MISS DOREEN LYON WED IN SALEM CHURCH RITES

Miss Doreen Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett J. Lyon, of Cottage Grove, and Arthur Beddoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beddoe of Vancouver, Washington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening, February 5, at seven o'clock, in the fireplace room of the Congregational church in Salem at a double-ring ceremony. The Rev. Lewis E. White officiated before the parents of the bride couple. Yellow jonquils and sprays of heather decorated the room.

The bride chose a royal blue two-piece wool suit with accessories of grey and a light lavender orchid corsage.

The wedding dinner was served at Colonial House in Salem immediately following the ceremony. The bride graduated from Cottage Grove Union high school with the class of '48 and attended Willamette University during the fall semester. She is now employed as receptionist in the state unemployment office in Salem. Mr. Beddoe graduated from Vancouver high school and is a sophomore at Willamette. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

They are making their home at 1196 Chemeketa street, in Salem.

W. S. C. S. DESSERT

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday, Feb. 23rd, in the parlor of the new church for a 1:45 dessert course and monthly meeting. Mrs. E. A. Coston, Mrs. Alvis Wicks and Mrs. Mark Morgan will be the hostesses.

VALENTINE MOTIF AT SOCIAL TWELVE CLUB

The dessert table at the home of Mrs. A. W. Helliwell was attractively decorated in keeping with the Valentine season Thursday when her mother, Mrs. Nannie Smith, entertained the Social Twelve club at a dessert course and social afternoon. A business meeting followed, and the remainder of the afternoon was spent socially.

The annual meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton with Mrs. C. E. Dillman as co-hostess. This will be the March meeting and will be a luncheon.

RECEPTION FOR PASTOR AND FAMILY AT CHURCH

A large crowd of members and friends of the Church of Christ gathered at the church Saturday evening to welcome F. S. Smith, new pastor and his family. An interesting program of readings, songs, musical numbers and a short skit was given followed by a quiz program over station K-O-R-N. The losing team had to pay different penalties. Why yes, of course the women won. Everyone reported a wonderful time and all the pie they could eat. We were all sorry our honor guests could not be present. They were confined to their home with mumps.

POTLUCK DINNER FOR 24

Sunday 24 friends gathered at the C. N. Land home, following the morning church service in the new Methodist church, for a potluck dinner. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Umphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leonard and daughter Irene, all of Portland; Mrs. E. E. Cone and daughter Marjorie and Mrs. Neita Jones, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cooper of Springfield; Mrs. Ralph Sheary of Dunsmuir, California; Mrs. Maude Wright, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Arnest and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

At the recent meeting of the Women of the Moose Agnes Gates, ritual committee chairman, was in charge of the chapter night program, at which time a comical skit was presented by Mrs. Harley Gates, Mrs. Harry Tennis, Mrs. Agnes Gates and Mrs. Fern Anderson. Marjorie Potter and Helen Conrad were initiated to membership.

The regular dinner planned for each month has been postponed until better weather.

VALENTINE PARTY

Mrs. George Hunt entertained Monday afternoon at a Valentine party for a group of friends. Her rooms were artistically decorated in keeping with the Valentine season. Guests included Mrs. E. Guggisberg, Mrs. Harry Neet, Mrs. Al Branden, Mrs. Castile of Chico, California, Mrs. Nellie Dawson and daughter Lillian, Miss Darlene Fell and Mrs. Tom Mitchell. Mrs. McLean was invited, but was ill and not able to attend. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

PINOCHLE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bowser entertained a group of friends at a progressive pinochle party Saturday night at their home. Prizes were awarded to those winning high and low scores, and at a late hour refreshments of ice cream and cake were served the guests.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MRS. HAL SKINNER

Mrs. Edna Piller, Miss Hazel Tohlen and Miss Lottie Lee Lamb entertained recently at a bridal shower honoring Mrs. Hal Skinner, formerly Mrs. Grace Cowan. A social evening was enjoyed and the honored guest received many lovely gifts. Miniature umbrellas decorated the refreshment trays.

Five Generations Represented

At a recent gathering of relatives in Cottage Grove five generations were represented. Pictured in the group are the five generations. Front row seated are, left to right: Grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Lucille Smith of Myrtle Point; baby Penny Dean Epperson of Myrtle Point; great-grandmother, Mrs. Alice Matilda Guillems, Cottage Grove. Back row: great-grandmother, Mrs. Viola Rice of Cottage Grove, at left and mother, Mrs. Callie Viola Epperson of Myrtle Point.

K. OF C. AND CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS PLAN POTLUCK

Practical And Bright

Attractive ski suit.

By GRACE THORNCIFFE

READY FOR A real work-out on good runs is this working ski suit. A wool plaid yoke and sleeves give the effect of a jerkin to the dark green lumber jacket top. A red leather belt slips through self loops. There are practical zippered pockets on either side of the trousers. A matching hood tucks into the Peter Pan collar. Red and green are the dominant colors in the plaid.

MIGHTY MIDGET CLUB MEETS

The Latham Mighty Midgets held a health club on February 16 and made a study of the subject of posture. Roll call was answered by points to remember on good posture. Posture exercises were led by J. Wilson. The posture contest was won by Norma Joe Johnson and Leland Carpenter. Other posture activities included marching to music with book on head.

Carol Vajie was elected news reporter. She and other club officers will attend an officers training meeting to be held at the Jefferson school Saturday.
