DISSTON SCHOOL NEWS

The Mother's club of the Disston school entertained with a covered dish dinner Friday evening honoring their teachers, Mrs. Oris Monroe, Mrs. Ileen Currin, Howard Campbell and the school janitor, Fred Paukey.

The rooms and tables were beautifully decorated by Mmes. Knous and Lillgren. The following program was given: Mrs. Stockwell of the Circle M. ranch played several selections on the piano and accompanied the group for group singing. Mrs. Carol Sheets, secretary of the club, told of the newly organized club and its work and some of the objectives the club hopes to accomplish in the future. It was also announced that there is a welfare organization of which Mrs. Livingston is chairman. Any aid or donations will be greatly appreciated. Mrs. Livingston said. Donald Smith sang two solos accompanied by George Sheets and Mr. Sheets gave a reading. Darla Fay Hogate played two piano solos.

Robert Drenner, Culp Creek rancher was introduced and gave a very interesting and inspirational talk on art. He showed a number of his paintings, accepted an invitation to visit the school and gave a talk to the children and offered to assist them in their art work.

Mrs. Marie Hogate, club president, introduced and presented a gift to each teacher and the janitor. At the close of the program a delicious dinner was served to the club members and guests. Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Drenner, Stockwell, Hauson, of the mines and Mrs. Maxine Sheets of Eugene.

DORENA GRANGE NEWS

Dorena Grange met Thursday, February 17. Most of the literary program was held before the meeting. The literary program consisted of group singing; Shirley Sherrill told the highlights of the three important dates in February, viz., February 12, 14, and 22; Lecturer, Mary Arne, read about the origin of Valentine's Day; Jean Plaisted read about the important persons whose birthdays came in February; Ralph Hutchison, of Cottage Grove, gave the speech "Grasslands, The Magic Carpet," which he planned to give at the FFA district meeting which was held at the high school in Cottage Grove on February 19; and last, but not least, everyone tried to get the autograph of every person in the room on a valentine, Shirley Sherrill and Lucille Stewart being the winners.

The next Youth Group meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stewart.

The building committee reported they are looking forward to getting the roof on the new hall. They need any help any time any one can come.

The HEC met at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Lake Thursday, Feb. 17, and re-elected Mrs. Ora Thomason as chairman. The next meeting will be March 8 at the home of Frances McCormack.

The next serving committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Lee Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hudson, and Jeanette and Bobby Kelly.

Correction: Dorena Grange will visit Jasper on March 8 instead of February 22. Lowell Grange will visit Dorena Grange March 17.

Mary Arne reported on the Lecturer's school which she attended at Corvallis February 3 and 4.

Those who did not know how to work their way in and out of Grange practised so they would know how if an occasion arose when they would have to do it.

William Bryson of Chicago came Thursday for a visit with his wife and children at the Adolph Lindstrom home.

Word has been received that Grandma Allison who broke her hip recently, is improving.

Ole Olson, who died a few days ago in Florida, was one of the old timers of the Cornstock community having made his home for many years on the south side of Ward's Butte. He was about 90 years of age and had been spending the winters in Florida. He will be buried here.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleal Mackey have returned home from a trip to Los Angeles and other points in California. They visited with George Mackey and family in San Francisco. George is an employee of United Airlines. They have twin babies born in December, a boy and a girl. Cleal visited a clinic in San Francisco and had his leg examined which was injured in a car accident several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kenady, Jr., and daughter Sandra are visiting here from McKenzie Bridge.
