TWO COUPLES MARRIED AT RENO JANUARY 9TH

Four young people of Cottage Grove slipped off to Reno, Nevada over the week end of the 9th and surprised their families and friends by wiring the news of their weddings. The four were married at a double wedding ceremony Sunday night, January 9th, at nine o'clock by A. J. Maestretti, district judge.

Exchanging wedding vows were Miss Betty Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, to Raphael Aubrey, son of Mrs. Eva Aubrey, all of Cottage Grove. The other couple united in marriage was Miss Mona Trembley, daughter of J. A. Trembley, and Clifford Rippy, son of Mrs. C. C. Rippy, all of Cottage Grove.

Both brides were juniors in high school. Mrs. Aubrey attending the local high school and Mrs. Rippy was a junior in a California high school. Both men attended the local high school, and Mr. Aubrey served in the Navy in the recent World War.

Both men are employed by Row River Lumber Company in the woods. Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey and Mr. and Mrs. Rippy are at home at the Jerry-Dell Courts.

TOWNSEND MEETING

Tom Short, president, conducted the business meeting of the Townsend club Monday night. Following the usual business meeting which included a report of the district council meeting in Junction City Sunday by Elmer J. Kent, a program was given with musical numbers by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Griffin, Ed Finnerty, Mrs. Julia Hansen, Tom Miller, Frank Hazen, Mr. and Mrs. Dover and Mr. Lutzke.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

B&PW Club Presents Charter To Drain

Sixty-five members including those of the local Business and Professional Women's club, the Drain club and Mrs. Iva Cowan of the Yoncalla club, Leone Jensen of Eugene, state junior past president, and Helen Chase of Eugene, southwest district director, gathered at the Rainbow Cafe Monday night for a dinner meeting and an evening of much activity.

The dinner was followed by the general routine of business with the president, Adelia Hatch presiding. At this time Helen Chase brought greetings from the state to the members present. The meeting opened with the group giving allegiance to the flag, led by Lottie Lee Lamb, and repeating the club collect, led by Edna Burleson. New members introduced were Dr. Cora Stockfleth, Cathryn Jack, Marjorie Pinkham and Dorothy Schaffner.

The three recent brides, Grace Cowan Skinner, Donalene Hastie Hemenway and Margaret Leum Campbell were introduced and presented with corsages from the club and Lorraine Ness honored the three by singing "Will You Remember," from Maytime, by Romberg, accompanied by Ruth Stewart Caldwell.

Eleanor Fleming, chairman for the women's groups for the polo drive made an announcement concerning the campaign and a collection was taken for this cause, which netted $12.00.

At this time the program was turned over to Grace Skinner, United Nations chairman, who gave a very interesting talk on the United Nations setup. She was assisted by Donalene Hemenway and Ella Beers. Others acting on this committee were Hilda Walther and Vivian Burkemeyer who artistically decorated the tables using miniature flags of various countries in carrying out the United Nations idea. In closing this portion of the program Lorraine Ness sang "My Land and Your Land," by Romberg, accompanied by Ruth Stewart Caldwell.

Leone Jensen presented the charter to the Drain club which was received by Mary Scott, president. Adelia Hatch, president of the local club, presented gifts from the club to Leone Jensen and Helen Chase in appreciation for their assistance in sponsoring the two new clubs, one at Drain and one at Yoncalla.

Twenty-two members of the local club and 15 from the Drain club were initiated at this time by Emblem chairman, Alice Breedlove, and team. Officers of the Drain club were installed by Adelia Hatch, including the president, Mary Scott; vice president, Carol Henderson; recording secretary, Adonna Rydell; corresponding secretary, Eva Taylor; treasurer, Lenore Huckins. Following the installation service Mrs. Hatch presented a gavel to the president of the Drain club.
