Champion Basketball Team Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Ware

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. (Gene) Ware opened their home Saturday evening to the members of the Community Jewellers basketball team and the young men's wives and girlfriends. The guests were greeted at the door by the host and hostess who bestowed green and white carnations upon them, the colors being the team's color identification during the basketball season.

During the social hour, Mr. Ware made a speech and stressed his appreciation for the excellent cooperation and sportsmanship on the part of all of the players. He then called upon George Woolery who in turn presented a Ronson lighter to each team member in token of appreciation from Mr. and Mrs. Ware. Upon each presentation, the recipient was loudly cheered by the other guests. Especially enjoyed was the addition of remarks on personalities, mostly humorous, about each player.

The buffet supper table was most artistically and beautifully decorated. The centerpiece was a large arrangement of daffodil heads as a base, the flowers being tied up to the streamer being the one used by the team in winning the championship for the city league in the season just recently ended. Topping the basketball was a corsage of daffodils tied with green and white satin ribbons. The golden brown turkey, salads and many other delicacies proved most inviting to the young people. At a side table, the "Undeclared" championship trophy was displayed in the background with a large decorated cake bearing the words "Basketball Champions" in the foreground.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sederberg, Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Denham, Mr. and Mrs. George Woolery, Bill Kenal, Kenneth Westfall, Dick Balch, Mike Gamble, Harlan Mickey, Leonard Barkmeyer, Lefty Martin, Gordon Neideigh, Leo Roberts, Bud McCoy, Yvonne Howard, Betsy Duke, Jane Beidler, Delores Van Matre, Barbara Anderson, Mae Malcolm, Betty Sheets, Ada Carter, Margaret Tarr.

Mr. Ware said earlier this week "This season is over but we are already making plans to win the championship again next year."

COUPLE EXCHANGE VOWS AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Baskets of yellow carnations and daffodils decorated the auditorium of the First Baptist church Sunday, March 27, at two o'clock for the wedding of Miss Rose Myree Underwood to Charles Ronald Leathers. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Pearl Underwood and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Leathers, all of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Sidney Shinnall, pastor of the church, read the simple single ring service.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Salem Magnusson sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Sidney Shinnall.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Paul McTaggart. She wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Donald Clark, as matron of honor. Her suit was gray and her corsage was of red roses.

The bride's mother wore a black suit with accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Leathers chose a brown suit with pink carnation corsage for her son's wedding.

Best man was Richard Campbell, and ushers were Gary Leathers and Robert Campbell.

A reception was held in the recreation room of the church. A white wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom was served by Mrs. P. M. Campbell, and punch and coffee were served by Mrs. Peter Fetter and Mrs. Bert Wade.

After a short honeymoon the couple will be at home at 840 Birch Avenue.

Mrs. Leathers graduated from the local high school with the class of '48 and he graduated from the Winlock Washington high school. Mr. Leathers is a truck driver and his wife is employed at Gustafson's.

OES PAST MATRONS AND PATRONS HONORED

Past matrons and past patrons of local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star were honored Friday night at a 6:30 covered dish dinner and at the regular meeting of the Star.

Following the dinner Worthy Matron Isabelle Gates and Worthy Patron Jack Dillon presided at the regular meeting at which time initiation was held for Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dugan, Mrs. Nettie Moore and Mrs. Lucille Mitchell.

Reports were given of visitations to various chapters, including Corvallis and Oakridge, and invitations were read from several chapters, including one from Evangeline chapter in Eugene for Friday evening.

The past matrons, 14 in number, and the nine past patrons present, were introduced and presented with gifts. Worthy of note is that the oldest past matron present and still in service, Anna Graham, was introduced. She has been an active member since 1890, and was worthy matron in 1894. At the same time the youngest past matron present, Ida Williams, was introduced. A clever addendum by the officers and courtesy girls was given in honor of the past matrons and past patrons, in which they were taken back to the good old school days with short dresses and pig tails with Worthy Matron Isabelle Gates as schoolmarm.

The evening closed with refreshments served by the committee with Miss Belle Burkholder as chairman.

BETHLEHEM WHITE SHRINE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Regular meeting of Bethlehem Shrine, order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, was held in the Masonic temple in Eugene on Thursday evening March 24. As this was the last meeting of the year annual reports of officers and committee chairmen were read and election of officers was held with the following results: worthy high priestess, Mata B. Sweetmen; watchman of shepherds, L. R. Harrington; noble prophetess, Lucile Lansing; associate watchman of shepherds, Dr. Charles Hunt; worthy chaplain, Viola Bentley; worthy scribe, Mabel Bailey; worthy treasurer, Grace Smith; worthy shepherdess, Ruth Bradford; and worthy guide, Evelyn Caton. Names of appointive officers are to be announced later. Installation is to be held Saturday evening, April 9.

SILVER TEA APRIL 3

The silver tea planned for April 3 by Circle Two of the United Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church has been postponed until April 19. The tea, which will feature modeling of old fashioned costumes, will be at 8 p.m. at the church. Church members and friends are invited to attend.

SERVICE GUILD MEETS

Mrs. Stanley Frye, Mrs. Ralph Schultz and Mrs. Wilbur Crane were hostesses last Thursday evening to the members of the Service Guild of the Methodist church when they gathered in the church parlors. Mrs. Alfred McKenzie led the devotions taken from the Upper Room. A Stanley demonstration followed the program, after which the hostesses served refreshments.

