NUMBER 37

Royalty to Rule Print 'n' Jean Day, April 29

Print and Jean day has been set for April 29. Activities will include an afternoon play day, a dance in the evening, and coronation of king and queen. Sponsor of the program is the Girl's League.

On the day of this spring event each year, girls wear print dresses, boys wear jeans to school. Pupils not dressing in prints and jeans are subject to a penalty.

Freshmen, sophomore and junior girls will participate in the play day events scheduled on the track field in the afternoon. Betty McBee, Girls League vice president, and Miss Branthover are in charge of arrangements for the races, softball games, and other track activities. Senior girls will attend the Senior Mother's tea held in the library the same afternoon.

Girls will invite the boys to the Print and Jean Dance beginning at 8:00 p.m. in the gym, but individuals need not have an escort to attend. At the dance the royal court will be presented, and the king and queen crowned. Selection of the court and rulers will be made through popular vote of the student body earlier in the week; outcome of the vote will be kept secret until the dance.

Chairman of committees for the events are: dance, Norma Bradley; refreshments, Mickey Snapp; advertisement, Joyce Crouch; decorations, Shirley Hileman; and entertainment, Baba Mosley.

WITNESS ELECTED TRACK QUEEN

Shirley Witters, a pretty dark haired freshman, was elected track queen, for the Willamette Valley Meet last week, by the senior track boys.

Each school represented in the Valley Meet elected a queen to present the awards after each event.—Lions Roar.

Dance Recital Is Band Benefit

A variety program of song and dance will be presented by the Martha Hicks School of Dance, Monday evening, April 25 at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium. This recital is being sponsored by the high school band, and the proceeds will be added to the uniform fund.

Different styles of tap dancing will be executed with Shirley Buskirk, Sue Chadwell, Deann VanNortwick, Farrys Lusk, Dorothy Delk, Darlene Dayton, and Glenda and Neatha Collins as soloists. Martha Hicks will do a character dance, "Jealousy".

Group numbers of folk dancing and a waltz will round out the dance program. Those participating in these numbers are: Tyke Brady, Sue Chadwell, Baba Mosley, Alice Hanks, Mickey Snapp, Jerry Tennis, Byron Cordell, Wes Thompson, Dick Clark, and John VanNortwick.

A highlight of the evening will be excerpts of the well-known "Swan Lake" ballet with Tyke Brady, Neatha Collins, and Jerry Tennis taking the leads.

Music will be furnished by Evelyn Lewis' orchestra, John Drysdale, and Lorraine Ness. Scott Wilson, Sue Pulley, and Betty Patton will sing solos in the program, and "extra-special" describes the costumes.

Tickets will be on sale in the student office next week. The prices are: students 16c and adults 36c. Come out and support your band!—Lions Roar.

Uniformed Band Chorus Present Spring Concert

The Spring Concert was presented by the Music Department last night, April 18, in the Union High School auditorium with more than 100 students participating.

The program was in two parts, the first consisting of choruses, solos and ensembles conducted by Mrs. Alexander Hergert, and the last made up of band music under the direction of Mr. Elwood Rickman.

Soloists for the concert were: JoAnn Van Brunt sang "The Trout" by Schubert; Don Eastburn, "Marie" by Feranz; Teddy Heyl, "Rises" by Schubert; Albert Martin "The Horn" by Flegler; Scott Wilson, "Macushia" by Macmurrrough and Martha Roy sang "The Wind's of the South" by Scott.

The band appearing for the first concert in their new uniforms gave a group of numbers highlighted by a cornet solo played by Champ Husted accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Caldwell.

Accompanists for the choruses were Evelyn Garman and Ann Hill. Orlena Martin accompanied her brother Albert for his solo.

Spring flowers will decorate the school library for the Senior Mother's Tea held Friday, April 29, from 2:30 to 3:45. Mothers of all seniors, senior girls and faculty women are guests. Girl's League is in charge of this annual event.

