

CITY BRIEFS

Abe Hanks Sr., who has been ill since the fore part of December, has been taking treatments at the Medical Center in Eugene. He is better, but physicians say his condition is still unsatisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wikoff and daughter Jeannine of Roseburg were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Thum. Mrs. Wikoff's mother, Other visitors at the Thum home are Mrs. Thum's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beager of Sunbeam, Idaho.

Mrs. Vena Wheeler Savino of Los Angeles, California is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. N. E. Compton, in the Cedars district, coming to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Compton, which will be an event of next Sunday. Mrs. Savino attended the wedding of the Comptons 50 years ago, but was a baby at the time.

Mrs. Albert Adkins spent Saturday night and Sunday at Coos Bay with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest West, and children Craig and Marcia Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Puckett of St. Louis, Missouri are visiting Mrs. Puckett's father, W. F. Allen, and sister, Mrs. Lee Cooley, on South River Road, also her brother, Alvin Allen, of Silk Creek and Major H. E. Allen of Eugene. They are also visiting Mr. Puckett's mother and sister in Eugene. They were two weeks on the trip because of weather and road conditions, even over the most southern route. They were quite disappointed not to arrive here in a nice Oregon rain, finding instead worse winter weather than they had when leaving St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollemon and daughter Ellen of Klamath Falls spent the week end here with Mrs. Hollemon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Duley.

Oliver Gilbertson was taken to the Masonic home at Forest Grove Monday by the Mills ambulance.

Mrs. Tom Foster of Ashland, a former resident of Thornton Corners is spending a few days here visiting at the homes of friends and relatives. She has been a guest at the home of a sister, Mrs. S. P. Shortridge and a brother-in-law, George Foster.

Miss Dorothy Jackson, a former resident, now living in California, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Absher. Miss Jackson attended grade school here and graduated from Newark high school in California, and will graduate from the University of California, Berkeley, this June.

Elliott Voegel will leave Eugene by plane Friday for Minneapolis, Minn. to attend the annual convention of owners of Coast-to-Coast Stores which will start Sunday and continue through Wednesday of next week. He will be joined by his brother-in-law, W. J. Fuller, at Spokane. Mr. Fuller was a former resident here.

Mrs. William Thum left Tuesday for Portland for a three months' visitation tour of chapters of Eastern Star of the western section. Mrs. Thum is worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gleason accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ed Maloney to Portland Sunday morning where Mr. Maloney entered the Veterans Hospital Monday afternoon to undergo surgery. Mr. Gleason drove home Monday morning but Mrs. Gleason and Mrs. Maloney remained for a few days to be near Mr. Maloney while he is in the hospital. While in Portland, Mrs. Gleason and Mrs. Maloney visited with Bob Stroup, a former resident of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Minnie Willis is reported quite low at her home, suffering from a heart attack.

Howard Baker of Monrovia, California made a flying trip to Seattle to get his daughter and two small children who returned with him to his home while her husband is attending school in Chicago. Enroute home they visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kiker. Mr. Baker is a stepson of Mrs. Kiker.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Puckett and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cooley and W. F. Allen were Sunday dinner guests of Major and Mrs. H. E. Allen in Eugene. Major Allen is W. F. Allen's son and a brother of Mrs. Puckett and Mrs. Cooley.

Mrs. J. Brighton Leonard will go to Seattle, Washington Monday to attend Seattle Market Week, and purchase merchandise for her Smart Shop. On Tuesday of this week Mrs. Leonard, her sister, Mrs. W. R. Ashworth of Eugene, and their cousin, Mrs. Soringo of California, made a trip to Portland where they took in Market Week.

Mrs. G. B. Arnest and daughter Dorris spent from Saturday to Tuesday in Portland attending Market Week and purchasing for Mrs. Arnest's Dress Shop.

Jack Gorton of Eugene, county 4-H club leader, was transacting business here today.

Washington Monument
Washington monument, in the nation's capital, was finished December 6, 1884. The shaft towers 600 feet above the tide water of the Potomac river, and there is room enough inside the monument to house an army of 12,000 men.

"He says his friends would like some prints of these."

STILL SHARING AFTER 70 YEARS

OBSERVING THEIR SEVENTIETH wedding anniversary in Los Angeles, Frank M. Howell, 91, still has good eyesight and "sees" for his wife, who is 87. Her hearing unimpaired, she "hears" for him. Married in Deatsburg, Ia., in 1879, they have shared many happy years. (International)

CULP CREEK

We are glad to note that Bill Kernutt is up again after a siege with an infected throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Cooper had a small attic fire last week, but were fortunate enough to escape with small damage.

A fire in the home of Red Twilger Friday morning which was started in the living room and did considerable damage to the interior before being extinguished. The Twilger family is lucky in that they had no frozen pipes and water was available to fight the fire.

According to present plans a missionary from Alaska will hold services at the Row River church Sunday morning.

The Culp Creek school was closed Thursday and Friday of last week on account of weather conditions.

Don't forget the meeting of the school social club on Tuesday, February 8th. Important plans for the school carnival are to be discussed. Come, bring an idea and meet with your neighbors.

Insect Forest Toll

Insects kill more trees in our forests annually than do forest fires.

Hybrid Corn

Nearly half of the nation's supply of hybrid sweet corn seed is processed in Caldwell, Idaho.

SAFEWAY

If you really want to reduce your Living Costs...

YOU CAN SAVE from 7¢ to 10¢ a lb. on Best Quality Coffees!

Here's how! Simply buy your coffees in inexpensive paper bags—and SAVE THE DIFFERENCE!

Maybe you are already cutting corners this smart, thrifty way, and know full well how "bag" coffee does save you money. But if you aren't, perhaps you wonder... is bag coffee GOOD coffee? A-B-S-O-L-U-T-E-L-Y! Bag coffee users have learned that coffee packed in an inexpensive bag can be just as full-bodied, just as flavor-rich and fine in quality as coffee packed in any other container. In fact, many say it's fresher, because bag coffee usually comes in the whole bean; is ground fresh when you buy.

Yes, "bag" coffee will help cut living costs. If you are not using it, why not start today! Our NOB HILL brand is our finest blend and you'll find it extra-rich and strength-full. Our AIRWAY brand is milder, more mellow... and equally popular. Both brands are guaranteed to please you, or money back.

OR If you Prefer "CAN" Coffees—SAFEWAY WILL SAVE YOU MONEY on them, too!

Yes, either way, Safeway prices will save you money on your favorite brand. In bag coffee, however, you save more, and we feel it is our duty to bring this extra saving to your attention.
