CONSTELLATION CLUB WILL MEET MARCH 3

A meeting of the Constellation Club has been announced for Thursday, March 3rd, at 1:30 o'clock in the Masonic clubroom.

P. D. G. GARDEN CLUB POSTPONED TO MARCH 11

The P. D. G. Garden club has been postponed from March 4th to March 11th, at which time it will meet at the home of Mrs. Andrew Brund for a 1:30 dessert. The meeting was postponed due to the World Day of Prayer falling on the regular meeting date.

BUILDERS CLASS TO HAVE FELLOWSHIP

On Sunday February 23 the Builders class will gather at the Reed Hemenway home after church services for a potluck dinner. The hostess will furnish the bread and coffee and each family is asked to bring a covered dish and table service. An enjoyable get together is promised and it is hoped each member will come out and enjoy this day. Remember the place the Reed Hemenway home at Thornton Corners.

BETHLEHEM WHITE SHRINE CEREMONIAL MEETING

On Thursday night, February 24th, the Bethlehem White Shrine of Jerusalem, will hold a ceremonial meeting at 8:00 p.m. in the Masonic temple, Eugene.

CIRCLE FOUR MEETS

Circle Four of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday evening in the church parlors following the congregational dinner. Mrs. George Matthews was temporary chairman.

Officers were elected for the coming year, Cleone Gawley being elected chairman and Frances Racknor, secretary and treasurer. At the business session plans were discussed for the year's work. It was decided to meet the fourth Monday night in the month, the next meeting to be with Mrs. Stewart Carlson, the night of March 28.

BRIDGE CLUB OBSERVES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Red, white and blue candles and flowers centered the luncheon table at the home of Mrs. Richard Thwing Tuesday as she entertained the Tuesday Bridge club, the occasion being the club's twenty-eighth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Schofield Stewart is the only charter member, and was present for the celebration.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge, and the ladies were joined by their husbands for a birthday dinner in the evening. The dinner table was attractive, reminding the guests of Washington's birthday with hatchets, cherries and a birthday cake with lighted candles. The evening was spent socially.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Herbert Lombard.

DEL'S STEAK HOUSE IS PLACE OF MEETING

Del's Steak House was the meeting place this week for the M. P. G. club for a 1:00 o'clock luncheon. Symbolic of the day the luncheon table was centered with a George Washington hat flanked with vases of red, white and blue flowers. Mrs. Arthur Hile was welcomed as a new member.

Following the luncheon the members adjourned to the home of Mrs. O. L. Nichols for an afternoon of visiting and sewing.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Roy Short.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton observed their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, February 6, at the Golf Course clubhouse with a reception for their many friends. They were married February 8, 1899 at Earlham, Iowa, and the N. E. Comptons are the third generation of Comptons to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr. Compton's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Compton, observed their golden wedding in 1897, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Compton, in 1919.

CLUB LUNCHEON AT CONE HOME IN EUGENE

Thursday of last week Mrs. E. E. Cone was hostess to the members of the Ad Libitum club at a luncheon at her home in Eugene. A social afternoon of visiting and needlework followed the luncheon. On March 17th Mrs. Elmer Kent will be hostess to the club.

LUNCHEON AND VALENTINE PARTY FEBRUARY 17TH

The Camellia club met with Mrs. Velma Forrester Thursday for a luncheon and valentine party with gift exchange and social afternoon. Mrs. Beryl Shattuck will entertain the group at the March meeting.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER

Pink and blue were carried out in the color scheme for a shower honoring Mrs. Fay Ewing (Helen Smith) the afternoon of February 11th at the home of Mrs. R. L. McCoy. Assistant hostess was Mrs. McCoy's mother, Mrs. S. C. Dunlop. The afternoon was spent in playing games, visiting and the opening of the many lovely gifts presented to the guest of honor.

Refreshments were served to the guests at the close of the afternoon, who were: Mrs. Walter Smith and baby, Mrs. Roy Ewing, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. Earl Ballew, Mrs. L. J. McCoy, Mrs. Richard Bushell, Mrs. Ben Layne, Mrs. Clair Hogate, Mrs. Donald Ewing, Mrs. Don Lyon and son, Mrs. Walter Hunter, Mrs. Bruce Bush, Miss Carol Hunter and the honored guest.

UTOPIA CLUB ENTERTAINED AT LORANE HOME

Members of the Utopia club motored to Lorane last Thursday for a one o'clock luncheon and meeting with Mrs. Martin Foster. All members were present and one guest, Mrs. Julia Powell. A bowl of red carnations centered the hostess' luncheon table. Mrs. H. E. Griggs will entertain the club at the March meeting, the 17th.

GIRL SCOUT AND BROWNIE PARTIES

Last week was a busy one in scouting with Girl Scouts and Brownie Troops having valentine parties, dinners and plays.

All troops are working toward summer camping, learning how to build fires, make sit-up-ons and use simple first aid.

