

LONDON

Easter Program at Hebron Church

A special Easter program was given at Hebron Christian Church, Sunday by the Sunday school children and singing and special music by the adults. The church, newly refurnished inside was filled with baskets of spring flowers, lilacs and dogwood, mock orange and narcissus, arranged by Mrs. Goldie Tullar. Potted blooming Easter lilies were brought by Mrs. Lois Abeene and Workmans green-house. The program was directed by Mrs. Marjorie Berggren. Mrs. Jess Hill ably conducted the song service and the sermon was by Mrs. Perl Campbell. The church was packed with members and visitors. A new parking strip completed last week, afforded easy and safe parking for the many cars.

London Church of Christ

London Church of Christ was filled with attendance for Easter services Sunday with the Easter message given by Sam Medford. Visitors included Kenneth McEwen and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cantwell, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kennedy and J. P. Landon and families of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Jewel Baker of Eugene.

Easter Gatherings

There were many family gatherings and friends visiting in the community for the Easter holiday. A picnic, scheduled for outdoors, was held inside because of the cloudy cooler day at Joe Geers for Mrs. Lorene Geer and children, Terry and Marlene and her parents Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Christensen, all of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Myers and son, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Townsend and children, Mrs. Mary Jo Phillips and Mrs. Lora Townsend. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Landon, son Jimmy and new baby and Sammy Medford cooked Easter dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Medford Sunday. Mrs. Medford is still in bed from her recent pneumonia illness. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McEwen had three of their children, Kenneth, Eula and Wilma and their families for Easter Sunday dinner and in special celebration of the birthday of their grandson, Richard Cantwell, who was two years old. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Southerland had a family Easter Sunday gathering with dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Harley Brown, Marvis Southerland and Forrest Cox all of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Olds and family and Mrs. Nora Henderson. Mrs. Joe Geer received an Easter Sunday call from her daughter, Lillian, Mrs. M. J. Kirchner from San Louis Obispo, California. London grade school had Easter parties Friday afternoon in each of the three rooms at school, with paper Easter egg hunt, games, and treats of candy and fruit juices. Mrs. Emma Kelly entertained for Easter with dinner Sunday, for her daughter Lela, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perini and family, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Kelly and family. Mr. and Mrs. Walt Post of Mosby Creek and Claud Hensley of Leona. Carrying well filled picnic baskets, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Long and Mr. and Mrs. Monte Kuskie and families, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Easley all of London and brother Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth, "Bennie" Easley, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Easley and Mrs. Kenneth Easley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts all of Cottage Grove went fishing to Ten Mile Lake on the coast Sunday, spending an enjoyable, rather cool Easter, out of doors and catching a nice lot of perch.

General News

Nelson Bemis was called to Tigard near Portland early last week by the death of his brother-in-law, Harry Zimmerman, who died of a heart attack at his home April 10. Funeral services were held April 12 at Lincoln Memorial in Portland. Mr. Zimmerman, a U. S. Government lumber inspector, was well known here from his frequent visits in the community and Cottage Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Bemis returned home Wednesday accompanied by another sister of Mr. Bemis, Mrs. Harry Welch of Santa Rosa, Calif., who visited, also a sister, Mrs. Frank Geer of Cedar Creek, before returning to California Friday. Mrs. Lillian Stimmel and Fred Mills, both of Black Butte, surprised their many friends by their marriage Thursday morning, April 14 in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Mills left at once on a trip to the coast, continuing on to California to visit relatives.

Red Cross Gets $48

Red Cross contributions in the London community amounted to $48, as reported by Mrs. Charles Woods, chairman of the recent drive. Judy Long is improved so that her treatments in Eugene have been reduced to once a week, supplemented by hour long exercises, twice a day at home.

Uleta Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Small, was married in Eugene last week. Mrs. Glen Banton attended the Hebron Homemakers Economics Extension club regular meeting, April 14 in Cottage Grove at the home of Mrs. Hileman. Demonstration was on herbs and seasoning. Mrs. Banton also accompanied a group to Springfield Monday, April 18 for Homemakers Achievement day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Beatty are leaving by car, April 19, returning to their old home at Faxon, Okla., coming here from there three years ago. L. A. Dowd of Long Beach, a brother-in-law arrived Monday, to assist in driving for Mr. Beatty. Mrs. Jewel Baker, of Eugene, a daughter, visited over the week end with her parents at her sisters, Mrs. Lovelle Quigley.