Miss Pat Scott Is Grand Treasurer of Grand Assembly

At the grand assembly of the Order of Rainbow for Girls held March 25 and 26 at St. Helens, Miss Pat Scott, worthy advisor of the local Order, was elected grand treasurer. Miss Laura Porter was chosen one of the courtesy girls to give a thank you speech at the close of the grand assembly.

It was voted to have next year's assembly at Corvallis. Attending from the local group were: Mrs. George Witters and Mrs. Percy Malcolm as chaplains, and the Misses LaVonne Huggah, Ida Rynearson, Janice Swanson, Rosemary Rickard, Carmen Grewelle, Rowena Miller, Bonnie White, Bernadine Henry, Pat Scott, Laura Porter, Pat Rickard, Shirley Hileman, Baba Mosley, Mickey Snapp and Kay Leonard.

At the regular meeting Monday night of the Rainbow Girls it was decided to attend church services Sunday, April 3, in a body at the Methodist church. All girls are to meet in front of the church at 10:45 a.m., and are asked to bring their lambkins aprons.

It was decided to give initiation for the Masonic lodge on April 6, at 9:00 p.m., and all girls are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served. Plans were also made for a pie and cake social to be held April 12, at 8:00 p.m., at the hall, and their spring semi-formal was announced for May 7. This will also be held in the Masonic temple.

JUNIOR GUILD HAS FIRST SOCIAL

The newly formed Junior Guild of the Methodist church had its first dinner in the new church parlor Saturday evening. The tables were decorated with individual bouquets of spring flowers, and about 30 guests enjoyed a delicious meal. Miss Betty Thomas was general chairman.

For the program which followed, several accordion solos were given by Jimmy Bottorff, who also accompanied Stenlis Stokes as he favored the group with two vocal numbers. The evening was brought to a close by group singing, led by the Rev. Frank Brown.

WCS BI-MONTHLY MEETING

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met recently in the church parlors with Mrs. Roy Miller and Mrs. J. W. Englund as hostesses for the dessert course and meeting.

Mrs. Lee Cooley led the devotional service which was followed by a short business meeting and a Stanley demonstration. At the business meeting Mrs. Englund, president, appointed captains for the annual spring experience social, who are Mrs. Alvis Wicks and Mrs. E.A. Coston. Mrs. Wicks will be assisted by Mrs. Maude Wright.

LEGION AUXILIARY WORKING ON LAYETTE

The American Legion Auxiliary met Monday in the IOOF hall for regular business meeting. Mrs. Vinal T. Randall Sr., child welfare chairman of the unit, distributed cut material for a layette which the members are making for a needy veteran's family. This material was purchased with part of the proceeds from poppy sales. It is hoped that most of the layette will be completed by next meeting. Any members who desire to assist in this sewing may get in contact with Mrs. Randall by calling 261L.

It was reported that the sum of $80 was earned at the food sale held in connection with the band concert last week. A vote of appreciation was expressed for donations from members, mothers of the band students, the Auxiliary's Girl Scout troop and their leader, Mrs. Anne Woolery, and Roy Mason, who auctioned off the cakes and pies. The entire sum was given to the Legion Post to be turned over to the fund for uniforms for the high school band.

Announcement was made that the next meeting of the Willamette Council will be held in the Veterans Memorial Building in Eugene on Sunday April 10. As many as can were urged to attend. Plans were made for the visit of the district president, Mrs. Elva Cruson of Oakridge, on April 11.

At the conclusion of the business, refreshments were enjoyed with the Legion in the dining hall.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER FOR MRS. HABELLY

Helen Habelly was honored with a pink and blue shower Wednesday afternoon of last week by Grace Hanks and Hazel Hudgins, at the Hanks home.

For entertainment a musical reading was given by Elsie Brown, "Can't You Take It Back and Change It for a Boy," accompanied by Marcia Allen at the piano, after which the honored guest opened her many lovely gifts from friends and relatives.

The hostesses served dainty refreshments of cake, fruit salad, coffee and punch.

Guests for the shower were: Mrs. S. Sugg and Susan, M. Thornburg, Wilbur Reeve, Frank McCracken, Max McGuire, Nina and Neta, J. B. Melvin, Steve Chambers and Mike, W. A. Reeve and Marlene, M. E. Palleske, Frank E. Brown and Bobbie, Ross Overholser, Gale Lebow and Susan, Ernest Hathaway, David and Helen, R. Poynter, Geo. Vineyard, Geo. Moxley, Alon Abeene and Jerry, Boyd Allen and Judy and Jimmy, Wilbur Hoopes and Linda, L. E. Hudgins, Mollie Bishop and the Misses Alice and Rosemary Hanks. Several who were unable to attend, sent gifts.

Recipe of the Week BY MARY LEE TAYLOR

Apricot Upside Down Cake

Broadcast: April 2, 1949

1/2 cup butter
1 cup brown sugar
14 drained apricot halves, canned
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 unbeaten egg
1/2 cup soft shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup Pet Milk
1 cup water

Melt butter over very low heat in skillet or deep cake pan about 9 in. across the bottom. Sprinkle brown sugar in bottom. Arrange apricot halves on sugar. Let stand while preparing batter. Turn on oven; set at moderately slow (350° F.). Sift flour with baking powder, sugar and salt. Add remaining ingredients all at once. Beat vigorously 2 minutes with spoon or electric beater at medium speed. Pour batter over apricots. Bake about 40 minutes, or until cake shrinks from sides of skillet. Turn out; serve warm.