Mrs. Ronald Gray, neighborhood Brownie chairman, attended a committee meeting at the Scout office in Eugene on February 16th for the purpose of planning the annual meeting to be held in the Veterans Memorial building in Eugene on March 10th, from 11:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Any adult interested in scouting is invited to attend this meeting. Please call Mrs. Gray for particulars on registering.

PARTY GIVEN WINNERS

Women of the Moose met at the Moose hall February 17 and a party was given to the winning team in a contest to gain new members, whose captain was Mary Plunket. Games were played with Miala Kineart and Alta Cook winners.

Refreshments of salad and hot dogs were served by the losing team, whose leader was Agnes Gates.

Margaret Lemley, social service committee chairman, will have charge of the chapter night program at the next meeting, March 3, and the refreshment committee is Ruth Snell, Grace Strausen and Hazel Saltsman.

WCS HOLDS FIRST MEETING IN LADIES PARLOR

The first meeting to be held in the ladies parlor of the new Methodist church was that of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held Wednesday afternoon, the hostesses being Mrs. E. A. Coston, Mrs. Alvis Wicks and Mrs. Mark Morgan, the parlor committee, who were responsible for the furnishings for this room and getting it ready for meetings, and from all reports, they did a wonderful job in making this a cheerful room for ladies' gatherings. The society gave them a vote of thanks for their work.

For the program Mrs. Alexander Hergert, music supervisor of the local high school, brought her boys' chorus to sing several numbers including "Water Boy," with Byron Correll as soloist; "Kentucky Babe," and "All Through the Night;" "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," Scott Wilson soloist; and "O! Grey Robe." Don Eastman announced the numbers and Evelyn Garman accompanied them.

Mrs. Maude Wright led the devotional service. Approximately 42 members and guests were present for this first meeting and social hour.

The Community Jewelers presented the society with a two-burner Westinghouse hot plate.

During the business meeting the ladies of this group and the members of the Service Guild planned a cafeteria luncheon to be served at the armory in the near future.

The hostesses served a dessert course preceding the business meeting.

DAUGHTERS OF NILE PLAN MEETING

A meeting of the Daughters of the Nile is planned for Wednesday, March 2, with Mrs. Herbert Lombard, and will be an 8:00 o'clock dessert. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Bressler, Mrs. Ted Taylor, Mrs. Edgar Rickard and Mrs. Schofield Stewart. All who cannot come are to call 212R.

SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN DR. M. H. SCHAFFNER

Saturday night a group of friends gathered at the home of Dr. M. H. Schaffner and completely surprised him, and reminded him he had passed another milestone in life. Progressive games furnished the evening's entertainment, and refreshments of birthday cake and ice cream were served before the guests departed for their homes.

Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Castle and son Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Grabe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doleman, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bartruff and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dicks.

HEART WEEK IS OBSERVED BY BAPW CLUB

In observance of Heart Week the Business and Professional Women's club carried out the heart theme in the meeting Monday night, both in the dinner and the topic of the guest speaker. The program was in charge of the health and safety chairman, Jessie Bartruff, and committee, Dorothy Schaffner and Nell Bukowski, who were responsible for the attractive table decorations of red hearts and white hyacinths with miniature corsages made of red candy hearts nestled in ruffled lace doilies with red and white ribbon streamers at each plate.

Guest speaker of the evening was Dr. H. E. Scoles, who spoke on "the heart and the part it plays in a person's life." A heart was passed and the collection of $9.00 will go to the Oregon Heart Association. Guests were Sue Noblin, Oleene Seals and Jeanne Bottorff. Ardith Nichols was welcomed as a new member. Scott Wilson entertained the club with two vocal solos, "Without a Song," and "When Irish Eyes Were Smiling," accompanied by Mrs. Alexander Hergert.

The next meeting will be March 1 at 8:00 p.m. in the city library.

REBEKAHS MEET

Noble Grand Thelma Hodgson presided over the regular meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night in the IOOF hall. Plans were completed for the dinner served Saturday night for the Lions' 25th anniversary, which was served in the dining room of the IOOF hall with Rosie Lewis as chairman.

The Odd Fellows invited the Rebekahs to a box social to be held March 12th in the hall. The public is invited to the social.

Hazel Melzer became a member by initiation, and an impressive ceremony was held as the chapter was draped in memory of a departed sister, Minnie Willits, with Mrs. Hugh Trunnell as soloist for the service.

The district convention was announced for March 10th, to be held at Junction City.

SERVICE GUILD WILL INITIATE TONIGHT

The Service Guild of the Methodist church will hold initiation tonight, Thursday, for new members in the new church parlors. Following the business session, there will be an auction of food, fancy work and miscellaneous articles.

Members of the program committee met February 21 with their chairman, Helen Dungan, at her home. Those who made plans for future Guild programs were Bertha Frye, Marjorie McKenzie and Helen Hance.

Guild cabinet members who assembled last Monday night at the Dungan home for a business discussion were Helen Hance, president; Mary Schuit, vice president; and Marcia Allen, music consultant.
