

LONDON

(Mrs. Gale Roby, Phone 76842)
Remember the London school Service club meeting Friday afternoon at 2:00 March 11, at the lunch room.

London basketball team played three games in the tournament at Cottage Grove last week, winning against Jefferson 31-15 Tuesday night, and against Culp Creek 18-11 Wednesday night but lost the tournament to Dorena Friday night 19-12. We were proud of Dorena's cheering section for London in the London-Jefferson game, since London had no cheering section.

London boys played Monday of this week at Springfield with Mt. Carmel.

There is to be a party for all 4-H club members at the 4-H club house March 18, 7:30 p.m. Darlene Powell, vice president of sewing club, is chairman of the refreshment committee. Malcolm Clark, vice president of Cooking I, is chairman of the entertainment committee and Dickie Kelly, vice president of Camp Cookery has charge of the clean-up committee.

London 4-H Mothers Club
4-H Mothers club met at the club house, Wednesday, March 2, with a colorful spring luncheon at noon. The first daffodils and pussy willows, brought by Mary Jo Phillips decorated the table.

A brief business meeting was held by Esther Banton, president, following the luncheon. Evelina Roby acted as secretary in the absence of Lawana Sugg.

Thank you notes were received from Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Banton for wedding gifts and from Mrs. Thorp for flowers. A personal thank-you was given by Florence Riggs for a potted plant.

New additions were added to the "white elephant" table and 80c was collected.

Pollyanna gifts were received by Maryjo Phillips, Florence Riggs, Jeanne Morton, Mae Anderson and Edith Gilham.

Twenty members, seven children and one guest, Mrs. Lora Dayley were present. Nina Shortridge was housekeeper.

Next meeting is March 16. Spring must be further along than we thought judging from an electrical storm Sunday evening. However, there was a light snow at the Cottage Grove dam.

Spring is opening up at Woodard's Blackbutte camp for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stump who have six baby chicks already and have been clearing out their strawberry batch preparatory to transplanting of their famous Rock-hills.

Mrs. Arlie Sugg is expected home this week end from her Oklahoma trip, to put an end to Mr. Sugg's batching.

A number of community folk have been sick the past week with intestinal flu.

Leslie Anderson of Shoestring road was to have the cast removed from his arm this week which he broke several weeks ago while working.

Mrs. W. C. Thorp is to be the new Sentinel reporter for Shoestring valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Stein had company from Drain last week on Sunday, cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hardy and Miss Frances Hardy, their niece.

Mrs. Jeanne Morton was one of a scouting committee last week looking for a location for the new 4-H summer camp site.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Dayley and daughter, Eva, are new residents of the community, coming from Twin Falls, Idaho, and residing in the Vern Shortridge house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sibley are grandparents of a new grandson, born St. Valentine's day to their daughter at Kodiak, Alaska.

Nan Freeman of Culp Creek spent several days last week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ewing.

Four new telephones were installed last week for Dick Garman, S. T. Clark, Gale Roby and Lawrence Barkemeyer.

Claudia Riggs has been having chicken pox.

"Butchle" Manning has been keeping dental appointments in Cottage Grove recently.

Keeping medical appointments in the Milner building in Eugene Friday were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Riggs and Doris Hald, Mrs. Jack Long for daughter Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Gale Roby for daughter, Karen.

Mrs. Geo. Sibley attended her "Round Robin" sewing club in Eugene, Thursday. Mrs. Sibley will be hostess to the club at her home near London at a later date this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bemis went to Portland Saturday evening to visit a brother-in-law, Harry Zimmerman of Tigard, who is in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Abeene and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Abeene's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Cottage Grove.

S. T. Clark spoke at the Church of Christ in Sutherlin, Sunday.

Mrs. R. W. Beatty entertained Sunday at a birthday dinner for Mr. Beatty's 70th birthday. Three of his four grandchildren attended. A daughter Jewel, Mrs. Elmer Baker and three sons, Ronny, Wayne and Warren, came from Eugene; a son Harvey Beatty came from Mapleton and a daughter, Lavelle, Mrs. J. W. Quigley and daughter Sharon of Blackbutte route. Another daughter, Bessie May, lives at Faxon, Oklahoma.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dell Butler of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Pressley Landon and son Jimmy of Cottage Grove, a niece of Mr. Beatty; Sammy Medford of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Sam medford, a brother. Mr. Beatty received two birthday cakes baked by Mrs. Quigley and Mrs. Medford and many nice gifts including a portable radio from his son, Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry Newton were in Coburg Sunday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McKay visited Mrs. McKay's sister, Emily Adams, at Latham on her birthday Friday. Also visiting Mrs. Adams was her oldest son, Norman, of Los Angeles, that she had not seen for 17 years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McEwen attended church in Springfield Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Olds were in Eugene on business, Friday.

First Lt. Wm. F. Hopman and wife drove from Florida, recently, to visit on a ten day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Hopman of Cedar Creek. Lt. Hopman was in the service all during the war and has since been stationed in Germany, coming from there to join his wife in Florida, for their trip west.

Lt. and Mrs. Hopman left here last week for March Field, California where he will be stationed for a time.

Harold Bachelder, former resident of London community, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bachelder of Cottage Grove, has recently been advanced to corporal. Cpl. Bachelder is stationed on Okinawa since June and is a skilled Rawin sound operator in the weather service.

CURTIN

(Mrs. Grace Thompson, reporter Phone 1216)

Mrs. Maxine Thompson of Klamath Falls visited here from Friday through Monday with relatives and friends.

A bulldozer was brought in last week to repair the break in the dam and the mills are now operating again. The Curtin Lumber Co. also began operating Monday.

The Gideons called at the Curtin school Thursday and presented New Testaments to the fifth graders and other new pupils in the upper grade rooms.

Willis Booher was chosen by the School Board at a meeting last Monday to fill the vacancy of school clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilman of Eugene spent the week end here at his parents home.

Sam Stigers has successfully undergone another operation and is to return home in a few days.

Sunday guests at the Eldon Thompson home were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Nixon and Alan of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Higgins also of Eugene.

Delbert Oatney received a badly injured knee and other bruises Saturday evening as he was returning home from Cottage Grove, when his car went out of control after negotiating a turn on Highway 99 above Shadybrook and plunged over the grade hitting a tree. Damage to the car has been estimated between $700 and $800.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Gains announce the betrothal of their daughter, Lois Viola, to Elmer Beck, of Ferndale, Washington. The families of the young people have been friends for three generations. Lois has been assisting her grandparents in the store and post office at Curtin for several years past. Mr. Beck owns and operates a modern dairy farm near Ferndale. No. Lois will not have to learn how to milk. Milking machines do all that nowadays.
