Many Attend P-TA Founder's Day Tea

The P-T A Founder's Day tea held recently was very well attended with approximately 150 parents and interested persons attending during the afternoon. The traveling picture, awarded the room with the largest number of visitors, went to the sixth grade. The intermediate Girl Scout troop, led by Mrs. Forrester, served as baby sitters for the little children who attended. The executive committee of the P-T A voted to present their troop with a small check in appreciation. The silver offering amounted to about $8.00, which goes to the Founder's Day fund.

The P-T A wishes to thank their very efficient committee of Mrs. George Macready, Mrs. Harold Axley, Mrs. Ralph Saltsman and Mrs. Richard Thwing, who planned and carried it through so successfully.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS RITA KEENE

Miss Rita Keene, bride-elect of Glen Westfall, was honored Friday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower by her aunt, Mrs. Mack Kinsland, and her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Lindsay, at the Kinsland home. The honor guest was the recipient of many lovely gifts from those present, as well as from several who were invited, but unable to attend. Refreshments were served by the hostesses following the opening of the gifts by Miss Keene.

Guests included Mmes. Lee Nixon, Hugh Nixon, Oval Powell, Fred Kinsland, Tunis VanProoven, William Keene, Eugene Rorer, C. G. Keene, Miss Elsie Geer, Miss Maudie Lindsay, the hostesses and the guest of honor.

P-TA MEETING SET FOR MARCH 28

A roundtable discussion will be held by the members of the P-TA next Monday, March 28, at 8:00 p.m. in the Jefferson cafeteria.

CIRCLE FOUR CHANGES PLACE OF MEETING

At the last minute, when it was too late to make a correction, the Circle Four of the Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church announced the change in meeting places for next Monday night. It will meet at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Matthews instead of Mrs. Stewart Carlson.

MISS BURKHOLDER ENTERTAINS AT DINNER

Miss Belle Burkholder entertained at dinner at her home, Friday night her good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Almond of Parker, S. Dakota. They resided at her home during part of the year 1940. Raymond Gleason, local resident, is Mrs. Almond's cousin. They drove a new car from S. Dakota to Cottage Grove, encountering considerable snow over the mountains coming over the Santiam pass Tuesday. Snowplows have cleared the road with the snow measuring 10 feet deep or more. After a bounteous dinner of baked salmon, Oregon pears, and other Oregon products, Pistachio ice cream and green iced cake to carry out the St. Patrick motif, they discussed old times together.

METHODIST MEN HOLD MONTHLY MEETING

The March meeting of the Methodist Men was held Monday night in the church parlor. The meeting opened with group singing of hymns and prayer, after which plans were made to attend the district meeting of Methodist Men at Coburg Tuesday night. This meeting was represented by 10 men of the local group. Colored pictures of the Columbia river dam projects were shown following the meeting, and refreshments were served with Harold Hicks in charge.

Mayor Edwards Guest Speaker At BPW Club

Mayor Edwards spoke to the Business and Professional Women Monday night at their dinner meeting at the Rainbow Cafe, on "Cooperation and Civic Pride," and mentioned local accomplishments through cooperation such as the new building of the Rod and Gun club, the raising of the money for the hospital building and the Boy and Girl Scout organizations. He stressed the need of a community center and swimming tank, both of which can be accomplished through cooperation of the various civic clubs. The program was in charge of the Public Affairs committee with Elizabeth Mills as chairman, but Lottie Lee Lamb acted as chairman in her absence. Mathilda Prager is the other committee member. The club was favored with two piano solos by Billy Veatch, who played "Nobody Knows the Troubles I've Seen" and "The Flirt." Billy was introduced by his grandmother, Inez Hoyt.

At the short business meeting reports on the southwest district conference held at Coquille Sunday were given by those attending, Lucy Ranny, Adelia Hatch, Lottie Lee Lamb and Hazel Melzer. Special guests of Monday evening's meeting were Mrs. Warren Edwards and Lenore Pyburn. Six new members, Olene Seals, Sue Noblin, Mabel Doleman, Arlene DeJarnett, Vi Wrigglesworth and Anita Drexel were welcomed.

It was announced that names of the songs to be sung at the state convention May 13-15 had been received by Ruth Stewart Caldwell, music chairman, and practice is expected to start at the next meeting.

