc-25

We Prepare Income Taxturns

Also Accept

All Kinds Business Accting

Yours Solicited

STEPHEN ACCOUNTING AND TAX SERVICE

Room 200 Wiser Building
Cottage Grove, Oregon

Office Phone
60

Reside Phone 525
athome 315 R

KEMS for DRUGS

The REXALL Store

Can help you if you have Cough or Cold.

The name REXALL on cough cold needs is your assurance of the pure products . . . products which will bring you pleasant, effective relief from cold discomforts.

- Cherosote Cough Syrup
- Cherry Bark Cough Syrup
- Rexillana Cough Syrup
- Aspiroids Cold Capsules
- Quick-Rub
- Puretest Aspirin Tablets

Let US worry about keeping your fuel oil tank full

HANSEN HEATING OIL CO.

PHONE 84

IN PORTLAND it's the HOTEL WASHINGTON

WITH BATH FROM $2.75
WASHINGTON AT 12TH
IN DOWNTOWN PORTLAND
FLAVEL TEMPLE, Owner-Manager

ROBERTS and DRURY

SHEET METAL - WIRING PLUMBING - HEATING - PHONE 444 2 blocks North of Main on North 9th Street PHONE 444

HI FOLKS!!!

Brrr!!!! How do you like it? Cold, isn't it. Now, we have just what you need during this cold weather. We've been trying hard to get some of these but demand has been heavy, however a shipment of two just came in. What are they? Fur-lined bathtubs and steam heated seats. Both are available. The tubs we have are lined with ermine. However they are available in fox, seal, rabbit or mink. Seats come in all colors as per usual. Claws are removed.

Hurry, hurry, hurry before these special items are snapped up. We also have the regular lines of plumbing fixtures, heating appliances, water heaters that we shall be glad to show you in conjunction with these special items. Until then, we'll be seeing you.

CLIFF AND GEORGE "WE HURRY"