Mrs. John Sterrenburg and daughter Joyce of Long Beach arrived Monday with her father L. A. Dowd, to spend the summer as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Quigley. Stop signs have been posted on Woodard's right-of-way at all county road crossings, making for greater safety of school buses and valley traffic.

The former one, one, telephone line has been completely replaced by the new telephone line. Arlie Sugg, Harry Stump, Walt Boran and Lawrence Funk received new phones last week.

Telephone numbers of Jack Long, Bert Newton and Perl Campbell were changed recently.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Ritter and sister, Betty Hurley, of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ritter of Drain were ladyshipper pickings on their favorite old hill on Carl Smalls place recently.

Barbara Banton was home last week, going lady slipper hunting, and reported finding two pearl white ones, original color, not faded ones. She sent a box of the delicate flowers to Jaci Johnson in California, a local girl who misses Oregon's green hills and wild flowers in the spring.

Mrs. Jeanne Morton has gone on a two weeks trip to Fowler, California to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jaci Johnson and grandchildren, Jill and Morten.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Andrews left Friday on a trip to Madras in E. Oregon near Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Johnson of Eugene spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garman.

Mrs. Jim Quigley worked three days last week in Mr. Lombard's office helping out in a pinch with several office stenographers called away because of illness. Mrs. Beatty kept Mrs. Quigley's baby.

Mrs. Maxine Freeman and girls of Culp Creek spent Saturday nite and Sunday with her mother Mrs. Roy Ewing. Also calling at the Ewing home Saturday and the Charles Woods home were, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hansen and two boys of Portland, who were returning from a Calif. trip and Mrs. Nancy Ewing of Cottage Grove, Roy Ewing's mother. Mrs. Hansen is Roy's sister.

Mrs. Nora Henderson has gone to Lorane to visit her daughter this week.

Club Quilt Awarded

London 4-H mothers club met April 14 at the club house. Donations of $22 was made the club by the members on the club quilt recently finished. Little Tana Wood drew Mrs. Mae Anderson's name to be awarded the quilt. Mrs. Anderson will be presented with the quilt upon her return from her trip east where she is visiting relatives.

Nina Shortridge was housekeeper for the day, and served the covered dish luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Lora Dayley.

Shower for Jean Ritter Hulet

A lovely wedding shower was given April 15, at the London 4-H Mothers club house for Jean Ritter Hulet, a recent bride.

Many lovely gifts were received and refreshments of jello, whipped cream, cake and coffee were served to 18 guests by the four hostesses,

Gladys Kelly, Lela Perini, Lawana Sugg and Dortha Hess. Out of the community guests were Mrs. Claude Ritter of Drain, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Margaret Ritter, Mrs. Vonnice Jones, Mrs. Leta Goodwin, and Mrs. Mark Morgan all of Cottage Grove, and Mrs. Winifred Cooley of Culp Creek.

Mrs. Hulet was honored at a previous bridal shower in Cottage Grove by her school girl friends.

Merrymakers Meet April 7

The Merrymakers Card club met April 7, with Mrs. Goldie Gunn in Cottage Grove for a 12:30 luncheon of sandwiches, angel food cake, whipped cream and coffee served by the hostess. High score was won by Dorothea Hess and second by Lawana Sugg who received gold fruit bowls and Zelma Small received a plastic table cover for low score. Hostess gift was 4 pair, hand embroidered pillow cases.

Next meeting is with Dorothea Hess, April 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barkmeyer were fishing on the Umpqua Saturday trying out their new boat. They report no fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard McKay have been annoyed recently by a rumor that they were fined for using Woodard's right-of-way and wish to state it is definitely a false rumor, that they were not fined and they do not use the right-of-way.

Fay McKay has the measles but is not sick, and hasn't been so far as she can tell.

Mrs. James Hicks and granddaughter of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Clede Adleman and Mrs. Ruth Adleman of Eugene visited Mrs. Lora Townsend Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Eberhard and family of Dallas are new people who have rented Joe Olds small house at London.

Correction: The 4-H Marketing boys attended the Heilig Theater in Eugene on their recent trip—not the Highway.

Before Canning

To prevent light colored fruit such as apples, pears, and peaches from darkening, drop them into a vinegar solution. Use two tablespoons of salt and two tablespoons of vinegar to a gallon of water. Fruit should have a slight rinse before canning.