The next meeting will be held at the city library, April 4, at 8:00 p.m. This will be the annual election of officers, and all members are urged to be present.

DORNA BUSY BEAVERS IS NEW 4-H CLUB

A new 4-H Sewing club, the Busy Beavers, has been organized at Dorena with 14 girls in the club and Mrs. Nell Esterholdt as their leader. It was organized about five weeks ago, and the girls are on their third project. The club meets each Thursday at the schoolhouse. A picnic is being planned for later in the spring, and also a demonstration.

Officers of the Busy Beavers Sewing club are: President, Joyce Kelly; vice president, Georgia Smith; secretary, Shirley Lisenby. At the last meeting refreshments were served by Patsy Esterholdt.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER FOR YOUNG MATRON

Mrs. Elliott Voegelge entertained a group of young matrons Tuesday evening, complimenting Mrs. Warren Glaede at a pink and blue shower. Over the gift table was an umbrella decorated with pink and blue crepe paper and suspended from the chandelier and a water sprinkler covered with the same color paper with streamers representing the "shower" and leading to the gifts on the table.

Thirteen friends were present and showered Mrs. Glaede with lovely, dainty gifts. Mrs. Voegelge served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

P. D. G. CLUB WILL MEET APRIL 1

The P. D. G. Garden club members will be guests of Mrs. Albert Woodward on April 1 at a 1:30 desert course and social afternoon. The annual election of officers will be held at this time and Popsy Pals will be revealed.

MISS COLLIER HONORED AT BRIDAL SHOWER

At the lovely home of Mrs. H. B. Bebe of Row River, on March 22 a bridal shower was given for Mildred ("Mickey") Collier, whose marriage to Norman J. Newman will take place June 12.

A very unique and clever idea was employed by the hostess for the bride-elect to search for the gifts.

Afternoon guests were Mrs. Chas. C. Collier, of Portland, Mrs. Herbert Lombard, Mrs. Keith LeCompte, Mrs. Roy Stith, Mrs. Geo. Patterson, Mrs. Otto Howerton, Mrs. Chris Collier, Mrs. Lee Dunagan, Mrs. Bill Workman, and Miss Sara Bjorset. Those who sent gifts but were unable to attend included Mrs. Bill Jacobsen, Mrs. Vern Bayless, Mrs. Lucy Ranney, Mrs. Walter Chappelle, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Mrs. Glen Cochran, Mrs. Robert Younger, Mrs. Dan Dunn and Miss Marie Lombard.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following the opening of the many lovely gifts by the honoree.

"THE BIBLE AND PRAYER" IS DEVOTIONAL TOPIC

Circle 1 of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church met last Wednesday afternoon for a 1:30 dessert at the home of Mrs. Orlo Bagley. Mrs. Chas. Beidler led the devotion, her topic being "The Bible and Prayer." Mrs. Hugh Feniston led the program on the work of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The rest of the afternoon was spent on a business meeting and visiting. Mrs. Arthur Hile, Mrs. Chas. Bozell, and Mrs. Harry Wynne were guests.

The next meeting of Circle 1 will be at the home of Mrs. A. W. Helliwell on Wednesday afternoon, April 20th.

REBEKAHS REPORT ON DISTRICT CONVENTION

Thelma Hodgson, noble grand, presided at the regular business meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night, at which time reports were given by Martha Eastham, Thelma Hodgson and Frances Racknor on the district convention held recently at Junction City. Mabel Johnson of Powers was transferred to the local lodge.

Initiation was planned for the next meeting on April 1.

COOLEY HILL CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Cooley Hill Community club met at the home of Mrs. Glen Arne, March 17th, for an afternoon meeting. Twelve club members were present. Guests were Mrs. Winnie Dows and Mrs. Fern Carpenter and son.

The officers for the year are Mrs. John Trunnell, president and Mrs. Ruth Dugan, secretary. The club voted to give $5.00 to the Red Cross.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jennie Arne, April 21.

AEOLIAN MUSIC CLUB STUDYING COMPOSERS

The Aeolian Music club pupils of Elbert DeMoss, professor of music, of Eugene, has grown to 30 in number, and meets each Thursday evening at the Orrin Richmond home. They are studying American composers. Time will be spent on the life of Philip Paul Bliss, religious composer of hymns to-night.