Background music will be played during the tea, and a program of special vocal music will be presented by the Choral Department. New Girl's League officers, Evelyn Garman, president; Willa Durlinger, vice president; Kathryn Clark, treasurer; and June Olson, secretary, will be installed.

Mrs. Leo Rickard, mother of the retiring Girl's League president, and Mrs. Z. A. Coop, mother of the senior class president, have been asked to pour. Service Club girls will serve.

Chairman of the tea is Pat Rickard, retiring president of Girl's League. She is assisted by Evelyn Garman and Willa Durlinger. Shirlee Myers is in charge of invitations.—Lions Roar.

Music Groups Enter Contest

Saturday, April 23, the Boys and Girls' Chorus and band members will travel by bus to Albany for a Southern Willamette Valley Music Contest.

The two groups will be competing with other band and chorus entrants. Winners of a "1" rating may enter the State Contest held in Klamath Falls May 13 and 14.

Bobbie Yocum and Willa Durlinger will be choral student directors for "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes", Cain; and "Chanson de Marie Antoinette", Jacobson-Andrew; respectively. Mrs. Hergert will direct the third choral selection, "It Shall Be Light" by Gaul.

The Boys' Chorus will sing "Stars of the Summer Night", Woodbury; "Integer Vitae", Hemming; and "The Musical Trust", Clokey.

Under the direction of Mr. Rickman, the band will play "Overture Militaire", Skornicka; "Mantilla", Yoder; and "Invercar-gill March", Lithgow.

Gluttony and drunkenness have two evils attendant on them; they make the carcass smart, as well as the pocket.—Marcus Antonius.

Twins Elected School Leaders

Ronald and Robert Hite were elected president and vice president respectively, of the Associated Student Body at the general election Friday.

Cindy Gore was chosen as secretary. Treasurer is Robert Goodrich with Barbara Glenson as assistant. Donna Guggisberg captured advertising manager and Pauline Dyksterhuis, business manager.

In the publications department, Virginia Daily became Lions Roar Editor and Willa Durlinger, annual editor. Publications manager is Joanne Summers.

Yell and song leaders selected are Barbara Buckles, Nadine Carlson, Diane Morelock, Jean Rickard, Carol Violette, and Bobbie Yokum.

In a campaign assembly Tuesday, the candidates were introduced with speeches and skits, and the girls tried out for yell and song leaders.

Yell and song leaders were elected by popular vote for the first time, putting into effect, the new amendment to the constitution.—Lions Roar.

Firearms Casualties
Every year more than 2,000 persons accidentally lose their lives because of careless handling of firearms. The total was 2,500 in 1947. Most of these needless deaths are in hunting accidents.

Kathryn Clark Takes FHA Post

Results of the FHA election held during the activity period Friday are Kathryn Clark, president; Rosemary Hanks, vice president; Ellen Madsen, secretary; Helen Hiekthier, treasurer; Ramona Nerlie, historian; and Betty Lou Elliott, parliamentarian.

These officers for next year will be installed at a joint, formal ceremony with the Elmira FHA chapter here sometime during the first part of May. Following the installation a special program of charm and modeling will be given. To conclude the evening, the FFA boys will join the party for folk dancing.—Lions Roar.

SHORTHAND, TYPING AWARDS GIVEN

Sixteen students have earned typing and shorthand certificates this semester.

The certificates in shorthand were earned by Joan Crepeau, Lorraine Howell, Ramona Spartz, Betty Elliott, and Flora Patten. These girls can all take dictation at sixty words a minute.

Forty-word certificates in typing were earned by Anne Hill, June Olson, Mary Louise Sugg and Willis Johnson.

Thirty-word certificates were earned by Charlene Matthews, Louella Gartner, Berda Garrett, Gerald Powell, Kathryn Clark, Dale Sears and Nadine Smith.

Anne Hill was awarded a 50-word pin.—Lions Roar.