Musical numbers last Thursday evening were given by Janice Johnson, who played a B Flat saxophone solo, Mary Thiel and Gary Harn each played violin solos. Mr. DeMoss entertained the group with several Irish tunes on the violin.

Refreshments were served by Pat and Darlene Martin and David Conley.

Officers for the Aeolian Music club are: President, Harry Richmond; secretary, Helen Ikola; treasurer, Steve Martin; financial secretary, Janice Johnson and reporter, Carol Thiel. Helen Ikola and David Conley are on the entertainment committee.

THETA RHO GIRLS

The Theta Rho Girls held their bi-monthly meeting Monday night in the IOOF hall and made further plans for the annual convention to be held here on Saturday, April 23. Shirley Witters was appointed chairman of the clean up committee which will meet next Wednesday and Thursday, March 30 and 31, at 10:00 a.m. at the hall to clean the hall in preparation for the convention. Each Theta Rho Girl is on this committee and is urged to come in jeans and bring lunch for a potluck dinner. Also bring cleaning rags, mops, floor waxers and any other cleaning equipment that might be needed. All girls are urged to turn out and make the lodge room shine.

There will be no drill practice this coming Sunday, but will meet April 3 at the IOOF hall. It is necessary that all girls be present.

DISTRICT LEADERS' MEETING

A Girl Scout district meeting for leaders, assistant leaders and those interested in scouting will be held April 8 instead of April 1, in the dining room of the armory. The meeting will start at 10:00 a.m. and last until 3:00 p.m. with time out for sack lunch at noon. There will be two hours of regular outdoor training for Day Camp by someone from Eugene. There is a contest on between the Intermediates and Brownies to see which one can get the most members out to this meeting.

GUILD ELECTS OFFICERS

The Junior Guild of the Methodist church met for its monthly meeting and election of officers last Thursday in the church parlors.

When the group assembled, they first gathered in the sanctuary for the worship service which was presented by Mrs. Jim Hendricks and Mrs. Frank Brown, preceded by an organ prelude.

The business meeting and election were held in the church parlor. Newly elected officers are: President, Mrs. Jim Hendricks; vice president, Mrs. Lowell Hamm; secretary, Mrs. Jim Dows; treasurer, Miss Lavinia Stokes.

The first project of the club was planned, and will be a dinner in the church Saturday evening, March 26. Husbands and boy friends of the members will be guests, the proceeds to be used for a church project. Miss Betty Thomas was appointed chairman for the menu committee.

The meeting closed with group singing of hymns in the sanctuary around the organ, and refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Duane Carpenter.

SPANISH WAR VETS AND AUXILIARY TO MEET

The United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary will meet Monday night, March 28, at the home of Mrs. Lillian Doolittle, on West Main for a 6:30 potluck and meetings of the two organizations.

CIRCLE THREE ENTERTAINED BY MRS. WOLFARD

Circle Three of the Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold Wolfard, with Mrs. Lee Nixon assisting.

The president, Mrs. Roy Short, presided over the meeting, at which 17 members and three guests were present. Betty Manock presented the lesson on the Board of Foreign Missions.

Refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostesses. The next meeting was announced for April 27 at the home of Mrs. Roy Short with Mrs. O. W. Blackmore assisting.

NEIGHBORS CHEERUP CIRCLE

The Neighbors Cheerup Circle spent a very pleasant afternoon March 22 with Mrs. Glendella Nokes, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mollie Miller. Old time hymns were sung and prayers offered by Mrs. C. B. Starkey, Mrs. Belknap and Mrs. Rose Martin. Readings and poems were given by some of the members.

PAST MATRONS AND PAST PATRONS TO BE HONORED

Cottage Grove chapter No. 4, O. E. S. will honor all past matrons and past patrons at the Friday night meeting. A 6:30 covered dish dinner will precede the meeting. There will also be initiation.

AD LIBITUM CLUB LUNCHEON

Mrs. Elmer Kent entertained the Ad Libitum club members at a luncheon Thursday at her home. A social afternoon of visiting and needlework was enjoyed. The members were invited to the ranch home of Mrs. Alvis Wicks for the April meeting.
